My Dear Family of St. Therese,

This past week we celebrated the Feast of one of our newest Saints and probably one of the most famous women of our time – St. Theresa of Calcutta (Mother Theresa). I was blessed to have Mother Theresa speak at my college graduation. She is an example of good things come in small packages! While she was physically small, her image, energy and effect on our world was monumental. Like our own St. Therese she did not tell us what to do – she showed us that the simplest kind action has far reaching effects.

It was strange that not long before her death, we had the tragic death of the “People’s Princess” – Princess Diana. These two women were at opposite ends of the monetary scale, and yet both showed us the power of reaching out to help those less fortunate.

This weekend’s Gospel tells us that we are responsible to take care of one another and it is meant to be a community response. I see this happening in our response to the terrible effects of hurricane Harvey in Texas. While we have had campaigns about whose life matters and whose life is more important, through the tragedy of hurricane Harvey we come to realize that all lives matter and we are all called to care for one another. I believe this response shows the true human spirit of caring, concern and compassion.

On the weekend of September 16/17th our second collection will be taken up for the relief services for those affected by hurricane Harvey. As some of us may know, the recovery from hurricane Sandy is still going on years after the storm, I’m sure the recovery in Texas will be just as lengthy. We lift up our brothers and sisters touched by hurricane Harvey and pray that rather than see the devastation and damage from the storm, we are able to see the outreach by so many who have come to their aid!

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Tom & The Monsignor

Remembering a Loved One Memorials

As we bring our gifts to the altar at Mass we also bring our joy, pain, sorrow and love. We believe that God accepts all of this from us and gives us salvation through His Son in return.

If you would like to remember a loved one in our Eucharistic celebrations
please contact our office. 668-2200

Another thoughtful way to remember a loved one is by donating a Memorial in the form of a liturgical item to be used in worship at St. Therese. The ongoing needs of our parish enable us to offer a variety of such items for memorialization.
For more information about this opportunity,
please contact Don Bostrom at 668 4202.

Cross Catholic Outreach

Fr. Tim O'Toole will be here on the weekend of September 23rd and 24th to speak at all the masses on behalf of Cross Catholic Outreach. The Outreach was founded to create a meaningful link between parishes in America and the priests and nuns working in the churches overseas. Brochures will be provided at the masses if you wish to support this worthy Catholic ministry.

Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

GOD'S WATCHERS

In the ancient world watchmen were extremely important people. They kept communities safe, and were there to alert them to any impending danger or attack. Before locks, alarms, and security systems, watchmen were the protectors, the safety measure. So when the Lord charges Ezekiel as a watchman today, it is a weighty charge. So weighty, we learn, that if Ezekiel fails to sound the alarm for those around him and they perish in a state of wickedness, Ezekiel will be held responsible! This profound connection between God's will on earth and in heaven is repeated in today's Gospel, where Jesus instructs us that we are to be the security force, the watchers placed on alert that nowhere in the Body of Christ, the church, will there be any two members of the one Body who are not reconciled. Scripture tells us that Jesus reconciled all things in heaven and on earth through the blood of his cross. But we are given the mission to continue that reconciliation on earth as in heaven through our ceaseless efforts to be, as Paul would write, ambassadors of reconciliation. Let us not get too comfortable thinking that we are responsible only for keeping our own lives from the path of wickedness and disagreement. We are also held accountable for the lives of the members of Christ's body around us.

Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Children Celebrate!

Liturgy of the Word with Children

Today's Readings

Ezekiel 33:7-9
Psalm 95:1-2, 6-7abcd, 7e-9
Romans 13:8-10
Matthew 18:15-17

We Pray

Give us the courage, O Lord, to help others turn away from doing bad things and instead turn toward you. May we always act in a spirit of kindness and love. Amen.

The Word of God This Week

Jesus Calls Us to Take a Stand

Jesus told his disciples: "If someone sins against you, tell the person what was wrong. Keep it just between the two of you. If the person listens to you, then you have made up. If the person doesn't listen, take others with you to talk to the person. If the person still doesn't listen then report the matter to the Church. If the person doesn't listen to the Church, treat the person like someone who does not believe."

Catholics for Freedom of Religion

Religious Persecution - 2016 Worst Year on Record:

Before that, the worst year was 2015 and before that, 2014, reported the Center for Studies on New Religions. Christians killed for their faith has been in the tens of thousands and as many as 600 million were prevented from practicing their faith through "intimidation, forced conversions, bodily harm or even death."

Persecution is at historic levels and getting worse. North Korea tops the list of offenders but Islamic countries account for nearly all major persecution of Christians. Some of the world's oldest Christian communities are simply going extinct due to the continuing Syrian civil war and the aggression of ISIS throughout the Middle East.

Now Russia has been included in a new global report from the U.S. Commission on International Religious Freedom. "Not only has Russia continually intensified its repression of religious freedom at home," the commissioners wrote, "it has also expanded its repressive policies to territory of a neighboring country (Crimea and eastern Ukraine) where 'religious freedom is at the whim of armed militias not beholden to any legal authority.'"

"The right to practice any faith, or have no faith, is a fundamental human right of all people, no matter where they live," said Sen. James Lankford. He is concerned that America's hostility to religious liberty at home has led to incredible indifference abroad.
