Third Sunday of Easter – B

Often I wonder whether God also gets impatient with me and with humanity. At the past years, we in the Philippines experienced with the horrible abuse of the holy mass, when masses were offered for the resignation of our president at that time. I thought God must be very angry. The Holy Mass is supposed to unite the people around the table of the Lord; but this practice only divides, and God surely will not listen to both sides. And still – God seems to have patience with abuses of the mass for partisan political foes – as he has patience with me a sinner; as He is patient with many of our earthly attitudes. Patience needs trust in the good intentions of others, of understanding the weaknesses of others. Patience trusts that in the end a good result will come out of the effort.

Today's gospel shows once more the patience of the Lord with his disciples. We read how he lets them touch him so that these superstitious disciples of his would let go of their fear that he is a ghost. He asked for something to eat to prove that he is real. Let us not condemn the disciples for stretching the patience of the Lord. We are not any better. We have doubted at times. We have had (or still have) difficulties in understanding, accepting, and putting into practice some of his teachings. Some of us might even have come to the conclusion that Jesus is not real but only a myth. And yet, Jesus remains patient with us, as he was patient with his disciples. After all, real patience is a fruit of love; and who loves more intense and real than Christ, the personified Love of God?

Mary Queen of All Saints Bingo is a major Parish Fund Raiser and needs the help of the whole parish. At the present time we are short of people to work the floor and in the kitchen. If we are to make MQAS Bingo a success we need your help! If you are able to work at least one night every 4 to 6 weeks, please contact Joe Young at (802) 586-2899.

Do you know someone in need of a Catholic Daughters of the Americas Court St Veronica #1273 Prayer Blanket? The recipient does not need to be a Catholic, only a person who is in need of prayers. If you know someone, please contact Madeleine Beauregard at 472-9119 or Emma Pudvah at 472-3379

Archdiocese continues helping survivors of sexual abuse and their families

In April, Child Abuse Prevention Month, the Diocese of Burlington wants to reiterate that it remains committed to helping survivors and their families heal and find peace. If you believe you or someone you know is a victim of sexual abuse by a clergy member or a Church employee or volunteer, please contact the Diocesan Victim Assistance Hotline at (866) 485-2488. Your story needs to be heard.

Dismas Dinner and Auction: You are invited to the festive 30th Annual Burlington Dismas House Dinner & Auction at the Burlington Hilton on Saturday, May 9. Roman Catholic Bishop Christopher James Coyne, D.D., S.L.D., will be joining us for this year's invocation. We have an exciting format planned and will commemorate the occasion with a 30-year Dismas Retrospective rather than a guest speaker. Bob Conlon of Leunig's Bistro will emcee the program, and Larry Brett, D.J. Extraordinaire, will play music from the last three decades for dancing. TJ Donovan will be presented with the Jack Hickey Award. Jamie Polli of GameshowsVT will keep us entertained and bidding during the live auction. Many unique items will be available for our silent auction as well (around 300 total). Reserve your seat (by 4/ 24) at www.burlingtondismas.org or call 658-0381.
