My Dear Family of St. Therese,

Each October the Diocese offers the "St. Agnes Award" to one volunteer in each parish. This volunteer is a parishioner or husband and wife that have truly taken to heart the Lord's example to "serve the Lord with gladness" by service to His people. The past recipients have been:

'07 Virginia Galetta Stevens
'08 Ken and Irma Jacob
'09 Fran Ecker
'10 Lynda Bostrom
'11 Harry and Maureen Theyard
'12 Don Bostrom
'13 Peter Murray
'14 Jack Graham (Posthumous) and Peggy Graham
'15 Marianne Caserta
'16 Eulalia Lazo
'17 Jerry McKeon

This year I am proud to announce our recipient will be Mrs. Mae Pedersen. While some may not know Mae by name, her work at St. Therese cannot be missed. When you go to light a candle before St. Therese of Our Lady, chances are Mae is the lady who replaced the one prior to your new candle. Mae is also head usher at the 8:30 Mass and volunteers to help count your generous donations prior to our church deposit. Congratulations, Mae and thank you for all that you do for us at St. Therese.

While Mae and I are at the Cathedral receiving her award, The Prayer Life at St. Therese continues. Sunday October 28th has been designated "Priesthood Sunday". A day requested by the laity to pray for priests. Mr. Randy Miller has organized a Prayer Service for Priest to be celebrated on the 28th at 4:00 in the Church. At a time when we, your priests, are most in need of your prayers, I encourage all who are able to attend. (How apropos that October 28th is also the Feast of St. Jude!)

Following Hurricane Florence we had a visit from a family from Wilmington Beach, NC. Their Parish is also a beach community and their church and parish facilities were badly damaged by the hurricane. Their parish is St. Therese of Lisieux. I would like to suggest that our second collection the weekend of the 28th be sent to our sister parish. The money will be sent directly to the Parish (no middle man – sorry middle person).

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Tom & The Monsignor

Remembering a Loved One

Memorials

As we bring our gifts to the altar at Mass we also bring our joy, pain, sorrow and love. We believe that God accepts all of this from us and gives us salvation through His Son in return.

If you would like to remember a loved one in our Eucharistic celebrations please contact our office. 668-2200

Another thoughtful way to remember a loved one is by donating a Memorial in the form of a liturgical item to be used in worship at St. Therese. The ongoing needs of our parish enable us to offer a variety of such items for memorialization.

For more information about this opportunity, please contact Fr. Tom Murray 631-668-2200.

WORDS OF WISDOM

The spirit of wisdom, as we discover in today's first reading, comes to those who pray for her. Wisdom, like the word of God, carries a message of consolation as well as of great challenge. The Letter to the Hebrews tells us that the word of God, infused with the wisdom of God, is "sharper than any two-edged sword." We cannot shrink from the wisdom of God, or from the word that has the power to penetrate our hearts and minds. Jesus, the living word of God, the embodiment of wisdom, has strong, deeply penetrating words for the rich young man who comes to him seeking answers to his most profound questions. Just when the young man thought he had done enough to fulfill God's commands, more was asked of him. This is no less true for us.

The Word of God This Week

The Rich Man and His Possessions

A rich man asked Jesus, “What can I do to have eternal life?” Jesus replied, “You know the commandments. ‘Do not murder or steal. Be faithful to your spouse. Do not lie or cheat. Respect your parents.’”

The man said he already obeyed those commandments.

“Then do one more thing,” Jesus said. “Sell everything you own, give the money to the poor, and follow me.” The man went away sad because he could not give up his riches.

Discrimination Against Houses of Worship Continues

A New Jersey court's decision that fixing furnaces or repairing broken plumbing in historic church buildings is "religious," is being appealed to the U.S. Supreme Court. The Supreme Court had ruled last year that a church cannot be excluded from programs generally available to the public. Nonetheless, the NJ state court said in April that grants earmarked to repair and preserve historic buildings could not go to religious "activities," and defined those activities as basic repairs.

"Time does not discriminate," said Becket fund legal counsel. "It takes its toll on all historic structures, secular and religious alike. The county should not be forced to discriminate by favoring secular sites in its preservation efforts."

"In Morris County, we want to preserve all of our historic sites, including our magnificent houses of worship, some of which date back to the 1700s and were designed by the leading architects of their time," said director Doug Cabana. "Preserving the character and beauty of our county is a critical element of the county's cultural and economic success."

What do issues of historic preservation, hurricane recovery, and playground safety have in common? They are, or have been, at the center of court cases and arguments around separation of church and state.

In 2017, FEMA (Federal Emergency Management Agency) was sued by 3 Texas churches and 2 Florida synagogues damaged by Hurricanes Harvey and Irma because they "explicitly denied equal access to FEMA disaster relief grants for houses of worship solely because of their religious status," said Becket Fund attorneys.

The administration offered support for the churches seeking relief funds, and by January, 2018, the discriminatory policy was reversed.

"By finally following the Constitution, FEMA is getting rid of second-class status for churches, which in the words of the Supreme Court, was "odious" to the First Amendment," said the Becket Fund.
