My Dear Family of St. Therese,

This past week we had our monthly Nocturnal Adoration from Tuesday morning to Wednesday morning. It is sad at times to see how few turn out for this special time before the Eucharist in the Monstrance, but times have changed.

Originally the Christian Liturgy (The Mass) was celebrated in the language of the local people. While there is no certain proof of why the liturgy began to be celebrated solely in Latin, some believe it was Charlemagne, as Holy Roman Emperor who instituted this practice. In an effort to unite the Empire he chose the one language that was common among the aristocracy – Latin. In choosing this language, the average person was shut out from the Eucharist.

While they still believed that Christ was present in the Holy Sacrament, eventually the commoner became separated from the liturgy (literally separated by the altar rail). The people outside the altar rail believed that by looking upon the consecrated host, they received Jesus. Since they did not understand what was going on in the liturgy, a bell was rung to get their attention and to look up.

Soon the practice of receiving Jesus by gazing upon Him became the norm and when there was no Mass, Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament began with Benediction (the blessing with the Monstrance).

Prior to Vatican II this practice remained. Plus the fact the people had to fast from Midnight on Saturday and were expected to go to Confession on Saturday did not foster the practice of receiving Communion. After the Vatican Council and the Mass was in the language of the people (the way it was intended to be) and fasting was reduced to one hour prior to receiving Communion, more people now receive the Eucharist. The idea of only by gazing upon the Host in the Monstrance has faded.

While Exposition and Benediction are a beautiful celebration of the Eucharist, there becomes the danger that we begin to think Jesus is more present when He is in the Monstrance – not true! He is ever present in the church in the tabernacle and anywhere among His people.

At St. Therese we continue to celebrate Exposition and Benediction every Tuesday after the 8:30 Mass (and every First Friday). All are invited to attend our Nocturnal Adoration, but keep in mind that we are always in His presence.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Tom & The Monsignor

Remembering a Loved One

Memorials

As we bring our gifts to the altar at Mass we also bring our joy, pain, sorrow and love. We believe that God accepts all of this from us and gives us salvation through His Son in return.

If you would like to remember a loved one in our Eucharistic celebrations please contact our office. 668-2200

Another thoughtful way to remember a loved one is by donating a Memorial in the form of a liturgical item to be used in worship at St. Therese. The ongoing needs of our parish enable us to offer a variety of such items for memorialization.

For more information about this opportunity, please contact Fr. Tom Murray 631-668-2200.

Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

HE EMBRACED THEM AND BLESSED THEM

Today Jesus stresses how children embody the reign of God. They are trusting and loving and have hearts that are open to love. They are joyful when they are made aware of God’s love for them, and are eager to return that love. This is the model Jesus holds out to us if we want to welcome the reign of God. We need to have open, loving hearts. We must drop our defenses, however we came by them, and welcome Christ’s love for us with joy. This is impossible for us on our own. Only the grace of God will enable us to do this, but that grace is freely and generously given. We have only to accept it.

Children Celebrate!

Liturgy of the Word with Children

Today's Readings

Genesis 2:18-24

Psalms 128:1-2, 3, 4-5

Mark 10:13-16

We Pray

Jesus, your love for me is wonderful. You welcome me as a friend. Thank you for your love and friendship. Amen.

The Word of God This Week

Jesus Welcomes the Children

Some people brought their children to Jesus to be blessed. The disciples told the people to leave Jesus alone.

When Jesus saw what the disciples did, he said, "Let the little children come to me! People who are like children belong to the kingdom of God. Unless you accept it the way a child does, you cannot get into God's kingdom."

Then gathering the children in his arms, Jesus blessed them.

What's new from the Desk of the Religious Education office...

Thank you to the newest members of our program, our kindergarten and first grade children for hosting family mass last week. Well done kids, and good job for being respectful both in the pew and on the altar!

As we know...it's so important to behave kids in the appropriate manner when inside the church, whether we are paying a visit by ourselves or celebrating mass together as a parish community, we must always remember where we are...we are in the presence of our Lord. So whether in the pew or on the altar, may we follow the example of our kindergarten and first grade class, and behave accordingly. At the 10:30 Family Mass on Sundays, many of the kids present like to go up on the altar when invited by Fr. Tom and we are very grateful to Fr. for encouraging the kids to participate in the mass (as Jesus said, "let the children come to me..." Matthew 19:14).

Unfortunately however, some in the pews may be distracted by this and so I would like to make the suggestion that perhaps bowing your head so as not to be distracted might help...

Coming up...

Next Sunday, October 14th beginning at the Parish Center, we join together with the Montauk Community Church at 1pm to have our annual Crop Hunger Walk. This event raises money for the fight against hunger both locally and throughout the

Catholics for Freedom of Religion

www.cffor.org

"Readers are advised to remember that the devil is a liar." C.S. Lewis, author

Satanism & Religious Freedom:

The latest effort to normalize Satanism in America occurred on August 16 when the Satanic Temple paraded an 8 ½ foot-tall, one-ton demon statue to the Arkansas State Capital. The goal is to get Americans accustomed to the mistaken belief that Satanism is a protected religion by the First Amendment. It is not.

Nonetheless, these groups have won victories in Oklahoma, Minnesota, and Detroit as well as in after school programs in Washington State (to rival the Good News Club), and offering satanic curses to open a city council meeting in Alaska.

Knowing and understanding First Amendment Freedom of Religion protections is essential in order to refute the Satanists claims.

"The freedom of religion found in the First Amendment is a freedom to worship God according to the dictates of one's conscience - not the license to disparage or deride Him," wrote author Gunnar Gunderson. "Satanism is irreligion or anti-religion ... Thus, granting Satanism religious-freedom protections undermines rather than strengthens religious-freedom rights by directly attacking their foundation. There is no evidence that either our Founders or founding citizens understood freedom of religion to include irreligion. Nor would such a right even make sense."
