Dear Parishioners,

You may have noticed the statue in front our Little Flower School. The statue of Mary was originally at the Villa Maria in Watermill. I had a garden around her for my parents, Tootie and Bill Vogel. When the Villa was sold I asked the nuns if I could save the statue and bring it here to St. Therese.

The grotto that surrounds her was made by Keystone masonry. My grandchildren, Maryjane and Charlotte Vickers and Conor and Rory McCann helped by cementing some of the stones to it.

I hope you enjoy this statue as much as I have during the years.

God Bless,
Jane Liebell

Remembering a Loved One

Memorials

As we bring our gifts to the altar at Mass we also bring our joy, pain, sorrow and love. We believe that God accepts all of this from us and gives us salvation through His Son in return.

If you would like to remember a loved one in our Eucharistic celebrations please contact our office. 668-2200

Another thoughtful way to remember a loved one is by donating a Memorial in the form of a liturgical item to be used in worship at St. Therese. The ongoing needs of our parish enable us to offer a variety of such items for memorialization.

For more information about this opportunity, please contact Fr. Tom Murray 631-668-2200.

Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

TOO MUCH INFORMATION!

There is a common expression: "Too much information!" We usually use it when people tell us details about their lives that we don't want or need to know. Today, when James and John ask Jesus a simple question, making their request for places of honor in the kingdom, a simple answer might have been in order. Instead, as he often does, Jesus answers a question with a question; today it's about drinking the cup of suffering. Then, once the others are indignant over James and John's outrageous request, he proceeds to give them what may have been "too much information" for followers who were simply interested in the pursuit of glory. But this information, though it can sometimes seem "too much" for us, is essential for our lives as disciples. In Isaiah, in Hebrews, and in Mark today, we learn this information. It is in suffering, in weakness, in self-giving service to others, that we come to understand the kingdom. It is the information we need to find our place and come to be honored in the reign of God. What's new from the Desk of the Religious Education office...

Thank you to all who supported and participated in our annual Crop Hunger Walk. It was a beautiful day for a walk around Fort Pond and a nice chance to catch up with friends or, get to know an acquaintance a little better! A relatively small crowd but we are very appreciative, as every bit helps toward the cause (and next year we won't have it on the same day as Field Day...).

Today our 7th, 8th & 9th graders come together for a retreat beginning with the 10:30 mass after which we'll head over to the Parish Center for the afternoon. Please say a prayer to the Holy Spirit for them, that they open up their hearts to God and really and truly make the most of this time.

Looking ahead...

We will celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation on November 17th at the 5pm mass...a very special day indeed for our candidates.

Today's Readings

Hebrews 4:14–16

Psalms 33:4–5, 20 and 22

Mark 10:35–45

We Pray

Lord, you teach us that true greatness means loving and serving others. Help us to be great by acting with love and helping others. Amen.

The Word of God This Week

Jesus Teaches About True Greatness

James and John asked Jesus, "When you come into your glory, please let one of us sit at your right side and the other at your left." Jesus replied, "That is for God to decide."

When the other disciples heard this, they were angry with James and John. But Jesus said, "You know that people who call themselves kings like to order people around. Don't act like them. If you want to be great, you must be the servant of others."

Activity

What is the message in today's Gospel? Find out by filling in the letters of this puzzle. The challenge is that you need to write the letter that comes AFTER the letter given. (Warning: Z equals A, but A does not equal Z!)

Family Corner

Faith Focus
 Today's readings help us understand what it means to be God's servants. The First Reading reminds us that Jesus offered himself to God in obedience and love. In the Gospel, Jesus reminds the Apostles and us that if we want to excel we should excel in being of service to others. If there is to be any competing in the family, it should be about who can be the most kind and helpful.

Family Activity
 On poster board, draw a path. Mark the beginning with "Start" and the ending with "House of Love." Draw some hearts along the path. Each family member should design a game piece. Begin with all game pieces on "Start." Throughout the week, each time a family member does something for someone else, he or she moves his or her game piece to the next heart. At the end of the week, emphasize the importance of being a good servant.

Bring Your Bible to School Day 2018

On October 4th, a few hundred thousand students from all 50 states brought their Bibles to school to share God's hope and celebrate First Amendment Religious Freedom and Freedom of Speech. Focus on the Family originally developed this campaign in 2014 to bring attention to the many challenges to these freedoms that too often take place in public schools. Families could receive a free study guide to assist students from elementary grades to college as they talk to their friends during non-instructional times before & after school, lunch and recreation.

"They voluntarily bring their Bibles to school as a visual celebration of their religious freedom and start conversations with other students," said a Focus on the Family facilitator. "It's about conversation, not confrontation. An event like this doesn't create any new right; it's already there."

Dr. Ben Carson, HUD, Sued Over White House Bible Study

The Department of Housing & Urban Development (HUD) and Secretary Ben Carson, are being sued by an atheist group for records relating to a White House Bible Study group that is attended by 10 Cabinet members each week - although, as busy people, not everyone is able to attend every week. Meetings last between 60-90 minutes and members are free to contact the teacher, former pro-basketball player, Pastor Ralph Drollinger.

"First of all, taxpayer funds are not used to support the ministry ... And secondly, no staff are involved in the Bible study," said Sec. Carson. "One of the principles of our nation's founding is freedom of religion...In fact, it is my faith that helps me serve the nation better."

Pastor Drollinger developed Capital Ministries, a Bible studies program, that is now in 43 state capitals. In 2010, he brought this ministry to Washington, first to 50 members in the House of Representatives and then to the Senate in 2015.

"Words to Live By"

From Mother Teresa of Calcutta

People are often unreasonable and self-centered
Forgive them anyway
If you are kind, people may accuse you of ulterior motives
Be kind anyway
If you are honest, people may cheat you
Be honest anyway
If you find happiness people may be jealous
Be happy anyway
The good you do today may be forgotten tomorrow
Do good anyway
Give the world the best you have and it may never be enough
Give your best anyway
For you see, in the end, it is between you and God
It never was between you and them anyway
