The Annunciation of the Lord - March 25

March 22, 2015

Dear Parishioners,

This Wednesday we celebrate the feast of the Annunciation. The Archangel Gabriel was sent to Mary to ask if she would be the Mother of God. She responded, "May it be done to me according to Your Word." The Holy Spirit came upon her and she conceived Jesus. In nine months, we will celebrate the birth of Jesus on December 25th.

Mary said "yes" to God's invitation. This is a good example of what our spiritual life is to be, a "yes" to God. Sin is when we say "no" to God and this is a special time to identify those areas of our lives and make the changes to say "yes" to God, no matter what the situation, is ultimately for our good. Jesus said "yes" to us by taking on our human nature and giving up His life for us. May we daily grow in saying 'yes' to Him.

We are pleased to announce our new enhanced parish website. This website is viewable on your PC, tablet or smart phone at <http://www.stjosephwakefield.org>. You can subscribe to our news and events which will be sent directly to your email. These events will also appear on our new Facebook page; <https://www.facebook.com/stjosephwakefield>. Be sure to "like" us!

We are coming quickly to the end of our Lenten season. I encourage all to go to the Sacrament of Penance to receive the mercy of God in forgiving our sins and washing our souls clean to begin anew on our journey to heaven.

I shall be available for confession on Tuesday, March 24, from 1:00 p.m. - 1:30 p.m. and Wednesday, March 25, from 6:30 p.m. - 8:00 p.m.

The Finance Committee was discussing the possibility of replacing the church pews which are 35 years old (the original pews) and the carpeting. The cost would be about $ 175,000. We will see what the future brings.

May Jesus continue to shepherd you in all of your needs.

God love you,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Fr. Ron".

Scriptural Teaching

An Inquisitive Walk through the Scripture, 68

We recommend keeping these reflections in a three-ring binder for the sake of pondering, challenging, questioning what is offered. Please consider that this is a series and some things may not be as clear if all individual reflections are not read.

After the death of the first-born, the Egyptians were ready to let God's people go to worship the Lord on Mount Sinai. "And the Lord went before them by day in a pillar of cloud to lead them along the way, and by night in a pillar of fire to give them light, that they might travel by day and by night." (Ex. 13:21) Pharaoh changed his mind and pursued the Israelites to the Red Sea. Three more elements are important here to understand Moses as a type of Jesus – Moses' experiences to be fulfilled in a more spiritual manner by the Passover of the Lord.

The Red Sea came to be understood by the early Church as a symbol of Baptism. At Pentecost the Holy Spirit would come in tongues, fire and wind. Here at the crossing of the Red Sea, we see symbolized the Lord's (God's first-born) death for the sake of delivering us from bondage to sin. Clouds signify wind and with the pillar of fire, the Holy Spirit is alluded to. Jesus' deliverance of us from sin is the prelude to the giving of the Holy Spirit. (Remember in commenting on Gen. 11, the Tower of Babel, the third element of tongues was associated with the Spirit in Acts 2:1-4.)

St. Paul understood that the deliverance from sin was met with the same type of hardness of heart that Moses witnessed in his people.

"I want you to know, brethren, that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea, and all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea, and all ate the same supernatural food and all drank the same supernatural drink. For they drank from the supernatural Rock which followed them, and the Rock was Christ. Nevertheless with most of them God was not pleased; for they were overthrown in the wilderness." (1 Cor. 10:1-5)

Numbers 20:7-11 speaks of the Lord providing water from the Rock. A Bible footnote records: "A later legend told of the Rock following the people in the desert. Paul sees the Rock as a symbol of Christ, perhaps as the very work of the pre-existing Christ." (Oxford Annotated Bible (1 Cor. 10) Jesus spoke of water symbolizing the Spirit coming up from the hearts of believers (Jn. 7:37-39).

Being delivered from sin by the waters of Baptism and being immersed in the life of the Only-Begotten Son of God should change a lot of things but, unfortunately, many Christians think like the Israelites did: "It would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians (sin) than to die in the wilderness." Sometimes, we prefer to remain in sin than to die with Christ for the sake of sharing His Risen Life. (cf. 2 Tim. 2:8-13)

Grade 4 Donates Books to Children's Hospital

The Fourth Grade teacher, Miss Baraby, came across a story about a local couple who lost their beautiful baby boy, Mason, to cancer almost a year ago. The family wanted to give back and started a book drive for Boston Children's Hospital in Mason's memory. Miss Baraby and her students wanted to give back too and decided to use 3,500 points in their Scholastic Book account. With all of those points, she was able to order about 65 brand new books for children ranging from ages 3-13! These books will be donated to the Boston Children's Hospital from the 4th Grade Class at Saint Joseph School. The children at St. Joseph School were willing to sacrifice new books for their classroom and help bring joy to other children.

Fr. Wenzel's Mass Schedule

Fr. Jim will be celebrating the following Masses:
March 22 at 7:30 a.m., March 29 at 11:00 a.m.

Hunger for Justice is a 35+ hour retreat that begins with a prayer service beginning on the beach in Nahant, continues with the carrying of the Cross to St. Thomas Parish, and concludes with the Veneration of the Cross. The retreat then continues at St. Mary's High School with a final meal (before we fast until after the Easter Vigil Mass Saturday night), group games and spiritual reflections. In addition to fasting during the retreat, the participants also build their own homes out of cardboard in the gym and cafeteria. The focus for Friday is on Jesus' Sacrifice on the Cross and His healing Grace. We conclude Friday evening with a prayer service and in joyful expectation for His rising on Easter. Please contact Julie to sign up ASAP! Jvazquez@stjosephwakefield.org

LITURGY CORNER

This Sunday marks the beginning of Jesus' "march" to His sacrifice and our salvation.

Following His triumphant entry into Jerusalem, Jesus predicted His suffering, death, and Resurrection and prepared His disciples to believe in the salvation that His death would accomplish. Using the metaphor of the grain of wheat, Jesus presented the idea that His dying would be beneficial. He also taught that those who would be His disciples must follow His example of sacrifice. This theme will be repeated in John's account of the Last Supper, when Jesus washed the feet of His disciples as an example of how they must serve one another.

Love and service are keynotes of Jesus' mission on earth and His desire for our well being.

Wakefield Interfaith Food Pantry

Just a reminder that we have drop off baskets located in the library foyer for your donations of non-perishable food items to benefit the needy of our community. This month the pantry is especially in need of brand cereals. Thank you for your continued generosity.

Cenacle of the Marian Movement of Priests

St. Joseph Parish is answering Our Lady's call. Please join us as we hold our monthly cenacle, the 1st Saturday of each month at 9:30 a.m. in the chapel after the 9:00 a.m. Mass. We are asked to meet at least once a month, say a rosary together, pray special prayers for our Pope and read one or more of our Lady's messages given to Fr. Gobbi. We also make an Act of Consecration to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. We hope you can join us. If you have any questions, please contact: Sharon Keith (781) 245-5770.

OFFERTORY MARCH 14-15 $ 12,030
