March 15, 2015

Dear Parishioners,

This week, we celebrate the feasts of two great saints: St. Patrick and St. Joseph.

St. Patrick, at the age of 16, was captured by a group of pirates. He was taken as a slave to Ireland and held captive for six years. While in captivity, he worked as a shepherd, strengthened his relationship with God, and converted to Christianity. He escaped his master and fled home to his family. At home in Britain, he continued to study the Christian faith and eventually became a cleric and returned to Ireland as a Christian missionary.

Legend credits St. Patrick with teaching the Irish about the doctrine of the Holy Trinity by showing people the shamrock, a three leaf plant, using it to illustrate the Christian teaching of three persons in one God. Its green color represents rebirth and new life. Patrick became a bishop and by the 7th century had already come to be revered as the patron saint of Ireland.

St. Joseph is that just and holy man who became the husband of Mary and the foster father of Jesus. We know that he was a carpenter. He was a compassionate and caring man. When he learned that Mary was pregnant, not knowing that she was carrying the Son of God, he decided to divorce her quietly to not expose her to shame or cruelty. Joseph was a man of faith, obedient to whatever God asked of him. Many believe that he died before Jesus began his public ministry. Joseph is the patron of the dying because he died with Jesus and Mary close to him. He is also the patron of the Universal Church, fathers, carpenters, travelers, house sellers and buyers (planting a statue is superstition not a devotion). Most especially St. Joseph is the patron saint of our parish community.

We offer devotional material at the statue of St. Joseph in the Church. There are novena prayers, a petition booklet and St. Joseph's oil to anoint oneself when praying for healing. We will celebrate the Feast of St. Joseph after the 9 a.m. Mass on Thursday, March 19, in the parish hall.

A reminder, The Light Is On For You, provides that a priest is available for confession at any Catholic parish on Wednesday evenings from 6:30 p.m. - 8:00 p.m. during Lent.

May Jesus continue to shepherd you in all of your needs.

God love you,

Scriptural Teaching

An Inquisitive Walk through the Scripture, 67

We recommend keeping these reflections in a three-ring binder for the sake of pondering, challenging, questioning what is offered. Please consider that this is a series and some things may not be as clear if all individual reflections are not read.

Last week we considered God causing the death of the first-born of Egypt – albeit in a very cursory and simplistic way. There are varieties of interpretations for such accounts in the Bible. Recently, commenting on the movie about Noah, a TV host spoke of a “sadistic” god who killed people with the great flood. We cannot easily rationalize such events in the Bible nor can we spiritualize such events. We need to seek understanding and one possibility for this is to see that physical death is real but there is another life after physical death. For God, physical death is not a finality but a passage from one form of life to another. Physical death may be painful for us – especially if we are the survivors of innocent loved ones – but when we get to the other side, we will have a new perspective and realize that “the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that is to be revealed to us. For the creation waits with eager longing for the revealing of the sons of God.” (Roms. 8:18, 19)

And again, “Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Through Him we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in our hope of sharing the glory of God. More than that, we rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God’s love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit which has been given to us. (Roms. 5:1-5)

All this brings us to the reason for the death of the first-born. God had said that Israel was His first-born (Ex. 4:22) and because of Egypt’s bondage and killing of Israel’s people, the first-born must die. Later God would reveal that His only begotten and “first-born” Son would become one with us and God intended this Son to be crucified, to die and be buried, only to be raised up again as the Door to Heaven and union with God the Father. God the Father intentionally willed the death of the Son of God! “Thus it is written that the Christ should suffer and on the third day rise from the dead.” (Lk. 24:46) Jesus did not die due to any other cause than to fulfill the will of the Father for the sake of saving humankind. This cannot be rationalized or spiritualized. Nor can it be dismissed if we are to recognize the Messiah. It makes magnificent sense in the context of God’s revelation and, though it may be hard for the human mind to comprehend, we are called to have the mind of Christ (Phil. 2:5-11) and see by the power of the Spirit. (1 Cor. 2:10) Some religions say that Jesus did not die on the cross and thereafter be raised from the dead. Such religions do not have the understanding of God’s plan laid out in the Judeo-Christian Scripture. If we want to understand, we must study God’s Word.

LITURGY CORNER

The first part of today's Gospel is the final sentence of Jesus' reply to Nicodemus, the Pharisee who approached Jesus at night. Nicodemus acknowledged Jesus as someone who had come from God and seemed to want to be a follower of Jesus. Jesus greeted Nicodemus with the observation that one must be born from above to see the Kingdom of God...

The second part of today's Gospel is a theological reflection on Jesus' words to Nicodemus. The Gospel of John is known for this kind of reflection offered within the narrative. The words of the Evangelist are in continuity with the words of the prologue to John's Gospel. In these reflections, John elaborates on a number of themes that are found in his Gospel: light and darkness, belief and unbelief, good and evil, salvation and condemnation.

Sunday Connection

Lenten Regulations

Abstinence -- Catholics over 14 years of age are bound to the obligation of abstinence. Abstinence is to be observed on Ash Wednesday and on all Fridays of Lent. On days of abstinence, meat may not be used at all.

Fast -- Catholics over 18 and up to the beginning of their 60th year are bound to the obligation of fasting. Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are the days of fasting. On these days, only one full meal is allowed. Two other meatless meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to each one's needs, but together they should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted, but liquids, including milk and fruit juices are allowed.

Regarding other weekdays of Lent, participation in daily Mass and the voluntary observance of fasting is recommended. Commendable, particularly during Lent, is generosity to local, national and world programs of sharing our abundance, the traditional Lenten Devotions and all the self-denial summed up in the Christian concept of "mortification."

Pray For Your prayers are requested for the benefactors of our parish and the deceased of our community especially Elinor Joan Wenzel and Philip Morrison. Also, please pray for the sick among us and all those who have asked us to pray for them this week. Their names have been inscribed in our parish Book of Intentions in the Chapel. Please contact the rectory to add a name.

Please pray for all those currently serving in the military, especially those deployed overseas:
Debra Martinez, Scott McDonough, & Matthew Redmond.

RCIA Program

Please keep the following candidates in your prayers: Dawn Swain and Bianca Bacigalupo, who will be receiving Adult Confirmation and RCIA Candidates: Eugene DelGaizo and Christina Indorato who will be receiving Eucharist and Confirmation at the Easter Vigil this year.
