TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION Long ago, the custom of sending some pieces of consecrated bread from the Lord's table began to take hold. Originally it was a way of assuring the sick and imprisoned of their bonds of faith and affection with the community from whom they were separated. By the third century, at least in Rome, we have evidence that the bishop would consign some of the sacred elements to presbyters or deacons.

There was a crisis in the unity of the church early on, called the quartodeciman controversy, since some people wanted to celebrate the Pasch on the fourteenth day (quartodecima) of the Jewish month Nissan, even if it didn't fall on a Sunday. The debate so fractured the church that the historian of the era, Eusebius, reported a new development to the pope. He wrote that the churches holding to the Lord's Day sent out consecrated bread to the disgruntled people of the quartodeciman pastors with whom they were quarreling. Meanwhile, bishops complained about people taking the Eucharist home. St. Cyprian told a cautionary tale of a sinful woman who tried to open the "casket" containing the consecrated bread in her home. She was deterred from receiving, he said, by flames erupting from the box. Clearly, he wanted people to think twice before bringing Communion home!

The Council of Nicaea defined the "old rule of the church" as allowing for reserving the eucharistic bread for the sake of the dying. The same council could foresee circumstances of persecution when people might have the Eucharist on hand to administer to one another in a time of great danger, literally, at the point of a sword. The first and enduring purpose for reserving the Eucharist is viaticum for the dying.

INCARNATION OF THE LORD PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Christ became human, and we take up His ministry of love, service, and compassion as an expression of our faith in the Word Incarnate.

THIRSTING FOR LIFE-GIVING WATERS Especially during the Lenten, Holy Week, and Easter seasons, the prayer texts of the Eastern Church revel in paradoxical images of Christ: the eternal life who is put to death, the host of the supper who is also its meal, the thirsty crucified one with living water streaming from his side. These images flow from the evangelists' portrayals of Jesus and from his very ministry, during which he often upset or reversed people's expectations about him or the ways of God. This "reversal" is at play in today's Gospel, as Jesus speaks to an enemy foreigner who is also a woman beneath his status. In addition, Jesus, the thirsting one, shows the woman to be the one truly thirsting. He - whose parched lips will say "I thirst" before he dies - is the source of life and life-giving water. Lent calls upon us to dwell on how each of us is thirsting for Christ, and it leads us, ultimately, back to the life-giving waters of our baptism into his Body. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

PRAYER MINISTERS NEEDED NOW!!!!

What do we get from spending time with someone we love? Prayer is spending time with God, our beloved, and learning to receive, experience, and return His love in a genuine relationship. There is nothing more lovely or fulfilling than God. We are told to pray without ceasing. Prayer is the raising of one's mind and heart to God, or the requesting of good things from God. However, prayer is about more than asking God for goodies.

In prayer we thank God for His blessings, praise Him for His goodness, and express sorrow for our sins. Through prayer, we find strength, peace, and comfort in difficult times.

In addition to God, prayer also connects us to each other. Intercessory praying - praying for someone else - is powerful. Jesus responded in amazing ways to people who prayed for their friends. It starts with a personal relationship and prayer.

Would you consider joining the Risen Lord Prayer Ministry? Every few months we send out prayer requests and ask that you keep these individuals in your prayers. In addition, we have a telephone tree of volunteers for those individuals who need immediate prayers such as those going into surgery or any other pressing needs.

Think about it. You can contact the Administration Office and leave your name and number, or place your name and number into collection basket and someone from the Ladies of Charity will get back to you.

RISEN LORD PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Our Risen Lord calls us to rejoice as a united people in the Good News that God loves us and has saved us. Each of us, by virtue of our baptism, is challenged to carry God's love to all in our neighborhoods. Through our communal participation in the Word of God and the Eucharist, as a parish, we seek to empower our people to meet this challenge to proclaim the love and hope that is our Risen Lord.

Keeping the Faith

by Marilyn Ruffner

In today's Gospel, Jesus talks with a Samaritan woman. This was very unusual and scandalous. Jewish men did not talk to women alone in public. The Jews also had a very contentious relationship with Samaritans. Jesus had a very long private conversation with her. He began talking with her and stating sins of which she was guilty. She began to wonder if He truly was the Messiah. Jesus explains to her what the living water is. Leaving her water jar at the well, she eagerly runs back to her people. "Come see a man who has told me everything I have done. Could He possibly be the Christ?" In the Gospel, John explains that, "many of the Samaritans in that town began to believe in Him because of the word of the woman who testified." Did you ever wonder why you believe? In my own reflection, I wondered as a little girl how God could know everything about me. It was a little scary thinking that God knew all of the wrong I did. Who am I kidding? It's still pretty scary as an adult. I never questioned that God was real. My father took me to church every week. My mom converted to Catholicism later. Everyone in my family believed in God. You just believed. As an adult my belief never wavered, although sometimes I questioned the why of some things that happen. I think that we must always continue to strengthen our faith. We need to pray every day. What would you tell God on Facebook or Twitter? When we're young, we go to church because our parents take us. As an adult we go to church to praise and worship God because He deserves our praise. This week think about why you believe. How are you strengthening your faith? Like the Samaritan woman, are we running to tell everyone we know about the Messiah?

Modern Witnesses: A Lenten Retreat The Sisters of St. Joseph are offering a Lenten Day of Prayer, Modern Witness, on Tuesday, March 28, from 9:30 AM until 1:00 PM. Pope Francis says that "There are more witnesses, more martyrs in the Church today than there were in the first centuries." Following this inspiration, Fr. Donald Breier, will reflect on the reality of martyrdom today. Both places of conflict in our world and in the "ordinary lives" of each of us, martyrs continue to offer witness, day after day. This Lenten program, a collaboration of the Sisters of St. Joseph Auxiliary and St. Joseph Spirituality Center, will close with liturgy and lunch. A donation is requested for lunch. To register, call (724)869-6587 by March 20th.

NORTHSIDE CATHOLIC NEWS During Catholic Schools Week, Northside Catholic School students had the opportunity to view specially cut silhouettes of the entire faculty, including Fr. Larry Smith! Students then received a list of all the names and tried to match each with a silhouette. The students who correctly guessed all names were eligible for a drawing to win a gift certificate. Only two students correctly guessed all of the silhouettes, and the winner was Makaylah Ballard of the eighth grade. Silhouettes of every student have been on display since the fall. Sr. Carol Ann Papp, OSF, Art Teacher, decided it was time to get the faculty in on the excitement too! Stop in and see how many YOU can correctly guess! For more information on our preschool through eighth grade school, or to come in and take a tour, give us a call at (412)761-5043 x3001.

CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT WORKING ON THE MARGINS

- LEARN about those living in poverty. • ACT and spread the word about poverty by passing along this flier.
- CONNECT with the work of CCHD by supporting the collection. • PRAY for those who benefit from this collection.

The Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) was founded in 1970 by the Catholic bishops of the United States as their domestic anti-poverty program. Designed to address the policies and structures that perpetuate poverty to create sustainable solutions, CCHD empowers poor and marginalized people to join together and make decisions to improve their lives and neighborhoods.

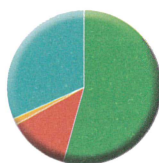

For example, with your support of the Catholic Campaign for Human Development, El Pájaro Community Development Corporation (CDC) is empowering Latino and Spanish-speaking entrepreneurs like Marleny. Marleny came to the United States from El Salvador, escaping violence and an unsafe situation. She had a dream to start a pupuseria restaurant and to serve traditional Salvadoran food and support her family. She entered the Business Education and Loan Program at El Pájaro CDC and in October 2014 opened Pupuseria Marleny's. With the support and education she received, her business has been so successful that she has already opened a second restaurant. The restaurants have allowed Marleny to provide gainful employment to five new workers and help revitalize her community.
