Seventh Sunday of Easter

May 2015
Congratulations to our First Communicants!

May 17, 2015

Dear Parishioners,

Last Friday, twenty-nine of our young adults received the Sacrament of Confirmation. This was their personal Pentecost as they received the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. The Spirit was given to empower them to be disciples of Jesus in faithfully walking in His ways and to spread the Good News of Jesus. As we read in the Acts of the Apostles, the first disciples were gun shy and fearful until they received the Holy Spirit. Our students are now given the same power to go out and speak and live the good news of Jesus. They are living in a world that is hostile to the Christian faith. We need only to look at some of the laws of our country that legalize immorality to see this. It will not be easy for them to speak the truth as taught by Jesus. They are to bring the light of Jesus into their relationships and social settings. The celebration of this sacrament challenges us. Are we living as faithful disciples of Jesus we who have been empowered by the Holy Spirit? Are we good examples to those who now are joining us as confirmed Christians? Jesus is the conqueror of sin and death and He calls us to continue His work of preaching, teaching, and healing. Next Sunday, we will celebrate Pentecost. May all of us pray this week that we receive a fresh outpouring of His Spirit to be faithful disciples of the Lord Jesus Christ.

I wish to inform the community that our youth director and her husband, Julie and Jesús Vazquez, will be leaving our community to be lay missionaries in the Caribbean. They are responding to what they feel is the Lord's calling upon their lives. I wish to thank them for the contributions that they have made to our youth ministry program. They have been a good witness to our youth of the Christian life, in loving God and caring for the needs of the poor. They have made an impact in the lives of many of our young people. They will be missed and we pray that the Lord's blessing be upon them in their future endeavors.

I will be available for confession this week on Monday, May 18, from 6:30 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.

May Jesus continue to shepherd you in all of your needs.

God love you,

Scriptural Teaching

An Inquisitive Walk through the Scripture, 76

There are several covenants that we consider as we check for the credentials of the Messiah and God's plan for our salvation. There was the promise to Adam and Eve. Then the covenant with humankind and all creation made with Noah. After this came the covenant with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob with the promise of land and Messiah. After this, God made covenant with all Israel at Sinai through Moses. Later on, God covenanted with David that the Messiah would come from his line and loins – a very important distinction as we shall ponder the lineages of David relating to Joseph and Mary. There is also a new covenant spoken of in Jeremiah 31 that deals with God writing His law upon the hearts of His people.

There is another covenant which does not get much attention but may be a voice that still speaks from Ireland! The following reflection is offered not as definitive but as speculative. This covenant deals with Phinehas, a grandson of Aaron the High Priest. Phinehas was of the Tribe of Levi which was set apart by God to be the priests. These priests had no land of their own and so were dependent on the other eleven tribes for their sustenance which was afforded to them as they provided sacrifices for the community. Exodus 29 speaks of the ordination of the Levites but when the Levites rallied against those who worshipped the Golden Calf, killing three thousand, Moses said to them: "Today you have ordained yourselves for the service of the Lord, each one at the cost of his son and of his brother, that He may bestow a blessing upon you this day" (Ex. 32:29). Levites are associated with blood in very concrete ways – the blood of sacrifices and the blood of sinners. Phinehas is no exception. In Numbers 25, Phinehas witnessed an Israelite man sinning with a Midianite woman. He thrust them through with a spear and a plague of chastisement was stayed. God promised Phinehas "a covenant of peace; and it shall be to him, and to his descendants after him, the covenant of a perpetual priesthood, because he was zealous for his God and made atonement for the people of Israel" (NM 25:12, 13). [We must be cautious in condemning such acts of bloodshed from our perspective millennia after the fact. Such concrete examples are used by the Lord to teach us spiritual truths.]

At any rate, Zechariah, the father of John the Baptist, was of the division of Abijah (Lk. 1:5; 1 Chr. 24:10) and probably descended from Phinehas. This may mean that John the Baptist was rightful heir to the perpetual priesthood promised to Phinehas. John certainly took the sword (Word of God) to the evil and injustice he saw and his blood was shed as testimony to his zeal for God. Our Lady of Knock in Ireland celebrates our Lady's visit to St. John the Baptist Church. Along with her was the vision of a priest with miter. Some say this man was John the Apostle but the miter may be the miter of the Jewish High Priest, rightfully worn by John the Baptist, of the Tribe of Levi, descendent and heir to covenant with Phinehas. John the Baptist would not wear loin cloth of camel hair when greeting the Mother of God. He would be properly attired in his priestly robes. Even today, the covenant of Phinehas testifies to the Lamb of God.

LITURGY CORNER

Pentecost

Next weekend celebrates Pentecost - the descent of the Holy Spirit on the Apostles.

The gift of tongues and fire represent the mission given to the Apostles to preach and to witness to the "ends of the earth."

Today the Spirit inspires each and every one of us to carry out this mission with different gifts such as preaching, witnessing, healing, forgiving, teaching, etc. We are to use our gifts with humility, not pride. We are all part of one Body. The Spirit gives us the wisdom to know how to serve.

This feast also coincides with Confirmation where we "accept" our adult mission and move into our faith - filled responsibilities even more deeply.

The colors of the celebration are red signifying fire, royalty, and the mission to bring the "fire" of faith to the world.
