Someone once said that a person is best judged, not by what they hold onto, but by what they give up. We become defined by the sacrifices we make. Giving up time and labor to provide for loved ones, volunteering to help others, even taking time to play with our children. These noble gifts reflect the best part of us. But there are other sacrifices, so often unseen, that shape us as well. The sacrifice of not indulging in self-pity, of not lying when it is easier than the truth, of not giving in to anger no matter how real the provocation.

Each of these sacrifices, this "giving", brings us closer to God. They tune the heartstrings of our soul to His melody, preparing us for the communion we will experience in heaven.

Better to enter without....

By giving up bad habits or bad thoughts we are not subtracting, diminishing ourselves, we are adding a bond of love to our relationship with God. Jesus said, "If your eye causes you to sin, pluck it out. It is better to enter the kingdom of God with one eye than with two eyes to fall to hell."

Ask yourself this week, what do I need to sacrifice to be closer to God? Then let it go. It's a small price to pay for eternity with Him.

Bishop Brendan Cahill to Visit

On Thursday, October 1, Bishop Brendan Cahill will be celebrating Mass at 8:10 a.m. with the St. Rose School Family. All are welcome and invited to attend.

Following the liturgy he will be blessing the Dayton Helms Memorial Plaza located in front of the Family Life Center. The plaza is dedicated to all those we have loved and lost, especially Dayton Helms. His siblings are students at St. Rose School and as we close the month of September—National Childhood Cancer Awareness month, we remember his courageous battle and honor the joyful life he lived.

Join us as we continue to pray for the Helms family and all those who have lost a loved one to cancer or are courageously battling this disease. In Christ alone we find our comfort and strength.

"I have said these things to you, that in me you may have peace. In the world you will have tribulation. But take heart; I have overcome the world." -John 16:33
