We are saved in order to bear fruit. If a part of our life is not bearing fruit, God will prune it through suffering. We are to accept the suffering with surrender and trust that the suffering may produce its perfect work. Apart from the life of the vine, we can produce nothing.

God will be the final judge of whether our lives have been fruitful. It is not our job to judge the quality or the amount of our fruit. Our responsibility is to stay connected to the vine.

He can do mighty work through our lives if we will only remain faithful.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Be such a person, and live such a life, that if every person were such as you, and every life such as yours, this earth would be God's Paradise.

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

HEALING THE WHOLE PERSON

Jesus responds today to brokenness, disease, and pain with transformative love and restoration. Through three days of teaching, worship, prayer, and testimony, you'll encounter God in a powerful way, and experience deeper freedom as the Father speaks to you in the depths of your heart, and through the supernatural graces of the sacraments. Whether you're struggling with life, or you just want "more" in your walk with God, this conference will empower you with tools, revelation, and a greater desire to live your life passionately on fire for God. Grounded in Church teaching, you'll engage the topics of "Facing our Brokenness", "Encountering the Father's Love", and "Living in Freedom".

Saint Philip the Apostle Catholic Church is hosting a Healing the Whole Person retreat, led by the John Paul II Healing Center, on July 12-14. Learn more, and register for this amazing retreat at <http://jpihealingcenter.org/> Early Registration opens on April 9 and Online Registration closes on July 2, 2018.
