Familiar stories contain more than old thoughts. The story of the wedding at Cana and the depletion of the wine supply is no exception. More than a story about a particular wedding of long ago, it points to unlikely people, even today. Though unlikely, Mary was the person that pointed the waiters toward a solution. She was the turnkey to the happy outcome.

Our own lives are often gifted with unlikely people that can lead us out of our emptiness. And we can do the same for others. When unlikely people connect, there is much to celebrate.
