PASTOR'S CORNER

My Dear Flock,

So let me explain to you what my Tuesdays typically look like. I get up in the morning, maybe go for a brisk walk, then celebrate Mass, then pray for a while, and then walk into my office to have a leisurely day of work. I respond to emails, have a meeting or two, jealously watch through the window as the school kids play at recess, maybe eat some leftover Chipotle for lunch, have another meeting or two, respond to a few phone messages, take a look at my calendar to make sure there are no extra meetings that night, and then, as I'm blissfully packing up to have a relaxing evening in the rectory, Sarah, one of the awesome office staff members, gently reminds me that I have to write a Pastor's Corner by Wednesday morning. Suddenly, the bliss is gone and panic sets in. What am I going to write about? What does the flock need to hear about? What will keep them from trashing the bulletin before even reading two lines from my corner? (I'm just kidding, you would never throw the bulletin in the trash. You'd recycle it, because you're good stewards of the planet.) It is nearly a weekly occurrence and I'm literally writing this at 8:57pm on Tuesday.

Now it's true, that for the last month or so, we have had much going on about which I could write. We had the 150th, the Ministry Fair, the installation Mass, and the Young Adult Town Hall. This weekend I could talk about how we are hosting Project Andrew, which is a priesthood discernment event for guys who are high school age and older. It is from 2pm to 5pm this Sunday, October 14th, and includes talks from priests, adoration with our Lord, and dinner with the Archbishop. If you are a single guy, in high school or above, come join us in the church at 2pm! If you know a guy that would be good for this event, invite him!

Now we will not have big events every weekend. I can't write about events all the time. So, it probably would be helpful to use the Pastor's Corner to, I don't know, teach. After all, if you read the Corner about my duties as an installed pastor, teaching the flock was stated specifically in Canon Law as a responsibility of a pastor. Having spent five years of schooling in seminary, one would hope that I learned something worth discussing. I took classes in Philosophy, Scripture, Sacraments, Systematic Theology, Liturgy, Church History, Moral Theology, Pastoral Theology, and Canon Law. I could pull out old notes and take quotes from one of the many books on my office shelves (which, by the way, had way too few pictures). But, what is to say that I would find a subject you would enjoy? I could write for weeks on a book called, "Canons and Decrees of the Council of Trent", but I have sneaky suspicion that this would not cause you to show up early each Saturday in anxious anticipation of the new bulletin.

So, being a pastor of the flock, by the flock, and for the flock, I want to know what the flock wants to know. So, I want to solicit possible topics from you, the people of God in Shawnee, KS. Then, my seminarian ghost writer, Keith...I mean, I, Fr. Scott, could sit down and write a corner that I know at least one person would want to read.

So, I invite you to send possible topics to me at willneverreadit@whocares.com. Whoops, that is for complaints. Send your topics to frscott@stjoeshawnee.org. I won't guarantee that everything will be answered, and I will still talk about events or important current topics as they arise, but some lucky questioners just might win the honor of causing me to dust off a book or two and struggle to read my seminary handwriting in order to put together a written answer.

Until then, keep being awesome disciples of Jesus Christ, and don't forget to invite guys to Project Andrew!

(And, yes, don't worry, I listen to your complaints too.)

In Christ's Peace,

Your Pastor

Partnering in education for a lifetime.
Since 1873

It is hard to believe we have reached the end of the 1st Quarter already! Our students and teachers continue to be hard at work as they grow in faith, academics, and spirit here at St. Joseph. Last week our 7th graders collaborated with our 1st grade students by presenting lessons and activities on the Water Cycle. It was an exceptional learning opportunity for all involved!

SCHOOL OF FAITH PRESENTATION

So you've made a decision to put Christ at the center of your life, what's next? Is there a plan to grow in the spiritual life? Are there things to expect? Are there things I should avoid? The answer to all of these questions is 'yes' and the Church wants to teach us. In this class we will learn what is the tradition on the interior life by studying the masters of prayer, Teresa of Avila and St. John of the Cross.

Join us Thursday's; October 18th, November 1st & 8th from 7 - 8:20pm in the Church with Sebastian D'Amico who will be presenting an overview of the steps in the Spiritual Life brought to us by School of Faith.

This is a FREE event!

MARRIAGE MINUTE

Rules or relationship?

The Church gives us some pretty specific guidance on how to live out our sexuality, but if we look at them as just a list of "do's" and "don'ts" or burdensome rules, we miss out on the whole meaning behind them, and risk being like the "Rich Young Man" in this weekend's Gospel.

The Church's teachings on sexuality are meant to guide us into a deeper relationship with our spouse, just as the commandments were meant to guide the "Rich Young Man" into a deeper relationship with God. We can do this by:

- Admitting they are difficult and asking God for the grace of courage to live them out.
- Seeking clear teaching on "why" the Church teaches what she does before rejecting them.
- Ask a trusted friend or priest to help you understand the teachings you struggle with the most.

Rev. Frank Herberichs (Oct. 25, 1909)

Rev. John Bollweg (Oct. 31, 1930)

Additionally, please pray for those who are considering answering God's call to serve his people, especially the young men who attended the Project Andrew meeting/dinner hosted by our parish this Sunday afternoon.
