Remembering a Loved One Memorials

As we bring our gifts to the altar at Mass we also bring our joy, pain, sorrow and love. We believe that God accepts all of this from us and gives us salvation through His Son in return.

If you would like to remember a loved one in our Eucharistic celebrations
please contact our office. 668-2200

Another thoughtful way to remember a loved one is by donating a Memorial in the form of a liturgical item to be used in worship at St. Therese. The ongoing needs of our parish enable us to offer a variety of such items for memorialization.

For more information about this opportunity,
please contact Don Bostrom at 668 4202.

Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

FOLLOWING CHRIST

If you've ever had an unpleasant but somewhat amusing practical joke played on you, then you have some understanding of how Jeremiah feels today when he tells God "good one—you duped me." We can almost see him shaking his head with a bit of a rueful smile, but an angry undertone in his voice. In similar fashion, Peter thinks Jesus is "duping" him when Jesus starts to explain that being Messiah means suffering and dying, and being a follower of the Messiah means taking up a cross and doing the same. Jeremiah tries to deny God's will for him by trying to shut up; Peter—who has just been made the foundation of the church—out and out denies the teaching of Jesus, for which he is named "Satan" today. Fortunately for us, Jeremiah comes to realize that to have the word of God placed in your heart means that it will be futile to try and keep silent, even if it means scorn and derision from those around you. Luckily Peter ultimately returned to the faith he professed in last week's Gospel, and came to understand our need as baptized followers of Christ to follow in his way, even when it means following him to our very death.

The Word of God This Week

Give Every Day to God

Jesus told his disciples that he would be killed soon, but that he would rise from the dead after three days. Peter said, "Don't talk like that. God won't let that happen."

Jesus said, "You are not thinking like God. You must forget about yourself, take up your cross, and follow me. If you want to save your life, you will destroy it. If you give up your life for me, you will find it."

Catholics for Freedom of Religion

As this new school year begins, let us empower our children.

Help them learn they are "Free to Be - Students of Faith"

Catholics For Freedom of Religion has developed a powerful lesson to inform students, parents and teachers about "THE BIG SECRET" - that "Public Schools are not God-Free Zones!" This lesson presents important information from the U.S. Department of Education and the First Amendment to the Constitution. Over 2,500 have heard this lesson so far, and frequent comments are: "I didn't know these facts." "Every parent and student should know this!"

There is a misperception that bringing religion into schools in any form is prohibited, resulting in students being silenced, shamed and even disciplined for protected speech and behaviors. This perception is wrong since there are strong protections for student religious expression at many appropriate times in public schools. For instance:

1. Students can express their faith at school, unless it's disruptive or coercive. They can comment about their own religious views in class or in assignments as long as it's related to the discussion.
2. Students can pray alone or in groups as long as the school doesn't sponsor the event and others aren't pressured to participate.
3. Public schools can teach about religious holidays or religious practices and discuss their influence on our culture so long as its objective rather than devotional.
5. Choirs can sing and orchestras can play sacred music; book lists can include religiously themed literature, and drama students can enact religious plays - all as part of the school's academic program, especially when mixed with secular works.
6. Students can form religious groups and clubs when the school allows non curriculum-related clubs.

Religious freedoms in our country protect, in law, the rights of children to live their faith among their peers in many appropriate school situations each day. Learning these religious liberties will clarify to students, parents and teachers that schools are not God-free zones.
