We learn to barter as small children. Told to eat their vegetables a child replies, "Do I have to eat them all?" Many a parent has bargained through dinner, "Come on, three more bites." "Ok, you don't have to eat the crusts, but eat half the carrots." Wheedling our way out of unpleasant tasks, seems to be inherent in the human character. Loving, but firm parents need "tough love" to hold children to a higher standard, doing what's best for them no matter how hard it is for everyone concerned.

In today's gospel Jesus gives the scholar a large, difficult task: "Love your neighbor as yourself." Instinctively, the scholar barter: "And who is my neighbor?" Faced with a plateful of spinach, peas and lima beans, the scholar hopes he only has to eat the peas to be excused. Jesus, like any good parent, shows the scholar the best kind of "tough love". He firmly holds up the higher standard.

We are to love everyone, even the most "unlovable" people we encounter. Those are the rules of God's table, no wheedling allowed. Just love, tough love, and God's Holy Spirit to enable us to live it.

LAST SUNDAY'S COLLECTION: $5,206.50.

MANY THANKS FOR YOUR GENEROSITY!

SUMMER VACATION FROM CHURCH
DON'T EVEN THINK ABOUT IT

Many people think summer is a good time to be lax about Sunday Mass. This is especially true with regard to families with growing children. This attitude can easily be reconciled with popular culture, but does not hold up in reference to the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Being a faith Catholic is not simply about being a "good person". A truly good person hears the word of God and seeks to respond to it. Worshipping God on Sundays is not "extra" or "optional" -- it is an essential ingredient in the life of faithful Catholics.

Let's pray for lax as well as lapsed Catholics, that they may respond to the grace God offers them every minute of every day to become faithful followers of Jesus Christ in the Church.

WOMEN'S ACTS RETREAT

If you have any questions concerning the retreat, please contact Sandy Glueck by text or phone at 979-732-1085.

DOES YOUR MARRIAGE NEED A TUNE UP? OR EVEN A MAJOR OVERHAUL? SOMETIMES A MARRIAGE CAN RUN ALONG FINE AND THEN THINGS CHANGE. IT NEEDS YOUR TIME AND ATTENTION. Sometimes lines of communication break down and they need repair. Sometimes a fair or average marriage is just not enough. Have you ever thought to yourself, "How can I make my marriage better?" If so, Retrouvaille can help. RETROUVAILLE is a marriage program that can help get your relationship back on track. It is an effective program that has worked for thousands of couples and it can work for your marriage.

For more information about the Victoria August 12-14 Retrouvaille Weekend, contact John or Jennifer Vincent (361) 580-2770 or email: jbjov@sbcglobal.net or visit the website at www.retrouvaille.org.

Parents, vocations are God-inspired and home-made. Might God be calling your child to serve as a sister, brother, or priest? Continue to pray for vocations.

A Sure Way to a Happy Day

Happiness is something we create in our mind.
 It's not something you search for and so seldom find -
 It's just waking up and beginning the day
 By counting our blessings and kneeling to pray -
 It's giving up thoughts that breed discontent
 And accepting what comes as a "gift heaven sent" -
 It's giving up wishing for things we have not
 And making the best of whatever we've got -
 It's knowing that life is determined for us,
 And pursuing our tasks without fret, fume, or fuss -
 For it's by completing what God gives us to do
 That we find real contentment and happiness, too.
