CELEBRATING TWO GREAT SAINT'S FEAST DAYS THIS WEEKSt. Patrick (March 17)

Many will celebrate St. Patrick's Day this week whether it's attending the parade in South Boston, wearing green, eating corned beef and cabbage or possibly drinking a (green?) beer or two. If St. Patrick were around today I think he will smile and enjoy most of what's being done in his name although I think he would be somewhat embarrassed. St. Patrick grew up in a wealthy family in Britain during the fourth century. When he was sixteen years old he, as so many children today, was kidnapped, sent to Ireland and sold into slavery. He worked as a shepherd for six years and then escaped returning home to his family in Britain. He became a Catholic priest and wanted to be a missionary. Since St. Patrick knew the difficult Celtic language he returned to the very country where he had been enslaved. St. Patrick's strong faith in the Lord and his love for the Irish people led thousands of Irish to become Christians. St. Patrick is probably most famous for using a shamrock to explain the theological mystery of the Trinity. I think St. Patrick would hope that all the people wearing green this week and watching the parade would have the same faith in and love for the Lord that he brought to Ireland.

St. Joseph (March 19)

Not much is known about St. Joseph. He is mentioned only briefly in the Gospels. He is recognized by the Christian church as the husband or spouse of Mary and the foster father of Jesus. The Old Testament prophets stated when the messiah came he would come from the "line of David." The Gospels, citing a long genealogy, make it a point to demonstrate that Joseph comes from the line of David and as such Jesus fulfills that prophecy. St. Joseph is an example not only as a father who cares for Jesus and Mary but an example of faith for everyone to follow. After Mary conceived Jesus through the power of the Holy Spirit, St. Joseph's life and plans radically changed. Difficult as it must have been, Joseph accepted this change with faith and trust in God. Are we as accepting and trusting in God when our plans for the future don't work out or we don't fully understand what's happening?

One of the greatest ways we could honor these two saints would be to attend Mass on March 17th and March 19th. May the missionary zeal of St. Patrick and the faith of St. Joseph inspire us.

DONUTS

Last Sunday after the 10 a.m. Mass over 90 adults and children came to the first of our Church coffee and donuts in the parish center. I'd like to thank all those who prepared this great community building event. We will offer free coffee/donuts (donations accepted) the second and fourth Sundays of the month through June. We encourage everyone young and "older", new and long-time parishioner, single and families to join us each month. This great opportunity to meet those you see each week. Next coffee/donuts will be March 22nd after the 10 a.m. Mass.

Fr. Bill

Catholic Appeal

Thank you to all who participated in our first in-pew pledge for the Catholic Appeal last weekend. A total of 184 pledge envelopes were received on commitment weekend! Father received some very positive comments regarding the convenience of completing pledges during Mass while the message was fresh in everyone's mind. Additional pledge envelopes and pencils have been placed in the pews again this week, to accommodate anyone who may have been away last weekend or missed Mass due to the time change.

It is always important to know that our gifts are being used for worthy causes that we can feel good about supporting. The Catholic Appeal provides funding at the local level through ministry and administrative support. Our parish in particular by supporting BSU, Campus ministry, prison ministry, local outreach providing English as a second language and other guidance to immigrants, and the ASL interpreter at our Mass for the hearing impaired. These are but a few examples of the ministries reliant on the Central Ministries budget.

In addition, the Archdiocese provides expert advice to help us navigate the complexities of changes like Obamacare which has broad implications for religious organizations. With approximately 100 offices there to support us, our staff benefits from the guidance and resources of the Archdiocese on a regular basis.

Thank you again for all you do to support us in our mission as members of the Church of Boston.

Blessings, Gina

Financial Blessings

Thank you very much for your ongoing support. Hopefully the new format of combining your weekly contributions to St. Basil, St. Thomas and WeShare is providing a clearer picture of how our community gives so generously. We are deeply grateful for your stewardship which allows us to sustain current operations and grow in new ways.

Companions of the Imprisoned Christ

"I was in prison and you visited me." Mt. 25:36

Christ's call to recognize him in the faces of people in all the difficult situations of life is one of the most challenging parts of the Gospel. Regardless of who somebody is, what their life has been like, or what they have done, we are called to love them with the love of Christ. An important part of that responsibility is to let them know that they are never forgotten or alone. For most people, family and friends keep them aware of the fact that they have worth. There are some, however, who do not have anybody to visit them.

To help some of these men, Peg Newman, chaplain at the Bridgewater State Hospital, has gotten permission to arrange for six volunteers to come in and visit six of the patients held at the State Hospital who have asked for visits because they do not get visitors. The men to be visited are in treatment, and so are not dangerous, but any visitors would need to have the maturity to handle conversation with the patients, whose behavior might be affected by their mental illness. They will also need to follow all the rules and procedures of a secure institution. This ministry would not be very time intensive and does not require any past experience. For details, you can contact me or talk to Peg when she comes to speak at the Masses on March 22.

Having worked as a volunteer with the men at BSH, I can tell you how rewarding it is to be able to see God and repentance working in their lives despite the illness they suffer and their past actions. I encourage you to consider taking up this opportunity to share God's love with these forgotten men who are really least in the eyes of the world. Please be aware that, due to the restrictions placed by the Department of Corrections, anyone who is a volunteer at any Massachusetts correctional complex is unable to also be a visitor.

"Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me." Mt. 25:40

*In Christ,
Fr. Adrian*

Stations of the Cross

This brief devotion using the wall pictures in the chapel centers on the Lord's final hours leading up to and including his death on the Cross. The Stations of the Cross will be prayed at St. Basil's Chapel every Friday at 6:30pm.

Lenten Simple Supper

Following the Stations of the Cross each Friday during Lent, St. Basil's Chapel will offer a Lenten simple supper, coordinated and provided by volunteers. If you would like to plan a supper, please contact Rita Garufi at 508-531-1346. If you would like to contribute to one of the planned meals below, please contact the coordinator. All are welcome whether you are bringing food or not.

Planned Menus

March 20: Pasta : coordinated by Kate Anderson (508) 353-9780: cnjanderson@comcast.net

March 27: Seafood casserole & fish (enough for everyone): coordinated by Francine Littlejohn: (508) 345-1617: france3761@hotmail.com. Side dishes are requested for this supper.

Communal Penitential Prayer Service

To prepare our hearts for the Sacrament of Reconciliation, St. Basil Chapel will offer a Communal Penitential Prayer Service on Thursday, March 26th, 6:30PM. Individual confessions will follow at 7PM.

Faith Formation

We'd like to welcome our First Grade families to the 10:00 liturgy. The prayers that they've learned during the year should be practiced at home.

It has been wonderful to watch all who have been emptying their mite boxes in the collection jar in the parish center. "Found money is mission money.", so keep an eye out for the money on the ground, laundry change, Dunks change, sofa cushion change. $1.00 will provide a meal for four children. For each sink in your house, put a dime in the mite box, remembering that the children in Uganda don't have running water.

Students in Grades 6-8 will be participating in Stations of the Cross led by Roberta Harvey in the lower church. As a reminder, Stations of the Cross are also offered every Friday night during Lent, 6:30 at St. Basil Chapel.

Last Sunday we held a very successful community service project in our parish center. 49 Confirmation students made approximately 150 lunches. The night began with our seminarian Tommy Sullivan who gave a talk on Catholic teaching and social justice. He reminded us that we are all called to live our faith not only by performing charitable works, but by working to fix those systems that are broken and cause homelessness. Pauline Lysko and Olivia McCall shared their experience about working for the Jesuit Volunteer Corps. They explained that students, as a young adult Catholic, will need to step out of their comfort zone to work for justice. Olivia educated us all to the fact that there are many homeless families living in motels right in our backyard. The Confirmation students answered the call to help these families by providing lunches. Olivia will be delivering these lunches to the families living in these hotels. We hope this experience taught our students to put their faith in action and gave them a starting point for a lifetime of charitable work. Thank you to Tommy, Pauline, Olivia, CCD teachers and the students for making this a rewarding experience for all!

St. Vincent de Paul

The St. Vincent de Paul Society is an international organization of Catholic lay people. The Society serves those in need regardless of creed, ethnic or social background, health, gender or political views. Here at St. Thomas Aquinas we have approximately 25 members and volunteers who provide services and help to the needy in the Bridgewater community. We accomplish this mainly in two ways. First, we provide emergency assistance and referrals. The second way which is more visible, is the food bank that is run out of the parish center. Every Thursday morning from 8am to 10am we convert the center into a food pantry.

The food pantry items that fill our shelves come to us through food drives in our parish and community. We also go to the Greater Boston Food Bank to obtain groceries such as milk, eggs, produce, meats and non perishables.

We assisted over 100 families this past Thanksgiving by providing complete turkey dinners. At Christmas either a turkey or roast dinner was given. Easter is around the corner and we plan on providing another nutritious meal for our clients.

During Lent we pray, fast and give. If you would like to fulfill your Lenten resolution by donating to St. Vincent de Paul, envelopes are available at the entrances of the church and chapel. Checks can be made payable to St. Vincent de Paul and mailed to the rectory or placed in the collection basket at offertory. Monetary donations may also be left in the boxes at the entrances of St. Thomas Aquinas. Non perishables may be left in the food boxes located in the upper and lower churches. The boxes are just inside the entrance and to the left of the doors. Donations may also be dropped off at the parish center on Wednesday mornings, 8-9:30. The members of St. Vincent de Paul would like to thank those of you who have generously supported us. Our ministry would not be possible without your continued support.

God bless you.
