My Dear Family of St. Therese,

On October 15th members of St. Therese joined members of the Montauk Community Church in our annual "Crop Walk" to raise money for the Montauk Food Pantry and Church World Services. About 30 people gathered as Pastor Bill said a prayer and gave us his blessing. Then the participants were off – walkers, strollers with infants, bikers, skateboarders and several pets went along for the walk around Fort Pond. They returned to St. Therese for some refreshments at the Parish Center. Together they raised $1,230.00 for the charities – well done good and faithful servants.

Next Sunday, November 5th, is our Annual International Food Festival here at St. Therese. It will be in the Upper Room from 1:00 – 3:00 p.m. Tickets will be available at the door. If you would like to donate a food from your country, please call the parish office at 631-668-2200 and let us know.

"AT THE NAME OF JESUS, EVERY KNEE SHOULD BEND!"

This profession of faith comes to us from the scriptures. While I am an advocate for freedom of speech, be it vocal, printed or a gesture, I am disappointed that a gesture for many faiths has been a sign of honor, worship, and humility has been permitted to now be an expression of protest. Sadly in the past when this gesture was used to express gratitude to God, it was ridiculed and the person told to stop. While we do have freedom of speech, there are some words we are not permitted to use, some gestures we are not permitted to express in public. I see this as just another subtle attack on our Christian faith. It is very sad that we can protest, but not pray in public. Other gestures are available – the locking of arms or joining of hands both express unity. Express your protest, but find your own gesture and leave ours alone.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Tom & The Monsignor

Remembering a Loved One Memorials

As we bring our gifts to the altar at Mass we also bring our joy, pain, sorrow and love. We believe that God accepts all of this from us and gives us salvation through His Son in return.

If you would like to remember a loved one in our Eucharistic celebrations please contact our office. 668-2200

Another thoughtful way to remember a loved one is by donating a Memorial in the form of a liturgical item to be used in worship at St. Therese. The ongoing needs of our parish enable us to offer a variety of such items for memorialization.

For more information about this opportunity, please contact Don Bostrom at 668 4202.

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

BALANCE

Today's scriptures emphasize the fundamental link between love of God and love of our neighbors, especially those who are most in need. Love of God should compel us to love the people whom God cherishes. Conversely, work for justice and charity for those in need should be rooted in our love of God.

That connection and balance, however, isn't always easy to maintain in our lives. Even in religious orders we find that some Christians are more oriented toward contemplation and prayer, while others are more active in reaching out to those who are oppressed. Today Jesus reminds us of the necessity for both in the life of faith.

Children Celebrate!

Liturgy of the Word with Children

Today's Readings

1 Thessalonians 1:5–8a
Psalm 18:1–2, 46 and 50ce
Matthew 22:34–40

We Pray

Lord, help us grow in love for you.
Teach us to treat one another with love every day. Amen.

The Word of God This Week

Jesus Teaches About Love

The Pharisees again tried to trick Jesus. One of them asked him, “What is the most important commandment?” Jesus answered, “Love the Lord your God with all your heart, soul, and mind. This is the first and most important commandment. And the second most important is: ‘Love others as much as you love yourself.’ All the Law of Moses and the Prophets are based on these two commandments.”

Activity

Jesus tells us to love God and love our neighbor. This week's activity highlights that truth. Have the children decipher the message about love.

Family Corner

Faith Focus

Today's readings remind us that love of God and love of neighbor go hand in hand. This caring about God and others is what Jesus commands his Church to do. We are the Church Jesus founded, and what happens in the family setting should reflect what we believe in faith. Love is at the center of family life. It extends to forgiveness, compassion, respectfulness, and all those other virtues that form a holy person.

Family Activity

Use poster board or heavy paper to make several signs that resemble bumper stickers. Write an encouraging message on each one. Some examples are: "Give someone a second chance," "Don't be a judge, be a friend," and "Listening is a way to show love." Hang the signs throughout the house. Make it a point to remind one another that this week your house will be a home of love like never before.

Catholics for Freedom of Religion

Ban on Farmers Over Their Marriage Views is Overturned

A federal judge ruled in mid-September that the Catholic Michigan farmers who were banned from selling their produce at a farmers market because of their religious beliefs about marriage, may resume selling their goods. East Lansing officials had banned the farmers from participating in the 2017 Farmers Market, (even though this farm had sold their organic fruits there for 7 years), when they learned the farm would resume hosting weddings for unions between "one man and one woman."

"Our faith and beliefs on marriage and hosting weddings at our home in our backyard of our farm have nothing to do with the city of East Lansing," said Farmer Steve Tennes. "Nor does it have anything to do with the produce that we sell to the people that attend the farmers markets who are from all backgrounds and all beliefs."

"My wife Bridget and I volunteered to serve our country in the military to protect freedom," Tennes said, "and that is why we feel we have to fight for freedom now whether its Muslims', Jews', or Christians' right to believe and live out their beliefs." "The government shouldn't be treating some people worse than others because they have different thoughts and ideas."

"All Steve wants to do is sell his food to anyone who wants to buy it, but the city isn't letting him," said Alliance Defending Freedom in June. "People of faith should be free to live and work according to their deeply held beliefs without fear of losing their livelihood. If the government can shut down a family farmer just because of the religious views he expresses on Facebook - by denying him a license to do business and serve fresh produce to all people - then no American is free."

October 29, 2017-Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

DOMINGO 30 TIEMPO ORDINARIO A.

En el evangelio de este domingo, Jesús de Nazaret nos habla de amor. Y nos dice: que amemos a Dios sobre todas las cosas y al prójimo como a nosotros mismos. Jesús durante su paso por la tierra fue todo amor, porque Dios es Amor. Él, Maestro y Amigo, es la mano tendida al pobre, la compasión de los oprimidos, el sosiego de los que han perdido la esperanza, la salud a los enfermos que buscan en Él curación. Pidamosle, alegremente que nos enseñe a amar y que nos haga misericordiosos. Así, de verdad, seremos felices siempre. Y ojalá sea esta la enseñanza que marque nuestras vidas.
