STAFF CHANGES

As you may know, Risen Lord Parish has had a couple of staff members retire recently. Because of this, we have had to make some adjustments.

Marilyn Ruffner, whom many of you know as our Religious Education Director, will be working in the Risen Lord office on Tuesdays from 9-4 and Thursdays from 9-1. She will be the new Safe Environment Coordinator for Risen Lord. She will also keep the parish registrations up to date, make Sacramental entries and certificates, along with the schedule of events and keeping the calendar for the education center. Monthly calendars will not be put in the bulletin as an insert, but events will continue to be listed in the bulletin.

Also, David Volcheck will be the new bulletin editor, with one bulletin for both parishes beginning June 19th.

Naomi Wells continues as office manager for both Incarnation of the Lord and Risen Lord parishes, but the office hours have changed. Please see Naomi for the scheduling of Masses or if you have questions regarding candles. Parish Share questions also are to be addressed through Naomi.

Keeping the Faith

By Marilyn Ruffner

We can see the great love Jesus has for all of us. In today's Gospel Jesus raises a widow's only son from the dead, because He is moved to pity by her. When this miracle happens, the people praise God and proclaim He has visited His people. The news of Him spread through all of Judea. How do we feel the presence of Jesus in our lives? Today there are still miracles, maybe they are not as dramatic. People are still healed physically and spiritually. Sometimes little things happen that proclaim to us the presence of God. I feel the presence of Jesus when I am barely able to avoid hitting someone that pulled out in front of me. Somehow we do not hit each other or I am able to get the help I need for a special project. I am grateful for all of these things. Try to look for the little things in our lives that proclaim the presence of God.

Vacation Bible School will be at St Aloysius Parish. It is June 27th-July 1st, 9:00A.M.-12:00P.M. The cost is $5.00 per child. Kindergarten thru 5th grade students are accepted. It's a time to sing fun songs, do crazy crafts, eat yummy snacks, play awesome games and more. You will learn about Jesus and how He gathers us together. If you need more information call me at 412 931 2911 x 5.

For the Safety of Our Children

The diocese is continually updating the data base for the safety of all of our children. Any volunteer who works directly with children must be fingerprinted or sign an affidavit by July 31st, 2016. You must also take Pennsylvania Mandated Reporter training online or in a live training class. You will be notified in June if you must meet this criteria by the Safety Environment Coordinator. Your cooperation in advance is appreciated.

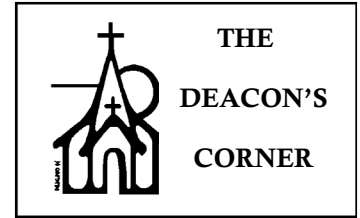

Religious Training Classes

We will be contacting parents of our Religious Education program to find out which program your child will be attending. If you are home schooling, please call me so you will receive the materials needed. If I am not in the office, please leave a message and I will return your call as soon as possible.

Newman Connection on College Campuses

The Catholic College Campus Ministries are reaching out to graduating seniors through the Newman Connection. This program connects college bound students with their campus ministry. Statistics show that college graduates who have been active in campus ministry are more likely to attend Mass and to volunteer for leadership roles in their parish when they return from college. They also are more likely to consider a religious vocation. Go to www.diopitt.org/newmanconnection and fill out a form. It takes less than two minutes and no personal information needs to be collected.

Breaking Open the Word: Luke 7:11-17

Listen to the Word: As you hear this reading, what words or phrases strike you? What in this reading touches your heart? What words are repeated over and over again?

Look into Your Life:

Children: How do you help build God's Kingdom on Earth?

Youth: What could you say to comfort someone whose loved one has died?

Adults: How do you handle death? Do you recognize that you will reunite with your loved one again? How do you come to terms with the separation?

God the Father, we pray for peace, knowing that we will see our loved once again who have passed. Let us rest in your eternal, loving arms. Be with those who are suffering with grief and loss.

WHAT'S HAPPENING AT NORTHSIDE CATHOLIC

On Mission for The Church Alive!

· The goal of On Mission for The Church Alive! is to help our parishes and schools, our health care facilities and campus ministry programs and every faith community in our diocese become even more vibrant communities of worship and service, while challenging all of us to be excited about our faith!

· The word "mission" means "sent". To be on mission is to know that, with the love of the Holy Spirit in our hearts, we are to live each day as bearers of the Gospel. A mission is always a movement toward others and for others.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Unless Professor Einstein's theory of relativity can be translated into any useful kind of time-travel, most of our clues about life in the early church will have to come from ancient letters and ancient prayer texts. A prayer text from a dusty library may yield, for example, an understanding of what "presbyters" actually did. We have such a prayer from the early third century from the hand of Hippolytus of Rome. While our modern prayers derive a great deal from his, some of the practices of the ancient church have fallen away. In his day, bishops were chosen by the people, and the other bishops merely consented. Presbyters, by contrast, seem to have been chosen by the bishops. This makes sense, since it allowed the bishops to hand-pick their most trusted advisers.

It seems that bishops were at first reluctant to share their presiding at the Eucharist with presbyters. In fact, by the time of the fourth-century church's growth spurt in Rome, the bishop sent deacons out with fragments of the host from his Eucharist to drop into the chalices of the presbyters at the outlying eucharistic celebrations. We still have a vestige of this fermentum in the Mass today, a reminder of the early bishops' desire to give a powerful sign of the unity of all celebrations of the Eucharist with their ministry, and a clue to their reluctance to delegate a sacramental ministry to the presbyters.

WE BEGIN WITH ONE BULLETIN for both Incarnation of the Lord and Risen Lord Parishes on the weekend of Father's Day. We also begin with a new bulletin editor...David Volcheck.

The new bulletin email address is:
bulletinINCandRL@comcast.net

We welcome David's willingness to help us with this new venture, while at the same time thank Jan Held for the many years she provided this service to the people of Incarnation parish. We also thank and offer appreciation to Thomisina Dush who was the bulletin editor for Risen Lord's bulletin for so many years. These two ladies did a magnificent job in communicating to all of us information we needed to have through the bulletin. May God continue to bless them in all their future endeavors!

OUR PRAYER RALLY is slated for Sunday, June 12, 2016, at 2PM in Legion Park. Please join us as we come together as a community to pray for peace in our neighborhoods. May the Holy Spirit guide us in His way!

HOPE AND LIFE

Today's readings tell the story of two widows. The first reading relates the plight of the widow with whom the prophet Elijah stayed; the Gospel tells about the widow of Nain. In each story, the widow's only son had died. For people who lived in those cultures, the son was the only support of a widow, and the carrying on of the family name by the son was equal to immortality. A widow whose only son has died could lose all hope.

Elijah and Jesus are the restorers of hope; they bring the sons back to life. Saint Paul was metaphorically raised from the dead when he experienced the conversion and call from God that he describes in today's second reading.

What are Christians called to do today? We may not be able to raise the dead, but perhaps we can rekindle hope for a single parent. We may not be able to convert a persecutor like Paul, but if we speak the gospel openly and gently with our lives, we might touch a life with the Good News.
