Remembering a Loved One

Memorials

As we bring our gifts to the altar at Mass we also bring our joy, pain, sorrow and love. We believe that God accepts all of this from us and gives us salvation through His Son in return.

If you would like to remember a loved one in our Eucharistic celebrations please contact our office. 668-2200

Another thoughtful way to remember a loved one is by donating a Memorial in the form of a liturgical item to be used in worship at St. Therese. The ongoing needs of our parish enable us to offer a variety of such items for memorialization.

For more information about this opportunity, please contact Fr. Thomas Murray 668-2200.

THE HIGHEST LAW

From time to time, newspapers and magazines will offer, as an item of “filler,” various laws that are still on the books but seem silly to us in our day and age. In one California city, it is illegal to have two indoor bathtubs in one house. Clean water, a precious commodity when the law was written, is now readily available, so the law seems silly. But the human value of protecting and preserving precious resources is still around, evident in many conservation laws that seem sensible to us. So it is with the laws of religious tradition. What Jesus scorns today is others’ attitude toward ritual laws, an attitude that becomes nearly idolatrous when laws are observed for their own sake. Jesus teaches that observation of external ritual laws is of value only when they are emblems of our internal disposition toward the will of God. Our whole lives must follow the one ultimate law of God: to love God completely and to love neighbor entirely. Roman Catholicism is a tradition rich with customs, traditions, and even laws. As we continue to listen to the voice of Christ, we must always look into our own hearts and underneath our ritual practices to make sure that love of God and love of neighbor are what we prize above all.

The Word of God This Week

We Follow God's Law

Some Pharisees and teachers noticed that some of Jesus' disciples ate without first washing their hands. They asked Jesus, "Why don't your disciples obey what our ancestors taught us to do? Why do they eat without washing their hands?"

Jesus said, "The food you put into your mouth does not make you unclean. The bad words that come out of your mouth are what make you unclean."

RELEASING THE POWER OF PRAYER: DEEPENING OUR IMAGE OF GOD

Have you ever wondered why more doesn't happen when you pray to an infinitely powerful Jesus who said, "Whatever you ask in my name, I will do for you" (Jn 14:13)? Although there are many explanations, the most common reason is that our image of God is not loving enough. This retreat will help us discover where our image of God is distorted and begin a lifetime process of healing it so we can experience the fullness of life from the real God of Life.

School is Open!

And... YES, Students May Express Their Faith - (Part 2)

The Supreme Court has repeatedly held that the First Amendment requires public school officials to be neutral in their treatment of religion, showing neither favoritism toward nor hostility against religious expression such as prayer.

Students do not shed their constitutional rights to freedom of speech or religious expression at the schoolhouse gates.

The U.S. Department of Education Guidelines tell us that:

* Students may read their Bibles or other religious materials, say grace before meals, and pray or study religious materials with fellow students during recess, lunch hour, or other non-instructional time.

* Students may express their beliefs about religion in homework, artwork, and other written and oral assignments.

* Student speakers may not be selected on a basis that either favors or disfavors religious speech.

* Students may organize prayer groups, religious clubs and "see you at the pole" gatherings before or after school to the same extent that students are permitted to organize other non-curricular student activity groups.

(www.Ed.gov, Guidance from U.S. Dept. of Education on Constitutionally Protected Prayer in Public Elementary and Secondary Schools)

* ACTION ITEM: A special back-to-school gift! Visit your parish store for one of the many medals your child or grandchild can wear to remind them, every school day and every day, that Jesus, Mary and their faith are with them always.
