My Dear Family of St. Therese,
Bon Jour!

It's time to brush up on your French. We are in the process of planning our next pilgrimage. Our last one to the Holy Land was quiet a success. The pilgrims are still talking about the pilgrimage and how Holy Week was an entirely different experience this year since they could see the sights in their minds as we read the passion. We were on the Mount of Olives, at Caiaphas' house, at the foot of Calvary and in the empty tomb.

Our next pilgrimage will begin on April 22, 2019 (the day after Easter) and return May 3rd. We will be going to France and visit Lourdes, Lisieux, Tours, Mt. San Michel, Paris and many other sights in the French country side. It will be a 12 day pilgrimage. While we do not have the price, a flyer is in the lobby of the pilgrimage itinerary. So pray about it and start saving!

Today we have the blessing of fleet (rain or shine). Last year we had over 200 boats blessed. It is really a wonderful day. It begins at 5:00 and the blessers will be moored at Gosman's Dock. If you do not have a boat, it is still a wonderful sight to experience.

In our first reading today in the Garden of Eden we hear the effects of sin in our lives. Sin destroys relationships. When challenged by God about eating of the forbidden fruit, Adam first blames God for creating Eve and then he blames Eve for giving him the fruit. Eve in turn blames the serpent. Neither Adam nor Eve takes responsibility for their actions. How often we can be like Adam and Eve. When we make mistakes, do we own up to them or do we find some else to blame? When we are honest with ourselves, we become like Adam – naked before our God and Father.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Tom & The Monsignor

Remembering a Loved One Memorials

As we bring our gifts to the altar at Mass we also bring our joy, pain, sorrow and love. We believe that God accepts all of this from us and gives us salvation through His Son in return.

If you would like to remember a loved one in our Eucharistic celebrations please contact our office. 668-2200

Another thoughtful way to remember a loved one is by donating a Memorial in the form of a liturgical item to be used in worship at St. Therese. The ongoing needs of our parish enable us to offer a variety of such items for memorialization.

For more information about this opportunity, please contact Fr. Thomas Murray 668-2200.

Thank You!

On behalf of Fr. Tom, our teachers and staff at St. Therese we would like to thank everyone who made our Memorial Day Plant Sale a big success! Thank You!

Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

PROMISES

Today's liturgy is full of promises. The reading from Genesis promises a final triumph over the power of sin and a return to a new creation. The reading from Second Corinthians promises that all who follow Christ will have to struggle. It also promises, however, that we can persevere if we but recognize that Christ is within us, renewing us daily, and giving us the courage and the strength we need to endure. The Gospel promises that doing God's will makes us "family" with Jesus, who forgives all sin and triumphs over evil.

Today might be a good day for us to make some promises as well. We can promise to stop kidding ourselves about our own tendencies to selfishness and sin. We can promise ourselves to believe—really believe—that while we are not sinless, we are forgiven. We can promise ourselves to combat evil and sin by acting as sisters and brothers not only to the Lord, but to one another as well.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — After Adam and Eve eat of the forbidden fruit, the LORD God puts enmity between the serpent and the woman (Genesis 3:9-15).

Psalms — With the Lord there is mercy, and fullness of redemption (Psalm 130).

Second Reading — We have an eternal dwelling from God, not made with hands (2 Corinthians 4:13 — 5:1).

Gospel — "Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother" (Mark 3:20-35).

Save the Date!

On the weekend of July 28th and 29th the people from the Holy Land of Israel will once again be here in the lobby of our church to sell their beautiful hand crafted religious items.

Attention Drivers!!

For the summer, Gurney's employees will have exclusive use of the church's East (back) parking lot on Mondays through Fridays. Church attendees on those days should use the church's South (side) parking lot. Both lots will be available to church attendees on Saturdays and Sundays.

Summer Camp for Boys and Girls!

This summer the Office of Vocations will host the second annual installment of Camp Quo Vadis, from July 8-13th. The camp is a 5 day over-night retreat opportunity for High School boys and girls.

Located at the Seminary of the Immaculate Conception in Huntington, the campers will be in the perfect location to both play outdoors and find space to pray to God. The seminarians will act as the counselors for the boy campers and a select group of young adult women from our Diocese will lead the girls. There are a limited number of spots so register now. For more information please call 631-423-0483

Camp Good Grief

East End Hospice is pleased to once again offer Camp Good Grief. A Bereavement day camp for children who have experienced a loss. The camp will be held from July 30th-August 3rd, 2018. It offers swimming, fishing, kayaking, therapy group games and more. There is NO fee for the camp. The cost is underwritten by proceeds from East End Hospice. For more information please call Angela Byrns, LCSW at 631-288-8400. Due to demand for registrations, preference may be given to children who are first year campers.

Catholics for Freedom of Religion

Religious Persecution Worldwide - 2 Types:

In North America and Europe we see a "Polite Persecution" through intimidation and legislation.

In Asia and Africa we see more and more "Violent Persecution."

1. Polite Persecution: in Michigan, Fired for her Faith: A Catholic clinical social worker with 20 years experience providing individual psychological counseling to a diverse group of patients, was fired because she declined marriage counseling to a same-sex couple since her faith teaches marriage is between one man and one woman. Her supervisor said she had to be "a social worker first and a Catholic second."

"This case shows that people of faith are under assault in the workplace," said a Thomas More Law Center attorney. "... discrimination against Christians is a civil rights violation that will subject employers to legal liability."

2. Violent Persecution: Radicalized Hindus have increased violent attacks on the religious minorities of Muslims, Christians, Sikhs, and Buddhists. These range from arson of churches to priests beaten & killed, nuns raped, and the destruction of Christian schools, colleges, and cemeteries.

Ten pastors and co-workers were taking 60 children to a Christian summer camp last May when they were surrounded by police, put in prison, and charged with kidnapping, cruelty, and forceful conversion.

Although the parents protested saying they wanted their children in the camp, the pastors remained imprisoned.

DOMINGO X DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

La vida de Jesús fue una lucha continua contra Satanás, príncipe del mundo. El reino de Satanás es vencido y el reino de Dios es instaurado por Jesucristo, el enviado por Dios.

Nosotros, los nuevos hermanos de Jesús, estamos llamados a continuar esta lucha contra el mal expulsando los demonios de nuestro corazón y liberando a los hermanos de los suyos.

El evangelio nos afirma la derrota de Satanás y la segunda lectura recuerda a los cristianos la promesa de una casa eterna construida por Dios en los cielos. El reino de Satanás tiene su fin. En este pasaje que escucharemos del evangelio de San Marcos se afirma de manera contundente la derrota de Satanás.

Los textos de este domingo nos recuerdan una vez más el proyecto amoroso de Dios y la actitud de incompreensión y rechazo que este proyecto encuentra en el corazón humano. El libro del Génesis nos explica el origen del pecado y el mal en el mundo.

Servicio de orientación psicológica:

Queda suspendido durante los meses de junio y julio 2018
