FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Many of us in childhood begged permission to stay up past bedtime watching a favorite movie or television special. And often, despite our best efforts and intents, have fallen sound asleep long before the program's end. The next day when everyone else related their favorite scene, we became frustrated and depressed, convinced that we slept through all the good parts.

In today's gospel, Peter, John and James nearly sleep through the Transfiguration. Caught napping, the three disciples are jolted awake like sleepy children, confused by the vision of Jesus conversing with prophets of old and startled by the voice of God proclaiming "This is my chosen Son, listen to Him." To think they had almost missed it all! Their example reminds us to stay awake while Jesus is daily transfigured and revealed in our Christian walk. Let's not sleep through all the good parts!

LENT IS A TIME TO SMILE

We have our Lord's word for that. This is the gist of what He told His followers - When you fast don't put on a gloomy face...look your best so that no one will know you are fasting except your heavenly Father who will reward you.

So smile this Lent when you eat less...when out of love for God...out of compassion for others...out of sorrow for your sins...you deny yourself the things you would like to have. LENT IS A TIME TO SMILE! Smile - as you do penance this Lent. Smile - as you take up your cross and walk in the footsteps of Jesus toward your happiest Easter ever.

PLEASE PRAY FOR THE BLESSINGS OF RAIN.
