My Dear Family of St. Therese,

Today, Sunday October 28, is Priesthood Sunday. Today was requested by the laity following the scandals. As the faithful place their trust in us; we, as priests, place our trust in you. I hope that as we pray for you, you in turn pray for us.

When a priest is accused of abuse, all priests become suspect, when a police officer is accused, all officers become suspect, when a teacher is accused, all teachers become suspect, when a mother or father is accused, all parents become suspect. Sadly, we live in time where all are guilty until proven innocent. While we pray that all victims become survivors, we pray that those who abuse and those who protected them are brought to justice and the abusers receive the help that they need.

I have been asked my opinion as to what is now happening with the Attorney Generals in some states. My opinion is that it should have happened long ago, when the scandals first started. At times it is very difficult to be impartial when you are dealing with your own whether it is a bishop and a priest or a parent and a child. Sometimes an outside observer, who is impartial, is needed.

Mr. Randy Miller has organized a Prayer Service for Priests, today, October 28th at 4:00 in the church. I encourage anyone who is able to please attend, we need your prayers! Thank You, Randy!

Keep November 4th open for our International Food Festival. So far, aside from our Central American Countries, we have food from Ireland, Germany, The Philippines and the USA. If you would like to have your heritage represented call me.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Tom & The Monsignor

Remembering a Loved One

Memorials

As we bring our gifts to the altar at Mass we also bring our joy, pain, sorrow and love. We believe that God accepts all of this from us and gives us salvation through His Son in return.

If you would like to remember a loved one in our Eucharistic celebrations please contact our office. 668-2200

Another thoughtful way to remember a loved one is by donating a Memorial in the form of a liturgical item to be used in worship at St. Therese. The ongoing needs of our parish enable us to offer a variety of such items for memorialization.

For more information about this opportunity, please contact Fr. Tom Murray 631-668-2200.

THE HOPE AND PROMISE OF REDEMPTION

The prophet Jeremiah prophesies the end of the Babylonian exile. He describes how the weak and sorrowful people now return with joy. These are the scattered people of God: the blind and the lame, the mothers and pregnant women. They shall be led along an easy road so that no one will stumble. The Lord's kindness and mercy are on all these weak and broken people.

Here and in Psalm 126 we find the most lovely poetic images of God's love and care for us. "Those that sow in tears / shall reap rejoicing. Although they go forth weeping, / carrying the seed to be sown, / they shall come back rejoicing, / carrying their sheaves" (Psalm 126:5-6). Although God had to punish Israel for their many sins, God never forgot them, scattered as they were, and brings them all back to the land of their ancestors, there to flourish and be joyful again. We can see in this the hope and the promise of our own redemption, gathered from the far corners of the earth into the great banquet of God.

What's new from the Desk of the Religious Education office...

Thank you to our 2nd graders and our 3rd & 4th graders for hosting mass these last two weeks. Great participation all round kids!

After mass...our 7th, 8th & 9th grade kids enjoyed an afternoon retreat with Rita Dlug, DRE of St. John the Evangelist in Riverhead, the focus of which was on the gifts of the Holy Spirit. The kids were reminded that at Baptism, we all receive the gift of new life; the gift of the Holy Spirit. The Sacrament of Confirmation then seals this gift within, strengthening us to put our faith into words and actions in our everyday lives. The special graces that God gives us, i.e. the gifts of the Holy Spirit, help us to do just that...to answer God's call to holiness. It's up to us however to 'open up' these gifts and use them!

The kids were reminded also that in a world that can pose great challenges, both close to home and across the globe...particularly for the teenager and young adolescent, it is so very important to trust in God and to always keep Him at the center of their lives...no matter what!

The retreat ended with a very nice guided meditation.

We Pray

Jesus, open our eyes so that we might always see you in all the people we meet. Amen.

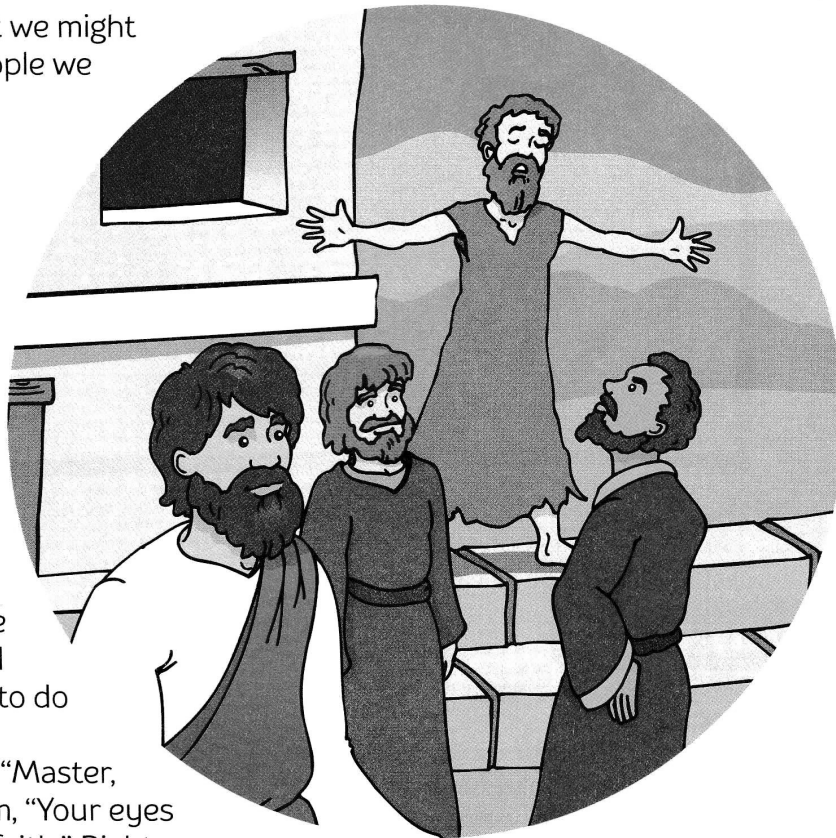

The Word of God This Week

Jesus Heals the Blind Man

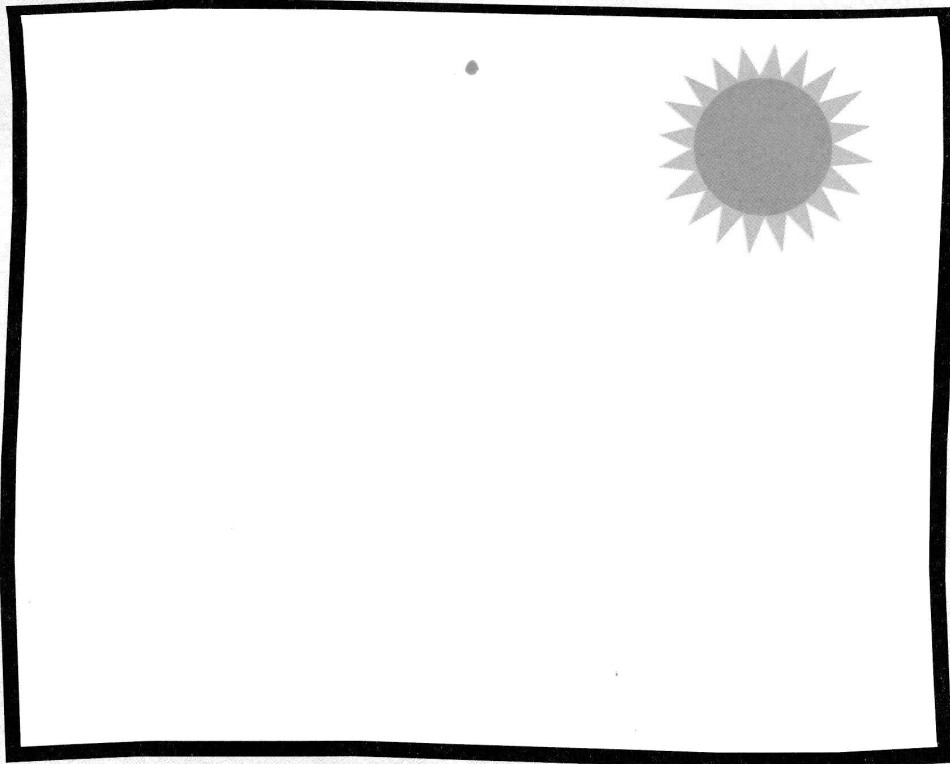

A blind beggar named Bartimaeus shouted, "Jesus, Son of David, have pity on me!" Jesus had the apostles call him over. They said, "Don't be afraid! Come on! He is calling for you." The man ran to Jesus, who asked him, "What do you want me to do for you?"

The blind man answered, "Master, I want to see!" Jesus told him, "Your eyes are healed because of your faith." Right away the man could see, and he went down the road with Jesus.

Activity

Think about the blind man that Jesus healed. What do you think it was like for him to see? Draw a picture of what the man might have seen.

Family Corner

Faith Focus

Today's readings invite us to see God's goodness and to value the gifts God gives us. In order for families to uphold Christian values, we need to be able to see with our hearts as well as our human eyes. We can teach children to see with the eyes of faith as we model how to handle situations of daily life. Does Christ come into our daily conversation? Do we pray together especially during difficult times?

Family Activity

This week, try a trust walk. One person leads another whose eyes are closed. After each family member has a chance to experience this blindness, discuss the feeling of needing to trust while being led by someone. Conclude your time by praying together, "Lord, open our eyes to see your will. Open our eyes to see your face in all those we meet. Lord, open our hearts to love you and others more. Amen."

Bible Study Banned on Private Property
Pennsylvania residents, Scott & Theresa Fetterolf, were ordered by government officials to stop using their 35-acre farm to host Bible studies and other Christian gatherings or pay $500 per day in fines. Since 2003, the property was used for these gatherings, carrying on a decades old practice held by the previous owner.

In October, the city decided that the farm violated a zoning ordinance that states a "place of worship or assembly" must apply for a permit and issued a "Notice of Violation/Cease and Desist Order." However, other properties that host secular counterparts to these activities like parties, political fundraisers, and book clubs are not banned.

"Government should not target religious activities for punishment, particularly when similar secular activities are permitted," said Senior Counsel for the Independent Law Center. "In America, no government can categorically ban people from assembling to worship on one's own property."

The lawsuit states that "There is no compelling interest in prohibiting Bible studies, meetings where religious songs are sung, religious retreats/fellowship, and religious fundraisers, especially when secular counterparts of these activities are permitted."

Pastor & Wife Ordered to Stop Bible Studies in their Apartment

A semi-retired Lutheran pastor and his wife, both in their mid-80s, were ordered by their Virginia apartment complex to stop holding Bible studies or face eviction. In 2017, residents asked Pastor Hauges to lead a Bible study in the complex to which he agreed and applied to reserve the community room for the study. But in 2018, other residents attempted to interfere with the Bible study and the management outlawed religious activities in the community room and any private apartment, labeling this study a "business." First Liberty law firm is now representing the pastor who has agreed to stop leading the Bible studies until the matter is resolved.

"Evicting elderly residents from their home for holding a Bible Study is not only outrageous, it's illegal," said counsel for First Liberty. "It's frightening that a management company would use the threat of eviction to stop residents from meeting together to discuss any issue, let alone their faith."
