March 29, 2015

Dear Parishioners,

This week we celebrate Holy Week. We will recall the great events of our salvation. On Holy Thursday, we will celebrate the Last Supper where at the Passover meal, Jesus changed the bread and wine into His Body and Blood. He gave us His Flesh and Blood as food for our journey to the kingdom of heaven. As God fed the Hebrew people on their journey from the slavery of Egypt to the freedom of the Promised Land, so He now feeds us. The Lord commanded us to take and eat and to take and drink. Let us reflect on how we respond to such a great gift.

On Friday we celebrate the death of the Lord. He took upon Himself the penalty of our sins. It is called Good Friday because the Lord saved us from eternal damnation by His death on the cross. As the Hebrew people put the blood of the lamb on their doorposts that saved them from the angel of death (Passover), so now the Blood of the Lamb (Jesus) saves us from eternal death. As we look at the cross, it is the school of love. Love is dying to oneself to serve the needs of the other. This is what Jesus did for us. On the cross, we see the great love that Jesus has for us.

On Easter, we celebrate the Resurrection of the Lord. Light overcomes darkness, life is stronger than death. Jesus wants all of us to have a Risen life, to be free from the slavery of sin and to live in peace, joy, and love.

I would encourage you to partake in the Holy Week liturgies so that they will help you to pause and reflect on the events that brought us salvation. May all that we do bring us closer in our relationship with Jesus and help us to acknowledge the great love of God. He is a God of mercy and compassion. He loves us with an unconditional love. He is our good Shepherd, our Lord and Savior. Let us give Him more of our heart in response to His great love.

You are encouraged to prepare for the feast of Easter by cleansing your soul through the Sacrament of Penance. Let this be the Easter gift that you give to yourself. Confession times are listed on page 5 of this bulletin.

Our monthly Healing Mass will be held this Wednesday, April 1, beginning with the rosary at 7:00 p.m.

The collection on Easter will be for the health and retirement needs of our active and senior diocesan priests. I thank you in advance for your generosity.

May Jesus continue to shepherd you in all of your needs.

God love you,

Scriptural Teaching

An Inquisitive Walk through the Scripture, 69

We continue to look at Moses as a “type” of Christ, someone whose life and deeds become the setting of some of the criteria that the Messiah must fulfill. After passing through the Red Sea, the Israelites sang a hymn of thanksgiving, led by Moses and Miriam. (Ex. 15)

The early Church viewed the itinerary of the Israelites as an understanding of living the Christian life. First, the Israelites came to a bitter spring and they murmured against Moses for not having water to drink. (Ex. 15:22-25) The Lord instructed him to throw a tree into the water. Now this may sound pretty ridiculous but when the early Church saw this, they understood that life is bitter but when the cross (tree) of the Lord is thrown into the mix, things become manageable.

In Ex. 16, the Israelites murmured against Moses and Aaron because they had no bread or flesh to eat. They said it would have been better to have stayed in bondage than to leave Egypt to worship the Lord at Sinai. As God provided sweet water in Exodus and water from the Rock in Exodus 17:1-7 and Numbers 20:7-11, so He provides water of the Spirit for Christian believers today. (Jn7:37-39) As He provided the water so would He provide the bread and the flesh. Again, take the time to read the entirety of John 6 where Jesus proclaims Himself to be the Bread of Life and that His Flesh is real food, His Blood real drink.

The Book of Exodus relates encountering nations that were hostile to the Lord’s people and that as long as Moses prayed and had the involvement of Aaron and Hur, the people would be able to defeat their enemies. (Ex. 17:8-13) Jesus is the Intercessor with the Father and He seeks engagement of His people by faith so that sin, injustice and evil can be overcome. It is very important to remember what God said to St. Catherine of Sienna: “I created you without your aid but I cannot save you without your cooperation.” The work of salvation depends on the saving death and resurrection of the Lord but it also depends on our accepting this gift and cooperating with the Holy Spirit. It depends on our drinking of the water of the Holy Spirit, eating the Bread of Life and the Body of Christ, praying in times of war (temptation) and understanding that our first goal is to get to Mount Sinai for the reception of God’s Word. After receiving the Word will come the journey to the Promised Land and the second mount, Mount Sinai where the people will offer an acceptable sacrifice. Notice that we do this at every Mass where we hear God’s Word (Sinai) and offer the sacrifice of the Lord. (Zion) There is remarkable consistency in the Scripture as God lays out His plan for all who take the time to see it.

LITURGY CORNER

Previously called "Passion Sunday," this Sunday marks the beginning of Passiontide, a deeper time of Lent. This is the third Sunday of the scrutinies for the preparation of adult converts, and the final Sunday of Lent before the beginning of Holy Week. The Liturgy of the Word of this day speaks of re-creation, resurrection, and new life.

While we still live our natural lives, our new identity is found in God's spirit, and that same spirit makes it possible for us to pursue and achieve holiness as we look toward Christ's return in glory.
