Eleventh Sunday of the Ordinary Time – B

In Christian countries, criminality, graft & corruption flourish. And so we ask: what went wrong? The answer is simple: Nothing went wrong. Jesus foresaw this already when He told the parable about the sower and the seed. The Farmer sows according to the custom of the country; the seed is good, but much of the seed is wasted. We could expect that the farmer is disappointed because of poor harvest. But to our surprise, the harvest is plenty in spite of so much seed that was lost. Jesus answers our question on what went wrong with God's word. The apparent poor harvest after more than 2000 years should not discourage us. The seed, the Word of God, is good and nothing can hinder a great harvest in the end. We don't know how long the world will last, but God knows. When He assures us of an overwhelming harvest, we should not feel anxious but try more than ever to contribute to that great harvest. "Satan has come and carried away the Word." There are so many temptations which "choke the Word." Realizing these dangers to the seed of the Word of God, we can become more careful and try more than ever to listen well, accept and do what God tells us.

Please help MQAS reach our goal with the Bishop's Fund -Thank you to all of our faithful in the parish of MQAS for your remarkable show of generosity to our Bishop's Fund annual appeal. To date, we are 53% as a diocese in achieving our overall pledge goal. Your parish has a goal of $15,700, and to date, we have raised $8422.00 in pledges, with $5252.00 in cash received making us at over 33% of our goal. Please keep in mind you can make either pledges, one-time gifts, or payments on existing pledges with our secure Online Giving system at bishopsfund.org.

WEBSITE for MQAS – It is appropriate for our parish of three churches to have a web presence as an outreach tool. With a parish website, anyone who wasn't able to make it to church or who was traveling but wanted to keep up with what is happening throughout the church community was able to access the information online. The bulletin is also online to read whenever you want. The current website will no longer be 'free' for us to use by the end of June. Unless we are able to raise a minimal amount from people who find the website is worth having, there will not be a parish website. There will be envelopes in the lobbies for anyone wishing to make a donation towards this cause. The cost for a new website will be under $250 per year, which would include a mobile app.
