Spiritual Excerpt

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Eucharistic adoration is the closest we can come on earth to the Beatific vision: "God with us": Father, Jesus and the Holy Spirit. What a grace and blessing that awaits each and everyone of us. Come and rest awhile to visit your loving Father, bringing Him comfort, spend some time. He desires your intimacy. He waits so patiently, day and night, for all of His children to come and visit. Give Him the quality and the quantity He so richly deserves. "The worship given to the Trinity of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit ... must fill our churches also outside the timetable of Masses ... This worship must be prominent in all our encounters with the Blessed Sacrament ... Let us be generous with our time in going to meet Him in adoration and in contemplation that is full of faith and ready to make reparation for the great faults and crimes of the world. May our adoration never cease." Pope St. John Paul II

Jesus asked one thing from us!!!

On His last night of earth (Holy Thursday) Jesus asked His disciples one thing – to stay awake with Him for one hour. Every Thursday evening we at OLV try to fulfill this request by having a Holy Hour from 7-8PM. Join us in carrying out Jesus' request.

OLV K of C Council #14483

QUESTION?

What is a Brown Scapular and what is the Sabbatine Privilege? The Brown Scapular was given to the Prior General of the Carmelite Order, St. Simon Stock, at a crucial period in the Order's history. Tradition tells us that the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared to St. Simon at Aylesford, England, in 1251, holding out to him the Brown Scapular and making the "great promise," "This shall be a sign for you and for Carmelites. Whoever dies in this shall not suffer eternal fire." The Church's understanding is that the scapular is a miniature religious habit and as such is a highly indulgenced sacramental. The Scapular inspires those who wear it and who commit themselves to our Lady's way of life, a life in which Mary expressed her total openness to the will of God when she said, "Be it done to me according to your word." The message of the Scapular is the same advice she gave to the servants at the Cana wedding: "Do whatever He tells you," – to follow Christ in faith, hope, and charity. The second scapular promise concerns prompt deliverance from Purgatory. Known as the Sabbatine Privilege, it stems from a bull or decree issued on March 3, 1322 by Pope John XXII, it links the Scapular to Saturday, Our Lady's day, and spells out the requirement of a genuine Christian life: prayer, penance, purity, and fidelity to the sacraments. Our Blessed Mother in speaking with St. Simon Stock promised that those who wear Her Brown Scapular, "On Saturday, as many as I shall find in Purgatory I shall free."

You master your enemies by forgiveness not force.

THE BROWN SCAPULAR MARY'S GIFT

The Scapular has a long history as a garment of salvation, but there are six colors of scapulars, and each is endowed with its own indulgences. We mostly hear of the Brown Scapular, but there are also these other colors which have been offered to us, by Heaven, to add to the gifts, graces, and promises consecutively:
The White Scapular – In 1190, St. John of Malta, when celebrating his First Holy Mass, saw an angel dressed in blue with a red cross on the chest. The angel requested he use the White Scapular in honor of the Most Holy Trinity for redeeming Christians captured and enslaved by the Turks.

The Black Scapular – In 1240, seven holy men of Florence, Italy gathered to vow their honor to the Mother of God in her sorrows. One evening she appeared to them holding black garments to perpetuate the memory of her sorrow. They formed the Servites (now called the Servants of Mary), and began the novena prayers to the Sorrowful Mother known as the Seven Dolours of the Blessed Virgin Mary. The Black Scapular was the first of the six colors worn by laymen.

The Brown Scapular – In 1251, the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared as Our Lady of Mt. Carmel and gave the brown scapular to St. Simon Stock. Our Lady at Fatima showed it in 1917, to the three children.

The Blue Scapular – In 1605, Our Lord appeared to Sister Ursula Benincasa of Naples, Italy, where she promised to adopt the Blue Scapular to honor the Immaculate Conception.

The Red Scapular – In 1864, Our Lord, wearing the Red Scapular, appeared to Sister Appoline of the Order of Sisters of Charity in Troyes, France. She promised to wear it for His Passion so that one could receive the gifts of Faith, Hope, and Charity on each Friday. Our Lord appeared repeatedly and within a year, Pope Pius IX approved the Red Scapular and enriched the wearer with additional indulgences.

The Green Scapular – In 1830, the Blessed Mother entrusted the Green Scapular of the Immaculate Heart to Sister Justine Bisqueyburu of the Daughters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul, in Paris. Our Lady promised that wonderful graces are to be obtained in proportion to the confidence with which the scapular is given for conversion and cures.

JUST A REMINDER

The Fridays of the year, outside of Lent, are designated as days of penance, but each individual may substitute for the traditional abstinence from meat some other practice of voluntary self-denial as penance.

Jesus asked one thing from us!!!

On His last night of earth (Holy Thursday) Jesus asked His disciples one thing – to stay awake with Him for one hour. Every Thursday evening we at OLV try to fulfill this request by having a Holy Hour from 7-8PM. Join us in carrying out Jesus' request.

PARENTS

Every Friday we have adoration of the Blessed Sacrament from noon to 3pm – now that it is summer stop in and bring your child/children and let them spend some quiet time with the Lord. It is never too late to start making "visits" to the Blessed Sacrament.

QUESTION????

Who is Uncle Sam? When we picture Uncle Sam today we visualize a man with a long white beard, top hat; red and white striped pants and a blue jacket. There was a real Uncle Sam, and he looked nothing like our visualization but he did wear a top hat and he did come to represent the United States Government. Sam Wilson supplied US troops stationed around Troy, NY, with meat during the war of 1812. The meat shipped to the soldiers was stamped "U.S." for the United States. One day, as a federal inspector was checking meat at Wilson's store, he was told by one of Wilson's employees that "U.S." stood for Uncle Sam, which was Wilson's nickname. It was not long after that before all federal supplies were said to belong to Uncle Sam. While the story seems unreal and is thought to be contrived, an 1830 newspaper article quotes eyewitnesses who swore to the authenticity of the facts. In the early 1960's, the United States Congress made it official, proclaiming Sam Wilson as the original Uncle Sam. And you thought all along that our government just wasted our tax money.

Make a Visit

Remember the practice of stopping and making a visit to Jesus in the Tabernacle? Well, you can still do it, as OLV's Church is open from 7:00AM-4:30PM (M-F).

LITTLE JOHNNY

A new teacher was trying to make use of her psychology courses. She started her class by saying, "Everyone who thinks they're stupid, stand up!" After a few seconds, Little Johnny stood up. The teacher said, "Do you think you're stupid, Little Johnny?" "No, ma'am, but I hate to see you standing there all by yourself!"

FROM THE PASTOR May 31, 2015

by Fr. George W. Rutler

The Constitution of Ireland begins: "In the name of the Most Holy Trinity, from Whom is all authority and to Whom, as our final end, all actions both of men and States must be referred, / We, the people of Éire, / Humbly acknowledging all our obligations to our Divine Lord, Jesus Christ . . ."

The landslide vote in Eire for legalizing the fictitious form of marriage between persons of the same sex, in contradiction of all laws natural and divine, unearths the pulsating Druidism that Saint Patrick and his fellow saints defied. The estimated $17 million from pressure groups in the United States is no excuse, for people will only be pressured if they are willing to be pressured. Another dismal fact is that over 90% of the young people influenced to subscribe to this vote were formed in Catholic schools. The vote was less in favor of inversion and more in hostility to a Church whose Jansenism and clericalism had incubated corruption and lassitude. While most of Europe suffers from the deadly sin of indifference, or sloth, Ireland is in adolescent rebellion, virulent and irrational. This was exploited by political interests hostile to Christian civilization, and their propaganda combined legitimate accusations against ecclesial failings with a left-wing, secularist agenda.

Ireland helped to bring the Faith to America, and when the flourishing of that Faith degenerated here, that donation was returned in the form of a bacillus. Ireland today has among the highest rates of suicide and mental illness in all Europe, and one-third of children there are born out of wedlock. Things are worse in the United States. Look at the Saint Patrick's Day Parade in New York City to see what happens when the honor of a saint is dishonored, and when ambassadors for Christ become nothing more than goodwill ambassadors.

What happened in Ireland was not sudden. Like a dead elephant that remains standing for a short while before collapsing, so the Flame that Patrick kindled on Tara had died long before Catholicism was mixed up with political causes, and ethnic drollery replaced dogma. In mordant irony, just a few weeks ago the Stormont in Northern Ireland rejected a motion favoring same-sex unions, a motion more indicting for having been introduced by the Sinn Féin, which had long persuaded naïve Americans that it was a Catholic cause.

The Archbishop of Dublin, hardly a firebrand, said: "Marriage is not simply about a wedding ceremony or about two people being in love with each other. Marriage, in the Constitution, is linked with the family and with a concept of family and the mutuality of man and woman as the foundation for the family." In light of the fine invocation of the Irish Constitution, the Irish vote is worse than perverse: it is blasphemous. All the great saints of once-verdant Ireland would have used stronger language.

PARISH SECRETARY

Fr. Bryan: We need a responsible person to fill this parish's secretary job. Maria: That's me! In my last job when anything went wrong, they said I was responsible.

THANK YOU

Thank you Scott Landscaping for donating and planting all the annuals around the Church property.

QUESTION???

Just before the reading of the Gospel at Mass, the priest touches his head, his mouth, and his breast. Most of the people do it at the same time. What does this mean? The priest and people are (or should be) making a small sign of the cross on their forehead, their lips, and breast. The action is a prayer that the Good News of the Lord, which they are about to hear, may be always in their minds, on their lips and in their hearts.

FEEL USELESS

The next time you feel like GOD can't use you, just remember...

- Noah was a drunk
- Abraham was too old
- Isaac was a daydreamer
- Jacob was a liar
- Leah was ugly
- Joseph was abused
- Moses had a stuttering problem
- Gideon was afraid
- Sampson had long hair and was a womanizer
- Rahab was a prostitute
- Jeremiah and Timothy were too young
- David had an affair and was a murderer
- Elijah was suicidal
- Isaiah preached naked
- Jonah ran from God
- Naomi was a widow
- Job went bankrupt
- John the Baptist ate bugs
- Peter denied Christ
- The Disciples fell asleep while praying
- Martha worried about everything
- The Samaritan woman was divorced, more than once
- Zaccheus was too small
- Paul was too religious
- Timothy had an ulcer...AND
- Lazarus was dead!

No more excuses now!! God can use you to your full potential. Besides you aren't the message, you are just the messenger. God bless!

Laws They Probably Never Taught
You in Physics Class

1. Law of Mechanical Repair - After your hands become coated with grease, your nose will begin to itch and you'll have to pee.
2. Law of Gravity - Any tool, nut, bolt, screw, when dropped, will roll to the least accessible place in the universe.
3. Law of Probability - The probability of being watched is directly proportional to the stupidity of your act.
4. Law of Random Numbers - If you dial a wrong number, you never get a busy signal; someone always answers.
5. Variation Law - If you change lines (or traffic lanes), the one you were in will always move faster than the one you are in now.
6. Law of the Bath - When the body is fully immersed in water, the telephone will ring.
7. Law of Close Encounters - The probability of meeting someone you know INCREASES dramatically when you are with someone you don't want to be seen with.
8. Law of the Result - When you try to prove to someone that a machine won't work, IT WILL!!!
9. Law of Biomechanics - The severity of the itch is inversely proportional to the reach.
10. Law of the Theater & Hockey Arena - At any event, the people whose seats are furthest from the aisle, always arrive last. They are the ones who will leave their seats several times to go for food, beer, or the toilet and who leave early before the end of the performance or the game is over. The folks in the aisle seats come early, never move once, have long gangly legs or big bellies and stay to the bitter end of the performance. The aisle people also are very surly folk.
11. The Coffee Law - As soon as you sit down to a cup of hot coffee, your boss will ask you to do something which will last until the coffee is cold.
12. Murphy's Law of Lockers - If there are only 2 people in a locker room, they will have adjacent lockers.
13. Law of Physical Surfaces—The chances of an open-faced jelly sandwich landing face down on a floor are directly correlated to the newness and cost of the carpet or rug.
14. Law of Logical Argument - Anything is possible IF you don't know what you are talking about.
15. Law of Physical Appearance - If the clothes fit, they're ugly.
16. Law of Public Speaking -- A CLOSED MOUTH GATHERS NO FEET!
17. Law of Commercial Marketing Strategy - As soon as you find a product that you really like, they will stop making it OR the store will stop selling it!
18. Doctors' Law - If you don't feel well, make an appointment to go to the doctor, by the time you get there, you'll feel better. But don't make an appointment and you'll stay sick.

How to Participate at Holy Mass

It is a common practice to limit our prayers to petition. This is a mistake. We owe God, first of all, adoration; secondly, gratitude. We can never thank Him sufficiently, though we were to employ eternity in so doing, for the innumerable gifts, material and spiritual, temporal and eternal, which He bestows upon us. Life, redemption, our Catholic faith, preservation from grave sin, the grace of conversion, health, relatives, and friends – therefore, to thank God by means of the Holy Mass. After adoration and thanksgiving comes atonement. Prostrate at the foot of Calvary's cross, down which the most precious Blood of Jesus Christ flows from His gaping wounds, we should beg pardon for our sins, which have thus nailed Christ to the cross. Let us ask Him to pour His precious Blood over our souls that they may be cleansed from their polluting stains. Prayer of petition should not be forgotten. In it, we beg of God for the favors of which we stand in need.

END OF LIFE

After living what I felt was a 'decent' life, my time on earth came to the end. The first thing I remember is sitting on a bench in the waiting room of what I thought to be a court house. The doors opened and I was instructed to come in and have a seat by the defense table. As I looked around I saw the 'prosecutor'. He was a villainous looking gent who snarled as he stared at me. He definitely was the most evil person I have ever seen. I sat down and looked to my left and there sat My Attorney, a kind and gentle looking man whose appearance seemed so familiar to me, I felt I knew Him. The corner door opened and there appeared the Judge in full flowing robes.

He commanded an awesome presence as He moved across the room. I couldn't take my eyes off of Him. As He took His seat behind the bench, He said, 'Let us begin.' The prosecutor rose and said, 'My name is Satan and I am here to show you why this man belongs in hell.' He proceeded to tell of lies that I told, things that I stole, and In the past when I cheated others. Satan told of other horrible perversions that were once in my life, and the more he spoke, the further down in my seat I sank.

I was so embarrassed that I couldn't look at anyone, even my own Attorney, as the Devil told of sins that even I had completely forgotten about. As upset as I was at Satan for telling all these things about me, I was equally upset at My Attorney who sat there silently not offering any form of defense at all. I know I had been guilty of those things, but I had done some good in my life - couldn't that at least equal out part of the harm I'd done?

Satan finished with a fury and said, 'This man belongs in hell, he is guilty of all that I have charged and there is not a person who can prove otherwise. 'When it was His turn, My Attorney first asked if He might approach the bench. The Judge allowed this over the strong objection of Satan, and beckoned Him to come forward. As He got up and started walking, I was able to see Him in His full splendor and majesty. I realized why He seemed so familiar; this was Jesus representing me, my Lord and my Savior. He stopped at the bench and softly said to the Judge, 'Hi, DAD,' and then He turned to address the court. 'Satan was correct in saying that this man had sinned, I won't deny any of these allegations. And, yes, the wage of sin is death, and this man deserves to be punished.'

Jesus took a deep breath and turned to His Father with outstretched arms and proclaimed, 'However, I died on the cross so that this person might have eternal life and he has accepted Me as his Savior, so he is Mine.' My Lord continued with, 'His name is written in the Book of Life, and no one can snatch him from Me. Satan still does not understand yet. This man is not to be given justice, but rather mercy. 'As Jesus sat down, He quietly paused, looked at His Father and said, 'There is nothing else that needs to be done. I've done it all..'

The Judge lifted His mighty hand and slammed the gavel down. The following words bellowed from His lips ... 'This man is free. The penalty for him has already been paid in full. Case dismissed. 'I asked Jesus as He gave me my instructions where to go next, 'Have you ever lost a case?' Christ lovingly smiled and said, 'Everyone that has come to Me and asked Me to represent them has received the same verdict as you, ~Paid In Full.'
