From the Pastor

How easy it is today to love the great things, the big things. Our culture celebrates power, money, influence, and beauty. But that same culture ignores the small and seemingly insignificant things. The good mother, the faithful employee, the day laborer, the plain looking, the simply dressed, the common person... these are just faces in the crowd, extras on the movie set, non-essentials in the quest for perfection.

Christ says we've got it backwards. Listen to His words: "Whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no way lose his reward." Just a cup of cold water is enough to activate the rewards of God.

Can you see the repercussions of this truth? Every kind word spoken for Christ will be rewarded. Every handshake, hug or embrace will be remembered. Every meal cooked for the sick God has recorded. Every offering is worthy of note. God will reward kind words and good deeds, no matter how insignificant they may seem.
