My Dear Family of St. Therese,

I would like to begin by thanking our Faith Formation Director, Louise Carman, Pastor Bill Hoffmann and Randy Miller one of our Faith Formation Teachers for the presentation this past week on Suicide Prevention. It was the first of future presentations on this silent killer. Suicide is more eventful than we know. It is the death we do not like to talk about.

This past Tuesday night we had the three speak about what they learned from the East End Hospice about this sad hurtful death. They presented suggested possible indications of a coming suicide, how to support the possible suicidal person and prevent their intentions and the support for those who are left behind after a suicide. It is sad that there are those who think that those who commit suicide are condemned to hell. Those who judge are the one's condemned to hell for their judgement. A person, in the thoughts of suicide, is in pain and hurting, for whatever reason. Sadly, they believe their pain will end, but they forget the pain they leave behind for those who loved them.

I've invited Louise, Pastor Bill and Randy to give the presentation again. I think this silent killer is something we all need to be aware of and try to do what we can to prevent it in our youth and senior citizens.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Tom & The Monsignor

As we bring our gifts to the altar at Mass we also bring our joy, pain, sorrow and love. We believe that God accepts all of this from us and gives us salvation through His Son in return.

If you would like to remember a loved one in our Eucharistic celebrations

Another thoughtful way to remember a loved one is by donating a Memorial in worship at St. Therese. The ongoing needs of our parish enable us to offer a variety of such items for memorialization.

Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

CALL UPON THE LORD

The very first line of today's first reading summons us to seek the Lord and to call upon God. This sentiment is echoed in the refrain for today's responsorial psalm: "The Lord is near to all who call upon him" (Psalm 145:18a). Saint Paul is the embodiment of someone who constantly sought the Lord. In the excerpt we read today from his letter to the Philippians, we find Saint Paul toward the end of his life, a life he describes as completely consonant with Christ. He writes, "For to me life is Christ" (Philippians 1:21). To find out what it means to live life completely in accord with Christ we need look no further than today's Gospel. There we find that God's love and mercy are immeasurable for all those who seek and call upon the Lord.

The Word of God This Week

God's Ways Are Not Our Ways

Jesus told the story of a man who hired some workers very early one morning. They agreed on their pay for the day's work. Throughout the day, the man hired more workers at different times. When he paid the workers at the end of the day, those who worked the longest expected more pay. But the man said, "I paid you what we agreed. If I want to be generous, I can."

Jesus added, "The last shall be first."

Senators Attack Judicial Nominee's Catholic Faith:

Despite the Constitution forbidding a religious litmus test, Sen. Dianne Feinstein and Sen. Dick Durbin attacked Un. of Notre Dame law professor Amy Barret, nominee for the 7th Circuit Court of Appeals, and a Catholic, accusing, "The dogma lives loudly within you," and "Do you consider yourself an orthodox Catholic?" These attacks followed Prof. Barret already stating, "It is never appropriate for a judge to apply their personal convictions whether it derive from faith or personal conviction."

"The Amy Barret hearing reveals a new disturbing trend: Anti-Christian sentiments which were only once whispered behind closed doors are now being proclaimed from the rooftops by the most powerful people in society," said research fellow, Ryan Anderson.

"At a time in which the nation is badly frayed, disoriented and confused, U.S. senators abused their high office to berate, slander, and demean a woman of exceptional legal wisdom simply because they suspected that aspects of her Catholic faith would make her an unjust judge," said a Catholic University of America professor.

Fr. James Martin, S.J., said that Feinstein's comments were a "Throwback to an era when Catholics were seen as unthinking tools of the Pope. You can be a good Catholic citizen in our country. Ask JFK."

September 24, 2017-The Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Vamos a aprender hoy algo que es fundamental para nuestras vidas. Y que no es otra cosa que comprender que nuestros caminos no son los de Dios. Y que tenemos que dejar a Dios ser Dios y no una herramienta caprichosa a nuestro servicio. Jesús de Nazaret en la famosa parábola del viñador que sale a contratar sucesivamente obreros nos muestra que la misericordia de Dios está siempre dispuesta a admitir a quien quiera ir a trabajar con Él a la viña.
