You're reading today's Gospel and find yet another shepherd reference. Does something inside you yell, hey, I live in a CITY! Who am I, Little Bo Peep? Well, consider this image. Your family is headed out to dinner. Opening the door you swoop a protective arm around stragglers, herding them outside. In the car you steer them to the best grazing. Once inside a warm, dry shelter you soothe the little lambs until they are peaceful and ready to eat. You keep a wary eye on your flock while everyone is fed and then gather them back to the car and home.

Feeling a little sheepish? Probably. We all have a touch of Little Bo Peep, whatever life we lead. We shepherd those God has entrusted to our care, seeing their daily needs are met. And just as our "little lambs" learn to trust and follow an earthly shepherd, we must in turn trust and follow our heavenly Good Shepherd. It's like being Bo Peep and the sheep at the same time. A humbling thought for all of us.

Who knows what other lessons we can learn from all this pastoral imagery? Bo knows. And God does too.

News from your Parish School
Mary, We honor you

The month of May is both named for and dedicated to Mary. On Wednesday, May 3 the school family honored the Blessed Mother by placing a crown on her image. Crowning a statue of the Lord's Mother is symbolic of the honor we give her as the one chosen by God to bear His Son, our Salvation. Mary is Queen of heaven and earth because she was the perfect follower of Christ, who is the absolute "crown" of creation. She remained steadfast in devotion to her Son, all the way to the foot of the Cross. After the Ascension, she persevered in prayer with the Church. She truly has won the "crown of righteousness", the "crown of life", and the "crown of glory" promised to those who follow Christ.

"When Jesus saw his mother, and the disciple whom he loved standing near, he said to his mother, 'Woman, behold your son.' Then he said to the disciple, 'Behold your mother'" (John 19: 26-27).
