WALK OF MERCY TO ROME.

As we start week 7, we are traveling to Abu Za'abal, one of Egypt's oldest prisons. It is reported that inmates are denied basic rights of food, water and toilets. Though delegations to interview prisoners have been sent, based on claims of abuse, it was reported that prisoners are "threatened with violence and torture" if they were to speak out about their treatment. With six weeks completed, we are well on our way to the Holy Doors in Vatican City. We have traveled 9,309 miles toward our 11,000 mile goal. Please remember to turn in your miles via www.sjberie.org or contact me at pbprokocki@gmail.com or call 825-4220. Bonnie.
