My Dear Family of St. Therese,

I hope everyone had a festive 4th of July. What a great day for us to remember our freedoms and so many we take for granted.

Recently we had a reading at a weekday Mass about the fall of Samaria (the Northern Kingdom called Israel in 722 B.C.). The passage was from the 2 Kings.

The writer of Kings tells how the Kingdom fell to the Assyrians because they had lost their faith in God. The tribes of the Northern Kingdom had turned from the commandments and their fidelity to God. This weakened the nation because it was their faith that bound them together. When they had their faith in God, they fought for their nation. Their lack of faith made them indifferent. The same would happen to the Southern Kingdom of Judea in 597 B.C. as they fell to the Babylonians for the same reason – the loss of their faith in God.

“If we forget History, we are doomed to repeat it.” The same fate came to the Greeks and the Romans. With a lack of faith, civilizations collapse!

One of great freedoms is freedom of religion. I pray that we do not become lukewarm or indifferent in our faith for if we do – History WILL repeat itself.

God Bless America!

Remembering a Loved One Memorials

As we bring our gifts to the altar at Mass we also bring our joy, pain, sorrow and love. We believe that God accepts all of this from us and gives us salvation through His Son in return.

If you would like to remember a loved one in our Eucharistic celebrations please contact our office. 668-2200

Another thoughtful way to remember a loved one is by donating a Memorial in the form of a liturgical item to be used in worship at St. Therese. The ongoing needs of our parish enable us to offer a variety of such items for memorialization.

For more information about this opportunity, please contact Fr. Thomas Murray 668-2200.

AARP MEETING

The next AARP meeting will be in August, there will be no meeting in July. Newcomers are welcome!

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

OBSTACLES

The prophet Ezekiel, Saint Paul, and the Lord Jesus share something in common in today's scripture readings. They all experience obstacles to their ministry. Ezekiel is summoned to prophesy to the Israelites, who are "[h]ard of face and obstinate of heart" (Ezekiel 2:4). Saint Paul recounts how he has been given a "thorn in the flesh" (2 Corinthians 12:7). The Lord Jesus is unable to perform many signs in his native place. The Gospel tells us that "[he] was amazed at their lack of faith" (Mark 6:6). We too sometimes encounter obstacles as we travel along the journey of faith. So often we experience weakness on this journey. Let the words of the Lord to Saint Paul encourage us today: "My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness" (2 Corinthians 12:9).

Catholics for Freedom of Religion

Supreme Court Narrowly Upholds Religious Freedom:

In a 7-2 decision, the U.S. Supreme Court overturned Colorado courts and found that baker Jack Phillips was not guilty of discrimination when he declined to design a wedding cake for a same-sex couple because of his religious beliefs. However, the decision is narrow since the court merely found that CO only exhibited anti-religious bias due to: (1) hostility aimed at Phillips' religious beliefs, (2) the different treatment CO gave a parallel case allowing bakeries to refuse to make cakes criticizing same-sex marriage.

Therefore, a definitive decision, resolving the underlying dispute between "non-discrimination" principles and freedom of speech and religion, will have to await another case and another decision.

Justice Anthony Kennedy wrote, "(CO) was neither tolerant nor respectful of (Phillips') religious beliefs."

Religious Persecution - International Report:

Nigeria: In 2014, Boko Haram (meaning 'Western Education is Forbidden') abducted 270 mostly Christian girls from a boarding school in Chibok. The leader said, "I abducted your girls; there is a market for selling humans." Only the Christian girls are allowed to be sold into slavery and prostitution.

By 2018, about 60 of these girls had escaped, others were released after payments made, and about 100 are still in captivity. But, once again, Boko Haram has kidnapped over 100 mostly Christian schoolgirls in their campaign to spread panic and terror.

To date, Boko Haram has killed more than 20,000 people and forced 2 million others to flee their homes in predominantly Christian southern Nigeria.
