PASTOR'S CORNER

How easily promises are made in the world today. Everything we buy or sell seems to come with a guarantee, from the bread we eat to the cars we drive. Newspaper and TV advertisements shout "Complete satisfaction or your money back!" "Guaranteed to make your life easier, better, happier..." The problem is that so many of these are "pie crust promises", easily made and easily broken. After a few disappointments we learn to take lightly the promises we hear, even from trusted sources.

This mistrust seeps over into our relationship with God, too. It's easy to treat God's words as lightly as those we read in the daily paper. But today's gospel gently reminds us that God keeps His promises. Like the neighbor who needed bread for his visitor, when we faithfully and consistently pray, God will hear us and provide what we need. Not always what we want, but something better: the "good gift" He knows we need. It's a lifetime guarantee. Certified, testable, 100% provable.
