My Dear Family of St. Therese,

I would like to say a word of thanks to Doreen Miller and her committee for a wonderful, prayerful Rosary Rally last weekend. While the weather did not cooperate, it did not dampen the spirits of those who attended. We prayed the Rosary in several different languages to remind us of the universality of our faith. There was a procession of flowers to Our Lady representing the nations of the world. It was a beautiful experience for all who attended.

Next Sunday, October 29th the Diocese will present the St. Agnes Award to Mr. Gerry McKeon.

This award is given each year to a volunteer of the parish for outstanding service. Past recipients have been:

- '07 Virginia Galetta Stevens
- '08 Ken and Irma Jacob
- '09 Fran Ecker
- '10 Lynda Bostrom
- '11 Harry and Maureen Theyard
- '12 Don Bostrom
- '13 Peter Murray
- '14 Jack Graham (Posthumous) and Peggy Graham

Sincerely in Christ,

Remembering a Loved One
Memorials

As we bring our gifts to the altar at Mass we also bring our joy, pain, sorrow and love. We believe that God accepts all of this from us and gives us salvation through His Son in return.

If you would like to remember a loved one in our Eucharistic celebrations
please contact our office. 668-2200 Another thoughtful way to remember a loved one is by donating a Memorial in the form of a liturgical item to be used in worship at St. Therese. The ongoing needs of our parish enable us to offer a variety of such items for memorialization.
For more information about this opportunity,
please contact Don Bostrom at 668 4202.

Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

POWER STRUGGLE

Power struggles occur on every level of society, from the world stage to relationships at work, to our own homes. We struggle for position in the hierarchy of power: Who has power over whom? How do they wield it? What is the source of that power? What is the healthy response?

In this Sunday's Gospel reading the Pharisees engage Jesus in a power struggle over whether Jews should show tribute to Caesar by paying taxes. Jesus' response puts this and every struggle for power into perspective. In harmony with the words of Isaiah and Paul, Jesus teaches us that God is the ultimate source of all power—the power of earthly rulers, the Pharisees, Jesus, the Church, and the power within ourselves.

We Pray

Teach us, O Lord, to be good citizens. May you and the Good News always be the guide for our leaders. Amen.

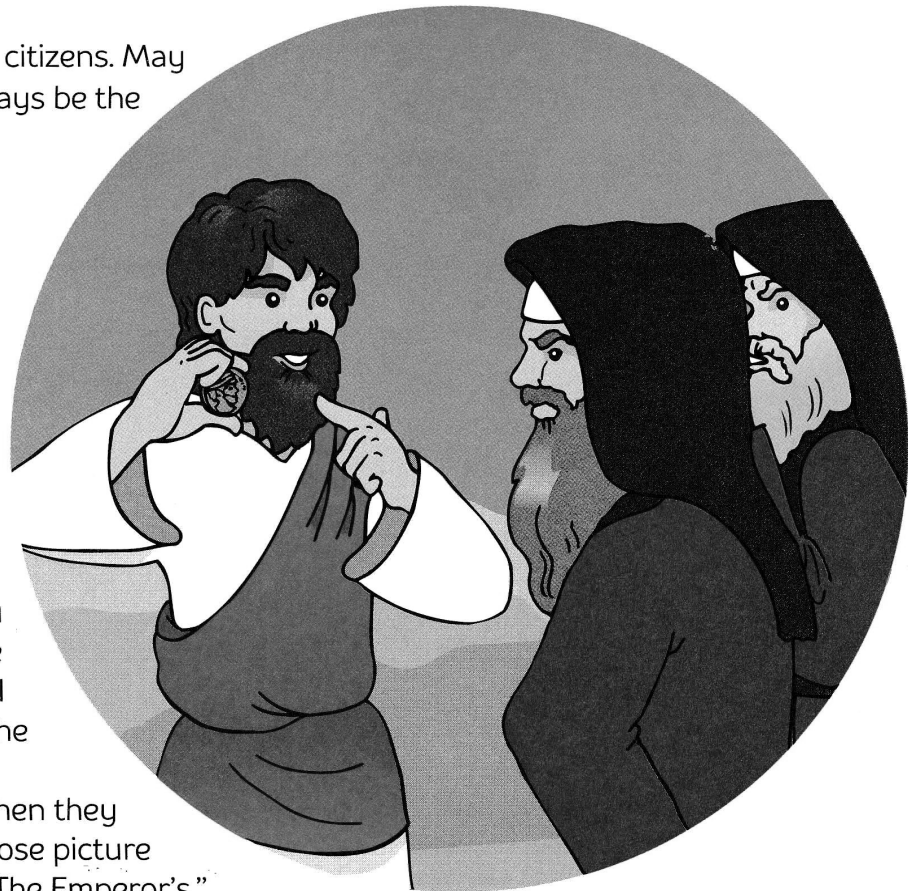

The Word of God This Week

We Are Called to Be Good Citizens

The Pharisees thought they could trick Jesus. They sent some of their followers and some of Herod's followers to say to him, "We know you are honest and teach people the truth about God. But, tell us, should we pay taxes to the Emperor or not?"

Jesus asked for a coin. When they gave him one, he asked, "Whose picture and name is on this coin?" "The Emperor's," they replied. Jesus said, "Then give to the Emperor what belongs to him, and give God what belongs to God."

Family Corner

Faith Focus

Being chosen to do something specific gives each person in the family an opportunity to learn about the unique gifts God gives to each member. We are all different, and we are called to celebrate our differences by recognizing the uniqueness of each person. This acceptance of each member makes family ties stronger and works to help us be the best that we can be for God's kingdom.

Family Activity

Make or use a drawing of a large gift box. In turn, have each family member put his or her name on the gift box along with a unique gift they recognize God has given to them. As the drawing is passed along, each person should also add a gift they recognize in each of the other family members. Circulate the drawing until everyone has affirmed a God-given gift in each family member.

Catholics for Freedom of Religion

Conscience Rights Protected with HHS Mandate Roll-back:

On Oct. 6, the president issued a new rule replacing the coercive HHS (Health & Human Services) mandate that had required all employers, including religious charities like the Little Sisters of the Poor, to provide contraceptives, abortion inducing drugs and sterilization, which clearly denied their deeply held religious beliefs.

In 2012 when this mandate (not a law) was issued by the HHS secretary, over 100 leaders of many different religions were critical of the mandate. They understood that such an imposition by government was destructive of religious liberty for all. They stated that, "The HHS policy is coercive and puts the administration in the position of defining - or casting aside - religious doctrine. This should trouble every American."

The new ruling states, "entities that have sincerely held religious beliefs against providing such services (contraception, abortion drugs, sterilization) would no longer be required to do so." These same protections apply to "organizations and small businesses that have objections on the basis of moral conviction which is not based in any particular religious belief." With this action, Americans no longer have to prove that they deserve their religious liberty. Now, any action by the federal government that would "substantially burden religious freedom" is held to an "exceptionally demanding standard."

(hhs.gov, 10/6/17; Attorney General's Memorandum on Religious Liberty)

Religious Freedom Restoration Act of 1993
"does not permit the federal government to second-guess the reasonableness of a religious belief."

DOMINGO 30 TIEMPO ORDINARIO A.

En el evangelio de este domingo, Jesús de Nazaret nos habla de amor . Y nos dice: que amemos a Dios sobre todas las cosas y al prójimo como a nosotros mismos. Jesús durante su paso por la tierra fue todo amor, porque Dios es Amor. Él, Maestro y Amigo, es la mano tendida al pobre, la compasión de los oprimidos, el sosiego de los que han perdido la esperanza, la salud a los enfermos que buscan en Él curación. Pidamosle, alegremente que nos enseñe a amar y que nos haga misericordiosos. Así, de verdad, seremos felices siempre. Y ojalá sea esta la enseñanza que marque nuestras vidas.
