The Pastor's CORNER

The rich young ruler had everything. Youth, wealth, power, charm, high morals, you name it. Yet within himself, he felt something missing. He asked Jesus for an inventory of his spiritual life. "Good teacher," he said, "what must I do to inherit eternal life?"

Jesus saw only one flaw. He said the young man was too connected to his wealth. In his case he needed to be free of what came between himself and God. Jesus told him to sell what he had, give the money to the poor, and to come and follow Him. Having everything wasn't enough.

We may not have a similar problem. Wealth may not be an idol for us. But do we also lack one thing? Do we need to get rid of something in order to truly follow Christ? One thinks of false pride or arrogance or anger or passion for gambling, drinking, bawdy films, etc.

Let us consider what we might need to do to truly be disciples of Christ.
