Remembering a Loved One Memorials

As we bring our gifts to the altar at Mass we also bring our joy, pain, sorrow and love. We believe that God accepts all of this from us and gives us salvation through His Son in return.

If you would like to remember a loved one in our Eucharistic celebrations
please contact our office. 668-2200

Another thoughtful way to remember a loved one is by donating a Memorial in the form of a liturgical item to be used in worship at St. Therese. The ongoing needs of our parish enable us to offer a variety of such items for memorialization.

For more information about this opportunity,
please contact Don Bostrom at 668 4202.

NOTHING TO FEAR

A rabbi was asked why God sends trials and troubles into human lives. "Because God gets lonely for his people" was the reply. There is some resonance with this wisdom in today's Gospel, as Jesus makes his disciples get into a boat without him and goes off alone while they venture into stormy waters. Of course, neither Jews nor Christians believe that the Almighty plays this sort of whimsical game with them, but there is some truth in the statement that we don't turn to God for saving help until we're in a bind. Peter's role today, as it is throughout the New Testament, is to be a sign or to represent each member of the church and the whole church. Our story is the tale told about Peter's faith today. What can bolster our faith is that even when Christ calls us to face bravely the tempests of life, if we are walking through them with our eyes fixed on him in faith, we have nothing to fear. Even when we falter or sink, simply crying "Lord, save me!" is enough to help us know the steady grasp of God's hand. Then, sheltered inside the walls of faith, the storms we endure lose their power over us.

Children Celebrate!

The Word This Week

One stormy night Jesus told the disciples to take the boat out and leave him on shore. Later they saw Jesus walking toward them on the water! They couldn't believe it! Peter said, "Lord, if it is really you, tell me to come to you." "Come on!" Jesus said.

Peter started walking on the water, but then got scared and started to sink. "Save me," he cried. Jesus saved him and said, "Why do you doubt, Peter?"

August 13, 2017-The Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The cartoon below is a reprint of a very old Daily News comic strip. A priest friend of Msgr. Bob Ecker (Fran Ecker's brother in law) shortened his sermon one summer day back in the late 70's! He told the congregation to go buy the paper and pay attention to its message instead. For some, that "message" became life changing!

THIS IS WHAT OUR COMMUNITY OUTREACH PROGRAM IS ALL ABOUT --- AND MORE!
We are a parish community of less than 400 parishioners here at Saint Therese, yet combined with the folks at the Community Church we have more than 180 volunteers who have said YES to ideas such as the above and below - translated into contemporary "beatitudes" for us today!

- 1 Could you be available to give someone a ride to church or do a local errand like shopping or picking up a prescription?
- 2 Could you be an occasional visitor to a shut-in, bring song or hymn (as some have done!) etc?
- 3 Could you on occasion drive someone to Southampton for tests or to visit a loved one?
- 4 Could you on occasion supply a bit of relief to a care giver?
- 5 Could you on occasion be an emergency baby sitter?
- 6 Would you like to work the Outreach Hotline? It only takes one day a month and can be done from the comfort of your home! Just pick up the phone!
- 7 Would you be able to assist in some small home repairs (lamps, stuck doors, leaking faucets, etc.)?
- 8 Would you be able to assist the elderly or the infirm with a garden chore?
- 9 Would you like to pitch in with the Food Pantry?
- 10 Do you have a special service you'd like to offer as a volunteer in tutoring, ESL, Maureen's Haven, or any other area of YOUR choice? Tell us! Make a suggestion!

Catholics for Freedom of Religion

Freedom of Religion Imposters:

Under the guise of claiming religious freedom, anti-religion and atheist groups promoting Satanic Temples, monuments, black masses, and after-school Satan Clubs, are intent on mainstreaming Satanism in America. These satanic groups seek social acceptance and want to be viewed as normal.

Most communities have chosen to peacefully protest these anti-God groups. In Belle Plaine, MN, Satanists claimed the right to erect a satanic monument in the Veterans' Park after the City Council reinstated the placement of a two-foot-tall iron statue of a soldier praying over a grave marked with a cross. The community's vigorous opposition to the monument led the Council to vote on July 17, 2017, to abolish the park's free speech zone - the proposed site for the monument - and the satanists' move was defeated. One demonstrator said the monument "is not the message of life and love, it is the message of death and decay."

The Satanic Temple tried to organize a "Black Mass" at Harvard University in 2014 before a student group moved the event off campus. The satanists also created an Elementary School after-school program to promote their beliefs and worked to install a satanic statue at the Oklahoma State Capital. Again, citizens rejected these efforts. Another group set up a Satanic Church in Spring, TX, a suburb of Houston and citizens protested.

"Using the false argument of religious freedom, ... (these groups) seek to put Satan in the news and make Satanists accepted at the table," wrote John Horvat, author of Return To Order.

"We should be inspired by the individual person of action," wrote Rabbi Aryeh Spero, author of Push Back. "It is remarkable what one person can do when he stands proud and pushes back."

(crisismagazine.com, 7/19/17; startribune.com, 7/15/17; catholicnewsagency.com, 7/18/17)

Baptismal Vow: "Do you reject Satan and all his works?" Response: "I do!"

Pentecost Sunday-The Feast of The Most Holy Trinity-The Beatitudes

The above have been big in the news these past weeks, the church news, that is-"old" news, "our" new news, and certainly not "fake news"! All days of the liturgical year spell out for us the steps by which we all can connect better with our Creator and our neighbor. Here in Montauk, our parish Outreach Program has over 180 people from St. Therese and the Community Church who have volunteered to participate in some form of service to other folks in need. They have said YES to some of the ideas spelled out below the cartoon on the opposite page. We are in the process of updating that list of volunteers. Would you like to be included or would you like to drop out? Please let us know by a call to the OUTREACH NUMBER 631-668-1318 or by filling in the form below. Please tear it off and drop it off at the school office or drop it in the collection basket or simply call us at our number, 631-668-1318. Choose what you can do and tell us when you are free to do it. Use the form below You may never be called on (as some people have complained) but your good will will earn you blessings!

DOMINGO IX DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Señor Jesús, a veces estamos llenos de entusiasmo y olvidamos que eres tú la fuente de nuestro gozo. En los momentos de tristeza no te buscamos o queremos que intervengas milagrosamente. Ahora sabemos que no nos abandonas nunca, que no debemos tener miedo. La oración es también nuestra fuerza. Aumenta nuestra fe, estamos dispuestos a arriesgar nuestra vida por tu Reino.

Por ello reflexionemos: En los momentos de oscuridad y tormenta interior ¿cómo reacciono? ¿Qué puesto tiene en mí la oración personal, el diálogo con Dios? ¿Qué pedimos al Señor en la noche oscura? ¿Un milagro que nos libre? ¿Una fe más grande? ¿En qué me asemejo a Pedro?
