April 12, 2015

Dear Parishioners,

This Sunday is Divine Mercy Sunday. The image of Divine Mercy shows Jesus with white and red rays radiating from His heart. The rays remind us of the blood and water that came from the side of Jesus when He was pierced with the sword as He hung upon the cross. The white rays symbolize the water of Baptism and the red the blood of the Eucharist. This pouring out of the blood and water is the source of the sacramental life of the Church. Divine Mercy Sunday is a reminder that our salvation is a gift of God's Mercy.

On the cross Jesus paid the price of salvation. He satisfied the justice of God for the wages of sin is death. We, in turn, received His mercy, the forgiveness of our sins and the hope of eternal life. We are loved by God unconditionally. Let us respond to this love by giving our love to Jesus. We will celebrate Divine Mercy this Sunday with prayer and adoration. The schedule is listed on page 5 in this bulletin. In celebration of Divine Mercy, we are encouraged to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation. It is the sacrament of God's mercy since our sins are forgiven and washed away.

Thank you to all who contributed to our Easter celebration. Thank you to Anne Grant who, along with the cantors, choirs and musicians, provided beautiful music for our liturgies. Thank you to the liturgy committee for providing all that was needed for our liturgies. Thank you to the ministers, altar servers and ushers for your service. Thank you to Carrie Kelly and those who helped her decorate the sanctuary. Thank you to Steve Zolud, Michael Olivo and their helpers for providing us with the video projections of the music and prayers. I also thank the RCIA Team for leading our candidates to the reception of the sacraments. Also, thank you to all who sent cards and gifts.

A 12 week television series on the Acts of the Apostles began last Sunday. It is called A.D. The Bible Continues, on NBC, at 9:00 p.m. Sunday evenings. It is well done and worth watching.

The Praise & Worship Group on Monday evening will be having a series of instruction for those interested in The Baptism of the Holy Spirit. This will be a 7 week program. It will begin this Monday at 7:30 p.m.

May Jesus continue to shepherd you in all of your needs.

God love you,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Fr. Ron".

Scriptural Teaching

An Inquisitive Walk through the Scripture, 71

We recommend keeping these reflections in a three-ring binder for the sake of pondering, challenging, questioning what is offered. Please consider that this is a series and some things may not be as clear if all individual reflections are not read.

As we continue reflections on Moses as a “type” of Christ, we mentioned last week the Golden Calf. As part of his response, Moses interceded with the Lord with a remarkable prayer: “This people have sinned a great sin; and they have made for themselves gods of gold. But now, if You will, forgive their sin - and if not, blot me, I pray, out of Your book which You have written.” (Ex. 32:31, 32) Like Abraham before him, Moses had a very intimate relationship with the Lord and could speak to Him with a certain familiar boldness. When Abraham interceded for the people of Sodom and Gomorrah (Gen. 18), the Lord was leading him to have the heart of the Lord in caring for His people. Likewise, when the Lord commanded the sacrifice of Isaac (Gen. 22), it was for the sake of bringing Abraham to a more profound awareness of just how much he (Abraham) loved and trusted the Lord. When the Lord threatened to destroy Israel because of the Golden Calf, He was in fact bringing Moses to a crucial point of loving his people in relation to how much the Lord loves His people. St. Paul would later write: “For I could wish that I myself were accursed and cut off from Christ for the sake of my brethren, my kinsmen by race.” (the Jewish people) (Roms. 9:3)

We can focus on two elements. First, the intimate relationship that Moses had with God in that he could plead with such assurance for his sinful people. Second, that Moses was willing to be blotted out of the Lord’s book for the sake of his people. The Lord Jesus is one with the Father and yet this did not prevent Him from emptying Himself of His glory (Phils. 2:1-5) to become one with sinful humankind in all things but sin. Jesus did not only this but was even willing to become sin (2 Cors. 5:21) and a curse (Gals. 3:10-14) for the sake of His people; and, on the cross, He experienced being totally abandoned by God as He quoted Ps. 22 “My God, My God, why have You abandoned me?” Moses and Paul offered to be blotted out of God’s book but Jesus experienced it on behalf of all humankind when He died on the cross. Jesus has the same love of humankind as the Father does and so He knew that after His self-sacrifice and experience of abandonment would come Resurrection and Ascension to the right hand of the Father in His natural glory.

God was showing us in Moses a man who would put the well-being of others before his own – not just for a temporal reprieve but to be willing to be blotted out of the Book of Life. As man, Jesus died for all humankind but as Son of God – “the Way, the Truth, the Life” – He offers to all humankind the way to Eternal Life – Life Abundant. (Jn. 10:10)

LITURGY CORNER

Divine Mercy Sunday!

How should we prepare for this great Feast of Mercy?

Pope John Paul II said that the image of the Risen Jesus Christ portrays Jesus bringing Mercy to the whole world. Our Lord said, "I want the image to be solemnly blessed on the first Sunday after Easter, and I want it to be venerated publicly so that every soul may know about it. I promise that the soul that will venerate this image will not perish". (Diary 341, 48)

Jesus said to St. Faustina, "I am offering people a vessel with which they are to keep coming for graces to the fountain of mercy. That vessel is this image with the signature: Jesus, I trust in You." (Diary 327) "The two rays denote Blood and Water. The pale ray stands for the Water which makes souls righteous. The red ray stands for the Blood which is the life of souls. These two rays issued forth from the very depths of My tender mercy when My agonized Heart was opened by a lance on the cross. ...Happy is the one who will dwell in their shelter, for the just hand of God shall not lay hold of him." (Diary 299)

PARENTING CORNER

Ways to Keep Easter Joy Alive

Not many of us are used to sustaining an "Easter Spirit" of celebration all the way to Pentecost, so here are some suggestions:

1. Light a special candle during meals to recall the light of Christ.
2. Plan fun family activities - one for each week of Easter.
3. Put up a sign or banner that proclaims, "He is risen!"
4. Every day read together from the Easter Story; Matthew 28, Mark 16, Luke 24 and John 20-21.
5. Add an "Alleluia" or three Alleluias to your grace before meals.
6. Put on an Easter play. Invite relatives and friends to watch.
7. Make a poster of a life-giving cross. Add paper flowers and leaves each day.
8. Celebrate life by doing something as a family to support an unborn child.
9. Keep fresh flowers around.
10. Use the traditional Easter greeting, "Christ is risen! He has risen indeed!"

Pray For Your prayers are requested for the benefactors of our parish and the deceased of our community especially Mary Tecce. Also, please pray for the sick among us and all those who have asked us to pray for them this week. Their names have been inscribed in our parish Book of Intentions in the Chapel. Please contact the rectory to add a name.

Please pray for all those currently serving in the military, especially those deployed overseas: Kevin Garofano, Debra Martinez, Scott McDonough, & Matthew Redmond.

Cenacle of the Marian Movement of Priests

St. Joseph Parish is answering Our Lady's call. Please join us as we hold our monthly cenacle. Please note: April and May monthly cenacle will be held on the 2nd Saturday of the month at 9:30 a.m. in the chapel after the 9:00 a.m. Mass. (Time change is due to Holy Week and First Communions.)

We are asked to meet at least once a month, say a rosary together, pray special prayers for our Pope and read one or more of our Lady's messages given to Fr. Gobbi. We also make an Act of Consecration to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. We hope you can join us. If you have any questions, please contact: Sharon Keith (781) 245-5770.
