From the Pastor's Desk

We need signs to help us find the way when we travel. John the Baptist, in his ministry in the wilderness, acted as a "living signpost" as he pointed people toward the One who was coming, the Messiah, Jesus Christ.

John's ministry leads us to ask, "Where does my life point? To myself only? Or to the living Lord of Life, Jesus Christ?" Admit it or not, our lives do point people in certain directions, as the influence of our attitudes, words, and actions extend beyond ourselves.

In this Epiphany season, we have a key opportunity to renew and refresh the ways we point others to Jesus Christ in and through our lives. Not only does this help us fulfill our calling as Christians, but also brings a new freedom in knowing all depends upon God, not ourselves.
