Second Sunday of Easter

The forgiving attitude of the risen Christ showed to his close followers in today's gospel is quite striking. The apostles were hiding in a room for they were scared to death. They hid themselves from the Jews because they feared having to suffer the same fate with Jesus. From nowhere the risen Lord appeared in their minds and said, "Peace be with you!" The apostles deserved nothing but tongue-lashing for having deserted the Lord during his most painful walk to the cross. And yet, the risen Christ greeted them with peace and well-being. Like the father of the prodigal son, the Lord manifested no second thoughts in reaching out and forgiving offenders. The apostles, who themselves benefited the unconditional mercy of God, were given the authority to forgive sins. Primarily, they were to use this power not to condemn people but to extend God's mercy to repentant sinners. Bishops, the direct successors of the apostles, together with their priests, are now responsible for the keys of heaven. In the sacrament of reconciliation, they are to bring the heart of God which possesses all the love for humanity.

As we ourselves receive the mercy and forgiveness of God, we are also called to forgive and be reconciled to one another. We are challenged to keep a heart which is like the sacred heart of Jesus. Hatred and revenge have no place in the Christian community. If we truly believe in Christ, we should change the way we live and relate with one another.

Mary Queen of All Saints Bingo is a major Parish Fund Raiser and needs the help of the whole parish. At the present time we are short of people to work the floor and in the kitchen. If we are to make MQAS Bingo a success we need your help! If you are able to work at least one night every 4 to 6 weeks, please contact Joe Young at (802) 586-2899.

Catholic Financial Life Chapter St. Jean N443 will meet on Tuesday, April 14 at 1:00 pm at St. Michael's Church Hall. For more info call Jeannine at 586-2899 or email cfli443@gmtmom.com.

Father Migrino wanted to say how much he appreciated all of the Easter greetings & cards that he was given. Thank you.
