

St. Therese of Lisieux Parish

Where all are welcome to help us build the City of God!

Our Mission:

We are a spiritual home for all who come here to worship.

We are united in supporting one another in prayer and caring for the corporal needs of our brothers and sisters.

We strive to imitate Therese, our patroness, by loving one another even in the simplest ways.

Nuestra Misión:

Somos un hogar espiritual para todos los que viene a aquí venerar.

Somos unidos a apoyar el uno al otro en oración y en cuidar de las necesidades corporales de nuestros hermanos y hermanas.

Nos esforzamos a imitar Therese, nuestra patrona por amando el uno al otro aún en las maneras más sencillas.

My Dear Family of St. Therese,

They say that things quiet down in Montauk after Labor Day. Whoever says that does not live here. The weekend after Labor Day we had "LYRA" visit. "LYRA" is a vocal group from Russia who delighted us with a concert of Russian Sacred Music and Russian Folk Songs. If you missed them this year, they will be back next year.

Last weekend we had the "Big Bucks" drawing at the fire house and this past week I began my classes on The Bible on Tuesday night at 7:00 in the Parish Center. If you missed the introduction class, you can still join us this week (please read Genesis Chapters 1 -4 in preparation).

We also had the celebration of Our Lady of Cisne, patroness of Ecuador. It began on Friday night at 11:00 p.m. with a procession from Amagansett to St. Therese, arriving 4:30 a.m. Saturday morning. The celebration continued with a Mass on Saturday evening in the church and on Sunday at noon a procession from the church to the soccer field for an outdoor Mass. Our Spanish brothers and sisters are an inspiration to all of us in the expression of their faith. For photos, see our web site.

Last weekend I was asked about our second collection each weekend. Most of the time the collection is a special collection for a Diocesan cause. When there is no special reason for the collection, the collection goes to parish maintenance. Each week we list the collection and below is listed how much of the Sunday collection went to maintenance.

There will be a Pastoral Council Meeting, Sunday September 30th at 1:00 p.m. in the Parish Center. All are invited to attend.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Tom & The Monsignor

4th Annual Rosary Rally

Join us for our 4th annual Rosary Rally! There will be an outdoor rosary at 12 noon on Saturday, October 13th on the Parish center lawn. The Rally will be in commemoration of the 101st anniversary of the miracle of the sun in Fatima. We will gather in prayer and song to honor Our Blessed Mother, and pray for repentance, our country and for peace.

Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

HOW DO WE TREAT THE MESSENGER?

Let's not be too hasty in defining who is "the wicked one" and who (namely us) is just! We are very quick to label others as evil, because we tend to label ourselves as good guys. We don't like it when we are brought up short by a prophetic voice that brings us some bad news about our own behavior. We don't like to be reproached for transgressions of the law or charged with violations of our training.

We may condemn and abuse those who bring us up against these truths about ourselves when, if we were really good, we would thank them for helping to keep us on the right path. This is the way they treated the prophets and the way they treated Jesus. Is this also the way we treat those whose message we don't like?

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The wicked say: With revilement and torture let us put the just one to the test (Wisdom 2:12, 17-20).

Psalms — The Lord upholds my life (Psalm 54).

Second Reading — The wisdom from above is full of mercy and good fruits (James 3:16 — 4:3).

Gospel — Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me (Mark 9:30-37).

Liturgy of the Word with Children

Today's Readings

James 3:17–18
Psalm 122:1–2, 8–9
Mark 9:33–37

We Pray

Lord, teach me to be humble. Teach me to be kind. Teach me to see the goodness in all people. Amen.

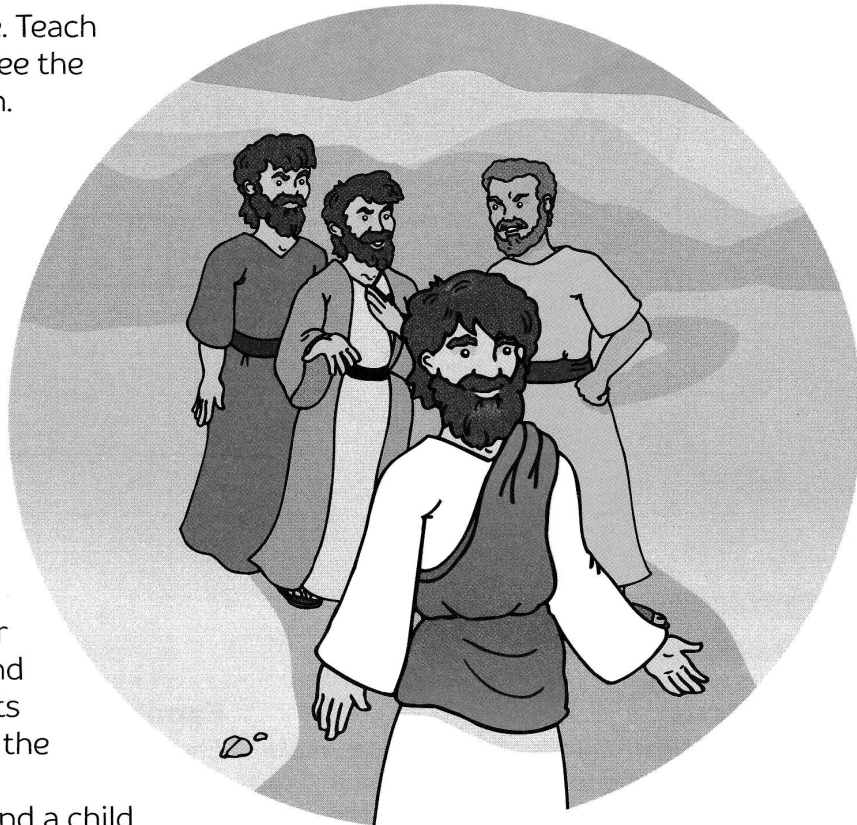

The Word of God This Week

The Greatest Is the One Who Serves

While they all walked along, Jesus' disciples argued about which of them was the greatest. When they got home, Jesus asked them what they were arguing about. They wouldn't answer him. But he knew anyway and said to them, "Whoever wants to be greatest of all must be the servant of all."

Then he put his arm around a child and said, "When you welcome even a child, you welcome me and the one who sent me."

September 23, 2018-Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Come to nocturnal adoration here at St. Therese on the first Tuesday of each month!

Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament follows the 8:30 AM Mass, continuing throughout the day and night until 8:15 AM on Wednesday, with Benediction just before the 8:30 AM Mass. Dates of the first Tuesdays are:

January 2, February 6, March 6, April 3, May 1, June 5, July 3, Aug 7, Sept 4, October 2, Nov 6, December 4.

You can sign up on a month by month basis so if you are not here for a particular month choose another.

If you are wondering what you are supposed to be doing during the hour of sitting before the Blessed Sacrament – DON'T WORRY! There are no 'have to's but here are some suggestions.

If you are tired, just sit. What parent wouldn't like to hear their child say, "I'm too tired to talk right now – can I just rest with you?"

If you are burdened, happy, frustrated – share it. What parent wouldn't love to hear what's on their child's heart?

Then let Him speak to you in the silence. Clear your mind and listen.

There will be books, articles, and prayer cards for inspiration.

Pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy – because it is a unification with the sacrifice of the Mass wherein we offer to the Father the very Body and Blood of Jesus.

The one thing you MUST do is to be 'real' with Jesus. Build a relationship by honest communication. Adore Him: begin and end by thanking and praising Him for who He is.

There is a sign-up sheet in the Narthex. Please write down the hour that you wish to spend in adoration along with your name, phone number and email address.

When your hour is up, if there is no one to take your place please text either Doreen (203)-450-1795 or Eulalie (631) 457-9381.

Anti-Semitism on the Rise in Europe and on Many American College Campuses
International Report: Part 1

The Anti-Defamation League (ADL), 2017 report tracking American Colleges, reported over 1,700 anti-Semitic incidents from 2015-2017. "In the past several years, Jewish students on certain college campuses - not all, but a large number - have been subjected to unprecedented levels of anti-Jewish sentiment, leading many to feel uncomfortable participating in Jewish campus life or other campus activities whose participants are especially hostile to Jewish students."

"Schools that are promoting the Boycott, Divest, and Sanction (BDS) movement against Israeli businesses and universities, are 3-8 times more likely to target Jewish students for harm," said AMCHA, a group combatting anti-Semitism.

Anti-Semitism is once again a serious concern in Europe. Incidents of violent attacks, assaults, and vandalism are making headlines almost every day.

France: Assaults on the 500,000 Jewish community are happening, on average, twice per week. These include arson attacks on kosher restaurants.

Germany: German Jews are worried about the rise of the anti-Semitic, Alternative for Germany political party, which is the third largest in parliament.

Poland: The Polish Jewish community wrote, "Polish Jews do not feel safe in Poland" due to "the current wave of anti-Semitism (which) arose in response to" the recent libel law that forbids the belief that Poland was involved in the Holocaust.

Ukraine: There is a 50% increase in violence against Jews.

Britain: Jewish leaders held an "Enough is Enough" event to protest the Labour Party and their leader, Jeremy Corbyn, for anti-Semitic rhetoric and a marked increase in anti-Semitic incidents.
