Holiday & Weekday Masses

As scheduled in the bulletin.

Remember that phone call, the one where you had shoes on and keys in hand before you hung up? The voice you heard may have carried the answer to your prayers or nightmare news, but whatever the call's content you were moved to action. Without hesitation you dropped everything and went. You had to.

That same level of urgency touched the hearts of James, John, Simon Peter and Andrew in today's Gospel. They were moved by the call of their Savior, a call to glory and terror, vision and blind faith. As Jesus' words "follow me" echoed across the waters, the newly chosen disciples' spirits answered immediately. They dropped everything to go where they were needed. They had to.

Take a moment to ask yourself, how have I answered God's call in my life? Do I greet His summons with keys in hand and one foot out the door, or am I still slumped at the kitchen table? Let's pray that we too will drop everything when it's God "on the line".

OH, GOD. . .

Oh God, when I have food, help me to remember the hungry. When I have work, help me to remember the jobless. When I have a warm home, help me to remember the homeless. When I am without pain, help me to remember those who suffer; and remembering help me to destroy my complacency and bestow my compassion. Make me concerned enough to help by word and deed, those who cry out for what we take for granted.
