FROM THE PASTOR

It is seldom, if ever, that we consider that Jesus Christ carried no credentials for His mission as the Messiah. Nor was there an Identification He could produce that would instantly identify Him as the Son of God.

Neither was there anything obvious about His physical countenance that marked Him or set Him apart as sent from God to save.

He walked away.
LUKE 4:12-30

It was at His baptism, which He willingly submitted to, that Jesus was authorized by God to be the Savior of the World and given His Divine credentials.
