Pastor's Notes

The Text: "He who is faithful in a very little thing is faithful also in much; and he who is unjust in a very little thing is unjust also in much" (Luke 16:10).

Fraud, embezzlements, lying, and injustices of every sort seem all too prevalent today. Christians, however, must not be among the perpetrators of such sinful actions. How we act in our daily dealings with others is of great importance to our Lord. Jesus wants us to be faithful to God and faithful to others. Jesus wants us to be honest. Honest toward God and others.

The clue to living a righteous life seems to be making us accountable and truthful in all our relationships. We begin by being faithful and honest in what we might call the "little things". If we, with God's help, will discipline ourselves to shun so-called "little white lies" - small thefts, minor breaches of trust, petty digs at another's character, tiny lapses in morality - well then, we will be strengthened when it comes to larger tests of character. The Lord indicated that faithfulness and honesty in the little things prepares us for faithfulness and honesty in the major crunches of life.

A SPIRITUAL CONSIDERATION

A Catholic who is living with someone and not married to that person, or a Catholic who is civilly married, or a Catholic who chooses to be married outside the Catholic Church is not permitted to receive the Sacraments (Confession, Holy Communion, etc.), until the situation is resolved. If a Catholic finds himself or herself in this situation, can the Church be of help to you?

RCIA

The Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults -- (RCIA) is a process by which we bring adults into our faith, our Church. It is open to anyone wishing to be baptized, or those of another Christian faith, who have been baptized and wish to become Catholic. It is also for those Catholics who have not yet received the Sacraments of Eucharist or Confirmation. If these descriptions fit anyone you know, tell them about RCIA. Invite them to call the Parish Office -- 743-3117.

News from your Parish School Prayer: The Faith Prayed

Today is Catechetical Sunday. It is a wonderful opportunity to reflect on the role that each of us plays, by virtue of Baptism, in handing on the faith and being a witness to the Gospel.

This Sunday is an opportunity for all to rededicate themselves to this mission as a community of faith. Join us in celebrating our school teachers, CCD teachers, and all who formally instruct others in the way of our faith. Continue today and all year long to lift them up in prayer, that their work may be inspired by the Holy Spirit, reflect the glory of Jesus and be in accordance with the will of the Father. Let us also pray for each other as we are all called to teach the faith to those around us.

"Train up a child in the way he should go; even when he is old he will not depart from it."

-Proverbs 22:6

Statement in response to Catholics for Choice campaign

On Monday, full-page advertisements ran in the San Antonio Express-News, the Houston Chronicle, and the Dallas Morning News from a Washington D.C.-based entity called Catholics for Choice.

Despite what is implied by its name, Catholics for Choice is not a member-oriented organization and has no affiliation with the Roman Catholic Church. Instead, it is financed by grants from a few secular organizations pushing a pro-abortion agenda. It seldom ventures beyond Washington to Texas, unless it is to buy expensive, full-page ads when it serves their pro-abortion agenda.

It is not clear why Catholics for Choice chose a handful of individuals identifying themselves as Catholics as ambassadors for the false premise that refusal to pay for someone's abortion is an assault on anyone's God-given dignity. The only assault on dignity in this discussion is the abortion, which ends one life and irrevocably diminishes countless other lives.

The misguided campaign of the so-called "Catholics for Choice" organization misrepresents the moral guidance of our Church. The Bishops of the United States, in accord with our Holy Father, Pope Francis, have been unequivocal in proclaiming the dignity of unborn human life. Millions of Catholics in Texas actively live out this teaching in our pro-life ministries and advocacy.

Nor is it clear why this small activist group insists on describing itself as "Catholic" when it apparently declines to embrace and live the principles of the Catholic faith. Catholic social teaching is based on and inseparable from our understanding of human life and human dignity. Every person, from the moment of conception to natural death, has inherent dignity and a right to life consistent with that dignity. Catholics, by definition, are in accord with the essential teachings of the Church and embrace the faith that has been handed down to us through Jesus Christ and the apostles. Someone cannot call themselves a Catholic, yet reject the sanctity of life by active support of abortion.
