They were exceedingly astonished and said among themselves, "Then who can be saved?" Jesus looked at them and said, "For human beings it is impossible, but not for God. All things are possible for God." - Mk 10:26-27

Oct. 14, 2018—Twenty Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's Gospel, Jesus asks the rich young man to give away all that he has in order to have treasure in heaven. But he is unable to free himself from his possessions, and so he goes sadly away. Does what I own keep me from following Jesus?

Les saludo con mucho cariño en esta semana número 28 del tiempo litúrgico ordinario....

¿Qué debo hacer para alcanzar la vida eterna? Esa pregunta, sin duda, fuerte que el joven le hizo a Jesús, sin duda nos identifica acerca de lo que nos caracteriza como católicos cristianos. ¿Quién no se ha preguntado alguna vez, que hacer para ser un autentico católico?

¿Qué tengo que hacer? Y la respuesta es simple: ser generoso, ser humilde, ser autentico. El joven del Evangelio era rico y se entristeció porque tenía muchos bienes. Nosotros somos ricos, también. Dicen que donde está tu tesoro...esta tu corazón...y que de lo que habla tu boca es de lo que abunda tu corazón.

Mis hermanos...Muchas personas encuentran difícil de entender que lo que el Señor nos quiere decir. Hoy en día, existen muchas "riquezas" que no nos dejan ser auténticos cristianos, como por ejemplo: el trabajo, el dinero, la ambición, los vicios, el pecado, la pereza, etc...entonces la pregunta que podemos nosotros plantearnos sería: ¿Que estamos dispuestos a hacer o "dejar" para seguir a Jesús?

Es curioso que muchas personas entiendan este "dejar" como un sacrificio, como ignorando que, ese "dejar" nos esclaviza y cuando optamos por seguir a Jesús se experimenta un gozo interior indescriptible. Es como una liberación que se experimenta al confiar en aquel que es la Divina Providencia. ¿Cuántas personas no experimentan ese gozo interior por estar solo pensando egoístamente o estar confiando en otra cosa que no es Dios?

Mis hermanos...reflexionemos en esto. ¿Qué tienes que hacer para que Jesús tome control de tu vida? El mismo dice: "Busca primero el Reino de Dios y todo lo demás se te dará por añadidura"

Es simple, no es difícil de entender, pero al mismo tiempo no queremos perder la "seguridad" y rechazamos a Aquel que es fuente de nuestra seguridad.

¿Qué tenemos que dejar para que Jesús actúe totalmente en nuestra vida? Con cariño...Diacono Real

The modern mentality tends to give up norms and exalt carelessness: Do what you want, do what make you feel good, you are free. At the same time, people are very sensitive to their rights: you got to fight for what you believe and stand for it. Today we are seeing these two simultaneously lived out in society; you find people fighting for any kind of rights. If they believe something and want to get it legalized, they become immovable in their belief. It's what happened with these Pharisees: Moses told us to do it like that, you, boy, don't have anything to say. But Jesus shows that what is legal is not necessarily moral. These guys just did not want change because they used to take advantage of the law to abuse their authority.

Years ago, I read a statement from a hollywood star in a magazine, he said: "marriage is the grave of Love." To refuse marriage, to refuse social norms, is not necessarily proof of maturity, but rather the choice to avoid serious responsibility, commitment. Today we hear a lot of stuff about marriage. But we Christians. our belief, our firm belief, has the most reliable basis: the Bible teaches us truths about marriage; the beauties of marriage and its role in the broad vision of the salvation. The sacred author teaches us the necessary truths for salvation: the existence of God, the origin of our soul, its nature and its destiny. I mention this because different books present different truths which we better call mid-truths. Genesis reveals the strict truth in a way that anybody can understand: there is a creation, there are man and woman, they are created to live together and God is our creator. Instead of a grave of Love, Marriage, as someone said, is the flower-bed of love, or perhaps the cocoon within which passion turns into commitment. When you are young and passionate, dating is all romance and beating hearts and sweaty palms and butterflies in the stomach. That young love is exciting, but it must bloom into something greater. The sacrament of marriage is a grace and a free divine gift which heals the impossibility of man to love as God loves. Jesus proclaimed that marriage is indissoluble. It's why marriage is for grownups, it implies careful discernment and intention. Now, we should not use this indissolubility of marriage to judge or to condemn marriages in difficulty. Jesus reminded us of the big picture of what God intended marriage should be, and though troubled marriages exist, Jesus in his merciful will understands that. Divorce and separations bring pain, pain for kids, for both the man and woman, for parents and even for society. The real problem Jesus wants us to focus on is this: the hardness of heart. That is the illness of our society and of all societies. Jesus pointed it out with the Pharisees. People don't want to open their heart.

Brothers and sisters let's ask God for the strength to love. I notice that you love songs; I recommend to you "Love goes on" by Bernadette Farrell. After listening to it, you will understand why so many marriages fail.
