Stewardship

How Our Stewardship Way of Life Builds Up the Body of Christ

I have had the honor of coaching all three of my kids in soccer. When you are a coach of a team of little ones, along with the fundamentals of the game and good sportsmanship, you want to teach the value of teamwork. If they can learn about how a team functions and why working together matters, that lesson can benefit them for many years to come.

The Body of Christ is a type of team. We are all called upon to use our talents and gifts in such a way that they complement those of others. We are stronger and capable of so much more together than when we are apart.

Our stewardship isn't just about our personal call of God to cultivate our gifts and give them back with increase to Him. It is about how our stewardship way of life builds up the Body of Christ. The Body cannot function as God intended it to if parts of it are not fully giving of themselves. In community, we have the power to change the world around us because we bring the Gospel of Jesus Christ to those who need to hear it and witness it by our actions.

This Lent, consider how you fit into the Body of Christ. How can your gifts and talents make the Church stronger? You just might be the missing component of a team that really needs help to make the greatest impact for Jesus.

Lenten Meal Blessing

We bless you, Lord, and we praise you, for you have given us this meal to share, provided by the earth and prepared by human hands.

Help us remember those who cannot eat because of poverty or sickness.

Let the brief hunger we feel this Lent make us hunger even more for justice.

May this meal strengthen us to do your will.

Blessed be God for ever

All: Blessed be God for ever.

Scripture Use During Holy Week

The Sisters of St. Benedict of Ferdinand are offering a program, "Understanding How the Church Uses Scripture for the Liturgies of Holy Week," on Saturday, March 17, from 9:45 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Eastern time. This program explores the use of the Bible for the Church's most important week of the year. It will be held at Monastery Immaculate Conception in Ferdinand, Indiana. The cost is $75, including lunch. For more information or to register, call 800-880-2777, or 812-367-1411, ext. 2915, or visit www.thedome.org/events. Presenter is Father Eugene Hensell, OSB, a monk of Saint Meinrad Archabbey.

Vocation Awareness

"Here I am."

Abraham had total trust and confidence in the Lord. The call to priesthood and religious life is about trusting in God enough to give your life to him. If you would like more information about discerning a vocation to priesthood, contact the vocations office: 270-683-1545

Prayer | Fasting | Almsgiving

Prayer: Throughout Scripture, Jesus goes to pray in deserted place. Lent is our "deserted place." We draw near to God through Mass, confession, and spiritual practices like the Stations of the Cross, but we are also invited to spend time in prayer alone with the Father like Jesus did.

Fasting: Fasting is not a diet! With a diet, we try to achieve a physical goal in this world. In fasting, we try to achieve a spiritual goal in the next. Fasting helps us to sacrifice our preferences and less-than-healthy impulses to build discipline to choose the good in all areas of life.

Almsgiving: Time and time again, the Bible tells us that to love God we must love others. Our "neighbor" is someone we might not expect. Giving alms is an opportunity to support and care for our neighbor in need.

OTHER NEWS

Why Do We Do That?
Catholic Traditions Explained

Question: Can you recommend some good books for Lenten spiritual reading?

Answer: On more than one occasion, a coach being interviewed about his team--successful or not--will be asked about the next step. The inevitable response includes something about getting back to basics. Reviewing the fundamentals of the sport strengthens performance and builds confidence.

The best Lenten reading takes us back to the fundamentals. If Lent is the time for the Church to be on retreat, then we should focus on the texts that help us deepen our understanding of our faith. Spend time reading one of the Gospels, and use a Scripture commentary to learn all you can about the passion of Jesus. Read about the lives of the saints, especially your patron saint and that of your parish. Perhaps there is some local candidate for sainthood, like Father Walter Cizek, SJ, who wrote several faith-inspiring books. Finally, you can use the Catechism of the Catholic Church to learn more about the church's teachings and beliefs. The sections on prayer and the Mass are really great reflections. Focusing on the basics really helps us take another step forward in our faith. We have not only a better understanding of what we believe and practice, but also why we believe. With that belief comes the confidence we need to be better, more faithful witnesses to Christ.

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

The hope of being transformed or transfigured into the image of God awaits all of God's children. We walk through this life knowing that our eternal destiny is to be like God and live eternally in his presence. How does this truth about who we can become change the way we live today? Does it even matter to us that we are called to a higher purpose that is often quite different than the one we fabricate for ourselves here on earth? A transformed, eternal life is God's desire for all of his daughters and sons. Knowing this helps us put suffering in perspective and walk peacefully with hope in our hearts.

Do you wish your prayer to fly toward God? Make for it two wings: fasting and almsgiving.

- St. Augustine

Mini Edition

Lenten Lunch Series Kicks Off Lent and Easter a little early this year

Our first Lenten Lunch was held this past Tuesday and the series got off to a great start. We had a super turn out and our speaker, Joe Bland, Director of the Office of Evangelization at the Diocese of Owensboro explained what being a Missionary Disciple is all about and why we are called to be one.

We certainly enjoyed having everyone here for our first lunch and hope you will be able to attend our second Lenten Lunch on March 6 at noon. Sister Betty Drewes, a Benedictine Sister from Ferdinand, IN. will be our speaker. Look for more information soon..⊕
