My Dear Family of St. Therese,
HAPPY BIRTHDAY
HAPPY PENTECOST

Well, the summer is off to a good start. We had such great crowds over last weekend and even the weather cooperated until late Sunday night. The only drawback for the weekend was the shortage of bulletins. If that should ever happen again – you can get the bulletin on our parish website:

www.sttheresemontauk.weconnect.com

It was recently suggested to me that we have a “Book of Petitions” placed in the back of the church so people could write their own personal petitions for prayers and the book be part of the prayer group gatherings. We do have a book for petitions - our “Book of Remembrance”. Some were under the impression that the “Book of Remembrance” was for the faithful departed only. If you look through the pages, you will notice that there are prayers of petition, praise and thanksgiving – the three forms of prayer. So if there is a particular petition in your heart or a prayer of praise or gratitude that you would like to express and have our community pray, please add it to the book.

This Sunday there will be a special prayer gathering after Baptisms (about 12:30 in the church) “A Patriotic Rosary”. A prayer to unite us as “One nation under God!”.

We have begun to update our Parish Census. Census forms can be found at the doors of the church. Please take one and return it when you come back to church or drop it off at the Parish Center. Even if you are already registered, please re-register so we can update your information.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Tom & The Monsignor

Remembering a Loved One Memorials

As we bring our gifts to the altar at Mass we also bring our joy, pain, sorrow and love. We believe that God accepts all of this from us and gives us salvation through His Son in return.

If you would like to remember a loved one in our Eucharistic celebrations please contact our office. 668-2200

Another thoughtful way to remember a loved one is by donating a Memorial in the form of a liturgical item to be used in worship at St. Therese. The ongoing needs of our parish enable us to offer a variety of such items for memorialization. For more information about this opportunity, please contact Don Bostrom at 668 4202.

Pentecost Sunday

SEND OUT YOUR SPIRIT

Last week we heard that, following the Ascension, the disciples, Mary, and other followers of the Lord retreated to the upper room in prayer. This week we hear that, while praying in that room, the Holy Spirit comes upon them. Jesus' post-Resurrection promise, recounted in today's Gospel, is fulfilled: the power of the Holy Spirit comes upon Jesus' followers. Saint Paul tells us that all of us, in some way, are given gifts of the Holy Spirit, gifts that can be used to spread the Good News. Today is one of the Church's greatest festivals. Let us carry the refrain of the responsorial psalm with us throughout the coming week: "Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth!" (Psalm 104:30).

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Filled with the Holy Spirit, the apostles begin to speak in tongues (Acts 2:1-11).

Psalm — Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth (Psalm 104).

Second Reading — In one Spirit we are baptized into one body and given to drink of one Spirit (1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13).

Gospel — Jesus Christ appears to the disciples and sends them on their mission with the power to forgive or retain sins through the Holy Spirit (John 20:19-23).

Children Celebrate!

The Word This Week

On the Sunday evening after Jesus died, the disciples met behind locked doors. They were afraid they might be killed like Jesus had been.

Suddenly, there was Jesus right in the middle of them! They were thrilled to see him. After greeting them, he filled them with the Holy Spirit and gave them the power to forgive sins. Then he told them, "I am sending you, just as the Father has sent me."

"Teachers may meet with other teachers for prayer or Bible study to the same extent that they may engage in other conversation or nonreligious activities." from Free To Speak, Guidelines from U.S. Department of Education School to Teacher: Don't Pray for your Colleagues: Maine: H.S. educational technician, Toni Richardson, filed charges of religious discrimination and retaliation with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) in May, after being instructed to never use phrases like, "I will pray for you" and "You are in my prayers" in private conversations with coworkers.

Toni had tried to privately encourage a coworker with whom she attends church, by saying, "I will pray for you." Yet months later, after a falling out, this coworker lodged a complaint against her and the school gave Toni an official "coaching memorandum" which told her that stating, 'you were in my prayers', is not acceptable. The memorandum said that she could not use "phrases that integrate public and private belief systems" while at school. The memo specifically explains she will face discipline or dismissal in the future for using these phrases.

"What Augusta Public Schools did by punishing Toni for discussing her faith in a private conversation with a coworker is unconscionable," said a Maine law firm. "The law is clear: employers cannot discriminate against employees who privately discuss their faith while at work."

"School employees are not required to hide their faith from each other while on campus," said First Liberty Senior Counsel.
