My Dear Family of St. Therese,

I begin with a BIG apology. Last week I wrote about our International Food Festival and said that because of the efforts of our organizers from the Spanish Community and our full parish community that offered food we raised over $1,400. I WAS MISTAKEN!!!! The Food Festival raised over $4,000.00 for the parish. "Well done good and faithful servants".

We are truly blessed with the diversity of our parish family and our ability to work together as a family of faith. It will be a year this First Sunday of Advent that we welcomed the statue of "Virgen de El Cisne" (Our Lady of Cisne) to her place next to Our Lady of Grace.

For over 10 years the "Grupo Mariano Virgen de EL Cisne" met each as a prayer group in the basement of the Parish Center. The Spanish Council approached me and asked if they could have a statue of the patroness of Ecuador in the church. Aside from their regular prayer gathering on Friday nights at 8:00, many members of the grupo wished to make a visit to Our Lady, but the Parish Center was locked.

Now Our Lady is approachable in the church from 7:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. every day. There are booklets by the shrine and in the vestibule of the church that tell the history of Virgen de El Cisne is English and Spanish. Her Statue in the church is a reminder of the diversity of our parish and our church.

A Blessed Thanksgiving to all!

Remembering a Loved One

Memorials

As we bring our gifts to the altar at Mass we also bring our joy, pain, sorrow and love. We believe that God accepts all of this from us and gives us salvation through His Son in return.

If you would like to remember a loved one in our Eucharistic celebrations please contact our office. 668-2200

Another thoughtful way to remember a loved one is by donating a Memorial in the form of a liturgical item to be used in worship at St. Therese. The ongoing needs of our parish enable us to offer a variety of such items for memorialization.

For more information about this opportunity, please contact Fr. Tom Murray 631-668-2200.

Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

ENCOURAGEMENT

This Sunday's Gospel is our final selection from Mark for this liturgical year. It is taken from the end of Jesus' teaching in Jerusalem immediately preceding the account of his arrest and passion. In it Jesus gives his disciples hope to sustain them through his passion and death and any persecution or suffering that they would encounter after his resurrection.

The words from the book of Daniel also provided hope and encouragement to the people of Daniel's time. The encouragement in these scriptures is meant for us as well, for none of us will escape tribulation in our lives. Followers of Jesus will be able to endure suffering with joyful hope, knowing that Christ's love will lead us along the way of discipleship and give us eternal life with God.

Jesus Returns to Gather His Followers

Jesus said to his disciples: "Right after the time of suffering, the Son of Man will be seen coming in the clouds with great power and glory. He will gather his faithful followers from all over the earth.

"The sky and the earth will not last forever, but my words will. No one knows the day or the time when I will return. The angels in heaven do not know and the Son himself does not know. Only the Father knows."

Pilgrims, Thanksgiving, & a Failed Experiment: Part 2

Few Americans realize that New England's first form of government was collectivism (socialism) and practiced what Karl Marx would promote two centuries later as: "each produced according to his ability and each received according to his need." The Pilgrims, a pious and decent people, discovered that even the best men cannot thrive under an incentive-crushing system. Within two years of the First Thanksgiving, the colonists had reaped shortages and starvation.

Writing in the History of Plymouth Plantation, Gov. William Bradford said that with the survival of the colony at stake, they contemplated upon "how they might raise as much corn as they could, and obtain a better crop than they had done, that they might not still thus languish in misery." They decided to abandon the collectivist model of government in favor of a more free model. So - they "assigned to each family a parcel of land, according to the proportion of their number, for that end ..."

A happy Gov. Bradford wrote, "This had very good success, for it made all hands very industrious, so as much more corn was planted than otherwise would have been ... The women now went willingly into the field, and took their little ones with them to set corn; which before would allege weakness and inability; whom to have compelled would have been thought great tyranny and oppression."

Thus, the Pilgrims now wished to work because they got to keep, and then trade, the benefits of their labor. They discovered that freedom is a much greater stimulus than force.

"Instead of famine, now God gave them plenty," wrote Gov. Bradford, "and the face of things was changed, to the rejoicing of the hearts of many, for which they blessed God ... Any general want or famine hath not been amongst them since to this day."
