2nd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

John was standing with two of his disciples, and as he watched Jesus walk by, he said, "Behold, the Lamb of God." The two disciples heard what he said and followed Jesus. - Jn 1:35-37

Hear I Am: Answer God's Call

“Speak, for your servant is listening.” With those few words Samuel humbles himself and declares his loyalty and obedience to God. There are perhaps, for many of us, challenges in those words. Initially Samuel responds “Here I am,” but thinks it was Eli who called him. The idea of being a servant and the willingness to serve are what may be trials for us in terms of how we live.

Samuel does not recognize the voice of the Lord. That, too, may be a problem for us. First we need to be listening. Are we, or are we merely going through the motions? Responding to God with “Here I am” is a magnificent way to react to God. It is not that God does not know where we are, but saying that can serve as a reminder to us that we are stewards, servants to Him, and it implies we are prepared to hear what He wants us to do.

“Here I am” is said numerous times by those in the Old Testament including Abraham, Jacob, Moses, Isaiah, and by Ananias in the New Testament. When Jesus says, “Come follow me,” as He does to us, do we hear Him, and even more important do we respond and do we follow?

In order to do that properly we have to be prepared to serve Him and others. Thus, like Samuel, we need to listen, and then we need to serve. At a recent papal audience, Pope Francis said, “Love and charity are service, helping others, serving others. When you forget yourself and think of others, this is love!”

STM NEWS

Coughing, Sneezing, Runny Nose!

Many times at Mass some folks may choose not to shake hands during the Sign of Peace. If during the winter time especially you offer someone the "Sign of Peace" by a hand shake and they respond with a smile, a nod of the head, or just the words, "Peace with you" and not a handshake.....don't be offended. They are not wanting to exchange a handshake of peace because they may know that their hands have germs on them from a cough, sneeze or a runny nose. They are not wanting to spread their germs or possibly get germs from their neighbor. Please use common sense during the cold and flu season. Thank you!!!

Hope Unlimited Bake Sale

The annual bake sale to benefit Hope Unlimited sponsored by Moms group and Couples in Christ will be the weekend of January 27-28. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

Spring Women's Retreat: Martha and Mary

"Essential Questions: What Martha and Mary Can Teach Us" is the theme of a March 16-18 spring women's retreat at Mount Saint Joseph Conference and Retreat Center (located 12 miles west of Owensboro on Hwy. 56). Most discussions of these two Gospel women focus on the frazzled worker Martha compared to her quiet, prayerful sister Mary. We will consider these stories from a different approach. During presentations that peel back the layers of the Gospel stories, quiet reflection, group sharing and celebration of the sacraments of Reconciliation and Eucharist, retreatants will explore the links between Mary and Martha and their own lives. The retreat leader is Ursuline Sister Cheryl Clemons, Vice President for Academic Affairs/Academic Dean for Brescia University. The $180 fee includes meals and accommodations. Commuters can attend for $130. Take 10 percent off if paid in full by Feb. 16. To register, contact Kathy McCarty, 270-229-0206 or e-mail kathy.mccarty@maplemount.org. A brochure can be found at ursulinesmsj.org.

Why Do We Do That?

Catholic Traditions Explained

Question: The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity begins on January 18, and ends on January 25, the feast of the Conversion of St. Paul. What does one have to do with the other?

Answer: The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity consists of eight days beginning January 18 (at that time the feast of the Chair of Peter), and ending on January 25, the feast of the Conversion of St. Paul. The Franciscan Friars of the Atonement, founded in the early twentieth century in Graymoor, NY, sought to promote unity among Anglicans and Roman Catholics. Paul James Wattson, a former Episcopalian priest, founded the community, which was formally accepted into the Catholic communion. The idea for Christian unity soon began to catch on, and by the 1930s, more and more Christians welcomed such a focus. Suggestions for prayer and education are distributed each year, emphasizing a jointly chosen theme. The 1964 Vatican II document on ecumenism, "Unitatis Redintegratio," gave a great boost to the octave, so that today many Christians worldwide promote and participate in the octave time of prayer.

The emphasis on both Peter and Paul aptly fits into the rationale of the octave. Peter is seen as the source of unity within the Christian tradition. Paul is highlighted due to his vision of bringing all to Christ. The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity is an ideal opportunity to pray for and promote respect, understanding, and, hopefully, eventual unity among Christians. To learn more, visit geii.org.

Catholic bookstores, shrines and Catholic religious supply stores often have holy water available. You can also obtain some from your local parish. Many churches even have a waterspout designated holy water.

- 1 Bless your children with holy water at bedtime or before they leave for school in the morning.
- 2 Sprinkle holy water in your child's room. (This is a tangible way for children to remember that God is watching over them.)
- 3 Place holy water in a special bowl on a table by the entryway, or install a small holy water basin next to the door and bless your comings and goings.
- 4 Bless yourself with holy water at prayer or after a stressful day.
- 5 Bless your spouse with holy water as a sign of Christ's enduring presence in your relationship.
