What do you want to change in your life? Your joy or appearance, maybe where you live? It's hard to exist today without creating a list of the alterations we'd like to make. We compare ourselves to people in the news or the neighborhood, constantly assessing what needs improvement. College classrooms and health clubs are filled with self-improvers, eagerly pursuing their goals. Yet even when the changes are complete and successful, something is missing. We just can't seem to transform ourselves to the people we want to be.

That's where God comes in. Into each of our lives He issues a call to come and be changed. If we will step apart from life's clamor and climb with Him to solitary heights, we will find true transforming power. Alone on His mountaintop, we can bask in God's shining presence, ready to be transfigured by divine love and grace. Only then will we find the perfection of a heart forgiven, healed and filled by the power of God.

Come join Peter, James and John today and see your Savior in all His revealed glory. And you too will say, "Lord, it is good that we are here!"

OPERATION RICE BOWL

We encounter Cesia in Nicaragua, where, despite a lack of economic opportunity, young people pursue their dreams by building businesses to better their lives. How can you work to improve the lives of others this Lent? How can you support those, worldwide, who are forced to flee their homes to find safety or better opportunities? Visit csrcricebowl.org for more.

THERE'S A REASON

For ev'ry pain we must bear,
For ev'ry burden, ev'ry care,
there's a reason.

For ev'ry grief, that bows the head,
For ev'ry teardrop that is shed,
there's a reason.

For ev'ry hurt, for ev'ry plight,
For ev'ry lonely, pain-racked night,
there's a reason.

But if we trust God, as we should,
It will work out for our good.

HE KNOWS THE REASON.

EXAMINE YOUR CONSCIENCE

It isn't the things you do; it's the thing you leave undone which gives you a bit of heartache at the setting of the sun.

The tender word forgotten, the letter you did not write; the flowers you might have sent, are your haunting ghosts tonight.

The stone you might have lifted out of a brother's way; the bit of kindly counsel you were hurried too much to say.

The loving touch of the hand, the gentle and winsome tone, that you had no time or thought for, with trouble enough of your own.

No - it's not the thing you do, it's the thing you leave undone, which gives you the bit of heartache at the setting of the sun.
