My Dear Family of St. Therese,
‘LET THERE BE LIGHT!’

You may have noticed that the altar has more light shed upon it. Over the years, several spot lights burnt out and the altar and Risen Christ became more and more in the shadows. Last week “Ocean Electric” came (with scaffolding) and replaced all the spot lights that focus on the sanctuary. Now, with the proper lighting, the Risen Christ is more powerful than before. When viewed from the center aisle, the shadow of the Risen Christ shows His arms out stretched and reveals the crucifixion. The statue proclaims “from death to resurrection”. The Risen Christ was also behind the altar of the old church.

Many objects in our newer church are from the old church. Aside from several of the stained glass windows, the rafters in the transepts of the church are also originals along with pews and wood work.

Once again we are in difficult times as we pray for justice and healing for the Body of Christ, the Church. It is always amazing how quickly scandal spreads and good news is ignored. When we as a parish had the misfortune of our parish credit card compromised, the newspaper was right on it with the police report. When I called to inform them that the incident had been settled and the funds returned, the reporter sounded disappointed. As they say “Bad news sells papers, not good news”. Well here at St. Therese, we proclaim the “Good News”.

This weekend we welcome “LYRA” and vocal group from Russia. They are talented, gifted and we consider them our friends. The Concert is at 3:00 this Sunday, September 9th. Please try to attend, and bring a friend for a delightful experience. A free will offering will be accepted.

NASTROVIA!

Remembering a Loved One

Memorials

As we bring our gifts to the altar at Mass we also bring our joy, pain, sorrow and love. We believe that God accepts all of this from us and gives us salvation through His Son in return.

If you would like to remember a loved one in our Eucharistic celebrations please contact our office. 668-2200

Another thoughtful way to remember a loved one is by donating a Memorial in the form of a liturgical item to be used in worship at St. Therese. The ongoing needs of our parish enable us to offer a variety of such items for memorialization.

For more information about this opportunity, please contact Fr. Thomas Murray 668-2200.

Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

SEE BEYOND OUTWARD APPEARANCES

The phrase "Sunday best" has lost much of its meaning in our society today. Some lament the loss of people dressing up for church on Sunday; others think it's a healthy sign that we're as casual in attire gathered before the Lord as we are elsewhere. No matter which school of thought on this topic we belong to, James would probably chastise us. In either case, we are still focused on external appearance, mistaking it for some sort of favored position before God. True, James criticizes the community that favors the rich and well-dressed while ostracizing the poorly clothed, but even more he criticizes the making of distinctions, making choices based on criteria that having nothing to do with the reign of God. James might turn our attention to the reign of God described by Isaiah, in which people are healed and the earth becomes ripe to bear fruit. Jesus today is focused on this reign of God, healing a Gentile man in a region hostile to his Jewish faith, not mindful of the man's origins or clothing or status or ability to repay. Isaiah, James, and Jesus in Mark's Gospel all call us to look more deeply to find where the will of God needs to be done, and has been done, on earth as in heaven.

The Word of God This Week

Jesus Heals the Deaf Man

There was a man who could not hear or talk clearly. People begged Jesus just to touch the man. Jesus stuck his fingers in the man's ears and put his spit on the man's tongue. Then Jesus prayed and said, "Open up!" At once the man could hear and speak clearly.

Everyone was amazed at this miracle. Jesus told the people not to tell others what he had done, but they couldn't quit talking about it.

"In God We Trust", Our National Motto,
posted in schools in more states!

The National Motto, "In God We Trust" first appeared on American currency in 1864 in the aftermath of the Civil War. President Eisenhower approved a law confirming it as the nation's motto in 1956, during the Cold War.

"Our National Motto is enshrined in the House and Senate chambers in Washington. It's on the walls of the Capital Dome. The National Motto's declaration should be engraved not simply in stone but on the hearts and minds of our citizens, signifying our true strength and heritage as a people," said Dr. Mark Creech, Director of Christian Action League.

"Our National Motto is on our money, it's on our license plates. It's part of our National Anthem. Our National Motto and founding documents are the cornerstone of freedom, and we should teach our children about these things," said TN Rep. Susan Lynn.

"(Allowing) our National Motto, 'In God We Trust', back on the walls of our schools, is a reminder of hope and tolerance," said MN Sen. Dan Hall.

Lawmakers have approved measures requiring (or suggesting in some states) that "In God We Trust" be posted in schools in the following states:

Florida, Tennessee, Arkansas, South Carolina, North Carolina, Wyoming, Alabama, Oklahoma, Louisiana, Minnesota.

"It is quite obvious that the National Motto and the slogan on coinage and currency, 'In God We Trust' has nothing whatsoever to do with the establishment of religion. Its use is of patriotic or ceremonial character and bears no true resemblance to a governmental sponsorship of a religious exercise." U.S. 9th Circuit Court of Appeals, 1970
