People have a list for everything these days. Simple hand written grocery lists have evolved into hand held personal assistants. Our days are diced into 15 minutes sections, each prioritized and labeled for easy use. An efficient way to manage time, perhaps, but is it any way to live?

Take a minute and think about your own to-do lists. Any entries labeled, "Watch for Jesus' coming"? What about "Pray" or "Read God's word"? Well, at least there's "Attend church", right? Hmmm.

According to our planners, we've de-prioritized God. We've lost the spiritual hunger Andrew has as he searched for the Messiah. Pausing on the street corners of our lives, Jesus could walk past unrecognized while we're checking off another "done" item. And we're simply too tired to follow Jesus home if it means another commute back home. It's a sad state of affairs today when God goes begging for a single hour of the day He created.

This week let's stop time managing and start living, for God and with God, every day and every hour.

LENT IS EARLY--FEBRUARY 14, 2018

Disciples on the Journey is a Lenten resource for faith sharing in small groups and/or for individual personal reflection and prayer. It will help develop new insights into the Sunday readings through the commentaries, discussions and sharing with others while enhancing your ability to hear and be open to the Word of God proclaimed at Sunday's liturgy. The booklets are available in both English and Spanish. This year there is a bilingual (English and Spanish) e-book. If you are interested or for more information, contact Dolores D. Wilkes-- 979-253-1244 or go online to www.disciplesonthejourney.org.
