Remembering a Loved One Memorials

As we bring our gifts to the altar at Mass we also bring our joy, pain, sorrow and love. We believe that God accepts all of this from us and gives us salvation through His Son in return.

If you would like to remember a loved one in our Eucharistic celebrations please contact our office. 668-2200

Another thoughtful way to remember a loved one is by donating a Memorial in the form of a liturgical item to be used in worship at St. Therese. The ongoing needs of our parish enable us to offer a variety of such items for memorialization.

For more information about this opportunity, please contact Don Bostrom at 668 4202.

Virtus Training

As part of the Diocese' ongoing commitment to protect our children, Virtus training will be offered for all volunteers who have not previously attended a session. Please note that this one time training is a requirement of all parish volunteers whether you work directly with children or not and all adults who might be interested are also welcome. Registration is required at www.virtusonline.org. Training will be on Thursday, July 20th at 2:30 pm in the parish_Center. For questions please call 631-668-2200.

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

A HUMBLE KING

Like a tonal center in music, the note to which we keep returning in today's readings is humility. We wait in joyful expectation for the coming of our Lord as King. But what we are told to expect and rejoice over is a meek and humble king, riding on an ass. Not horses or chariots of the great and mighty, but a humble beast carries the Ruler whose dominion stretches "from the River to the ends of the earth" (Zechariah 9:10). This King comes to banish the tools of the warrior and bring peace. No wonder that a weary world rejoices and gives thanks to God! Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Rejoice heartily, O Jerusalem! For see, your savior comes (Zechariah 9:9-10).

Psalm — I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God (Psalm 145).

Second Reading — The one who raised Christ from death will give life to your mortal bodies also (Romans 8:9, 11-13).

Gospel — Come, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest (Matthew 11:25-30).

Children Celebrate!

The Word This Week

Jesus told the people that he was the only one who truly knew the Father and he wanted to tell everyone about him.

Then he said, "If you are tired, come to me and I will give you rest. Take the yoke I give you. Put it on your shoulders and learn from me. I am gentle and humble, and you will find rest. This yoke is easy to bear and this burden is light."

Adult Formation Comments

"As our country in times of trouble, turns to our Forefathers for guidance, our church, in times of trouble, should turn to the Early Church as related in the Acts of the Apostles for guidance".

July 9, 2017-Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The cartoon below is a reprint of a very old Daily News comic strip. A priest friend of Msgr. Bob Ecker (Fran Ecker's brother in law) shortened his sermon one summer day back in the late 70's! He told the congregation to go buy the paper and pay attention to its message instead. For some, that "message" became life changing!

THIS IS WHAT OUR COMMUNITY OUTREACH PROGRAM IS ALL ABOUT --- AND MORE!
We are a parish community of less than 400 parishioners here at Saint Therese, yet combined with the folks at the Community Church we have more than 180 volunteers who have said YES to ideas such as the above and below - translated into contemporary "beatitudes" for us today!

- 1 Could you be available to give someone a ride to church or do a local errand like shopping or picking up a prescription?
- 2 Could you be an occasional visitor to a shut-in, bring song or hymn (as some have done!) etc?
- 3 Could you on occasion drive someone to Southampton for tests or to visit a loved one?
- 4 Could you on occasion supply a bit of relief to a care giver?
- 5 Could you on occasion be an emergency baby sitter?
- 6 Would you like to work the Outreach Hotline? It only takes one day a month and can be done from the comfort of your home! Just pick up the phone!
- 7 Would you be able to assist in some small home repairs (lamps, stuck doors, leaking faucets, etc.)?
- 8 Would you be able to assist the elderly or the infirm with a garden chore?
- 9 Would you like to pitch in with the Food Pantry?
- 10 Do you have a special service you'd like to offer as a volunteer in tutoring, ESL, Maureen's Haven, or any other area of YOUR choice? Tell us! Make a suggestion!

Catholics for Freedom of Religion

Religious Freedom Victory at Supreme Court:

The Supreme Court ruled decisively on June 26, in a 7-2 decision, that denying a church “an otherwise available public benefit on account of its religious status,” violates the Free Exercise Clause of the First Amendment.

The State of Missouri had prohibited a Lutheran preschool from participating in a public benefit program that provided school playgrounds with recycled rubberized material made out of old tires in order to resurface their playground. State officials believed this benefit would be an unconstitutional state endorsement of religion.

In his majority decision, Chief Justice Roberts wrote, “the exclusion of Trinity Lutheran from a public benefit for which it is otherwise qualified, solely because it is a church, is odious to our Constitution and cannot stand.”

Sadly, Justices Sonia Sotomayor and Ruth Bader Ginsburg argued that Christian groups should be denied access to these programs - unless and until - they give up their religious identity.

(courts.mo.gov; washingtonpost.com, 6/26/17; colsoncenter.org, 6/27/17)

“When our Founding Fathers passed the First Amendment ... they never intended to construct a wall of hostility between government and the concept of religious belief itself.” President Ronald Reagan

Pentecost Sunday-The Feast of The Most Holy Trinity-The Beatitudes

The above have been big in the news these past weeks, the church news, that is-”old” news, “our” new news, and certainly not “fake news”! All days of the liturgical year spell out for us the steps by which we all can connect better with our Creator and our neighbor. Here in Montauk, our parish Outreach Program has over 180 people from St. Therese and the Community Church who have volunteered to participate in some form of service to other folks in need. They have said YES to some of the ideas spelled out below the cartoon on the opposite page. We are in the process of updating that list of volunteers. Would you like to be included or would you like to drop out? Please let us know by a call to the OUTREACH NUMBER 631-668-1318 or by filling in the form below. Please tear it off and drop it off at the school office or drop it in the collection basket or simply call us at our number, 631-668-1318. Choose what you can do and tell us when you are free to do it. Use the form below You may never be called on (as some people have complained) but your good will will earn you blessings!
